

1930s-1940s

Since the 1890s to the present, trucks have been used to transport the mail through towns and across America's highways.