

WORLD WAR I WAR MEMORIALS

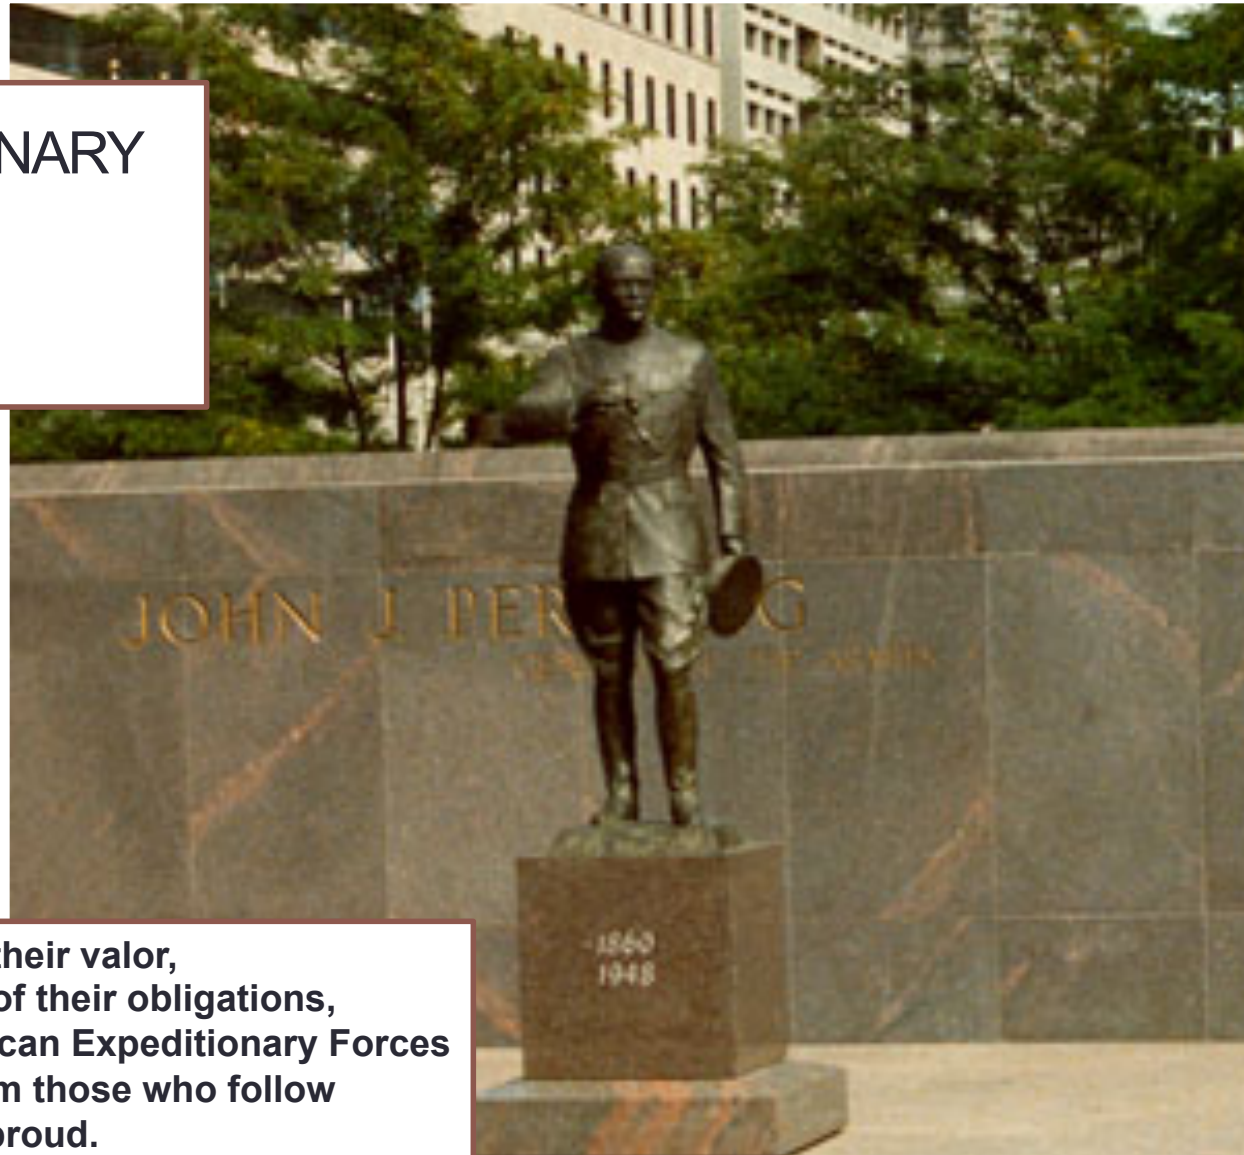

I have many times asked myself whether there can be more potent advocates of peace upon earth through the years to come than this massed multitude of silent witnesses to the desolation of war.

Lochnagar Crater

France

The Lochnagar Crater commemorates the men and women of all nations whose lives were affected by the Great War of 1914-1918.

German Monument

France

The German and French lines fought a few metres apart on the Hartmannsweilerkopf Mountain (called Vieil Armand by the French) of the Vosges mountains in Alsace, France in late autumn of 1914 and into spring of 1915. Because of the view across the plain, it was a strategic place for both sides.

German soldiers constructed the memorial during the war and dedicated it to their fallen comrades. It is one of the few German memorials remaining on the Western Front. Most were destroyed after the war.

Canadian National Vimy Memorial

France

This design image shows two towers rising into the sky, one for Canada and one for France, to symbolize the two countries united in their sacrifice to the Great War.
