After high school, Catherine will be getting her Bachelor’s degree in Fine Arts in Musical Theatre Performance from Northern Kentucky University with minors in Dance and Spanish.

Catherine said her favorite memory is “hanging out with my friends and teachers during free time in class or with my fellow cast members backstage during shows.”

May 21, 2024

Maddox stated his favorite memory as a bulldog is the mock trial in Mr. Etzkorn's class. He said "During the project, I worked for weeks as a defense attorney simulating a courtroom battle. We prepped witnesses, prepared questions, issued opening and closing statements, and—when we entered the "courtroom"—cross-examined witnesses. Before the trial, I felt a lack of clear direction when it came to my future plans. However, when the trial ended, I found myself wanting to become a lawyer."

Senior Woodworking Project

David Etzkorn, a senior in Construction Tech Design Build II, recently designed and built a basement bar for his family. This sturdy, yet portable unit will provide a lot of entertainment in the years to come. He built it out of Red Oak, stained with Early American and painted black, then finished with three coats of lacquer.

Dean Baumgartner, a senior in Construction Tech Design Build II, wanted to build a futon sofa bed for himself. With mortise-and-tenon joinery throughout, he built it out of Red Oak, stained it with Early American and applied three coats of lacquer.

Isaac Earl, a senior in Construction Tech Design Build II, recently built an entertainment center for his use at home. This eye-catching piece has many options including two adjustable shelves. He built it out of Red Oak, stained with Early American, and finished it with three coats of lacquer.

Senior Awards Night

The 53rd Annual Senior Awards Ceremony was held for Elida graduating Seniors who earned scholarships and recognition for their academic achievements. Nearly $30,000 in scholarships were awarded to deserving Elida graduates. Many local memorial scholarships from Elida donors, local business scholarships, and scholarships from Elida Athletic Boosters and Choral Promoters were awarded, among others.

The group received the highest possible rating with each judge giving them a 1 with an overall score of 1 which is considered a "Superior" rating!
