VI. Old Business: Call for volunteers to create an end-of-year H&S Highlights slideshow to be presented at June School Board meeting (tentative).

VII. New Business

- Thank you for the raffles for the Daily Food Pantry
- Communications for Individual H & S: Clarification from Amanda Kelly "In regards to non-school related events from members of the community, the District has a place within the Community Bulletin Board (https://www.methacton.org/Page/6869) under Community Listings (Flyers for programs offered by area not-for-profits and community service programming). I see no issue with Home and School sharing this information." per email on 3/14. Per the website "Methacton Community Bulletin Board".
- Look to this page for announcements from Methacton area non-profit agencies and intramural organizations who are interested in reaching out to Methacton families and students.
- Weekly e-mail blasts will be issued to Methacton families via the district's Weekly Happenings e-newsletter, and published on the district's Twitter feed and Facebook page.
- Individuals interested in advertising on this page should contact Kathy Kifer, Communications Office, at kkifer@methacton.org in order to obtain prior approval. Flyers and announcements must meet the requirements outlined in Methacton School District Board of School Directors Policy 913 and 913.1."
- Per Jennifer Zavertnick - Nadine Libby will come to speak at our May 10th meeting for fundraising.
- Kim Knoll was very appreciative of gift baskets for food pantry. Tues and Wed evenings for possible tours after 6p or Sunday afternoons. She would like two possible dates to advertise for tours of the Daily Food Pantry. Jenn will email out the final dates once confirmed.

- Gabby Winters - motion to amend bylaws for MCC Treasurer to have previous experience as Home and School Treasurer; as well as H & S Treasurer being a two-year term for all schools, including single year term schools.
- Discussion - Arrowhead, Woodland boards are complete, all other school elections being held this week. Work on finalizing MCC nominations.
- Nikki Krelovich - its volunteer appreciation week; many thanks to our volunteers. Idea to create a list of alumni/current Methacton owned family businesses. Everyone loves the idea. Goal for next year is to build a true Alumni association.
