

Berlin-Boylston Regional School District
Bias/Stereotyping Rubric
Unique Learning System

Name(s) of Reviewer(s): Michelle Petersen and Sally-Ann Stukuls

Title of Reviewer(s): Special Education Teacher and Director of Curriculum and Grants, Grades 6-12

Date of Review: 10/4/23

Materials Reviewed: Unique Learning System/online platform, accessed through a website and QR code, mostly for Middle school

Material/Area	Meets criteria	Does not meet criteria or NA
Materials are free from bias and stereotypes on the basis of race	yes
Materials are free from bias and stereotypes on the basis of skin color	yes
Materials are free from bias and stereotypes on the basis of gender	yes
Materials are free from bias and stereotypes on the basis of sexual orientation	yes
Materials are free from bias and stereotypes on the basis of Religion	yes
Materials are free from bias and stereotypes on the basis of National Origin	yes
Materials are free from bias and stereotyping on the basis of Disability	yes
Materials are free from bias and stereotyping on the bases of homelessness	yes
Encourages students to consider programs of study, extracurricular activities, and occupational opportunities on the basis of individual interests, abilities, and skills	yes
Examine testing materials for bias and counteract any foundation bias when	Yes: leveled and administering tests and interpreting test results	differentiation

Communicate effectively with limited-English-proficient and disabled students and facilitate their access to all programs and services offered by the district.	Yes because of leveling /differentiation
Provide limited-English proficient students with the opportunity to receive newsletters, informational materials and assessment results in a language they will understand.	no	NA for Michelle's students at this time
Support students in educational and occupational pursuits that are nontraditional for their gender.	yes	