

1852

GOLD!!!

Thousands of people rushed west. But there were no roads and no overland mail service. To connect East and West, slow ships traveled all the way around South America to California.