

Haitian Slave rebellion and the global effects

T-topic

Part 1: Directions: Complete one of the following RAFT choices below.

| American Perspective                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Haitian Perspective                                                                                                                     | French Perspective                                                                                              |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| R-Journalist for The New Orleans Times in 1792 A-American public F-Newspaper article T-Should Haiti become its own country? Why? How will the Haitian Slave rebellion impact life in the United States? | R-Haitian citizen, eyewitness to 1792 rebellion A-Napoleon F-Letter T-Let us be free and leave our country! | R-French citizen A-Haitian people F-Song T-What's wrong with the way we govern you? |

Complete your RAFT in the space provided below. Be sure to read through the grading rubric.

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue or grey ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are approximately 20 lines visible. The paper has a slight shadow on the right side, suggesting it's resting on a surface.

Part II. Respond to the following:

How did the Haitian Slave rebellion impact the purchase of Louisiana?

---

