

Be a Word Detective. Our word is Creator.

Names of students on team: _____

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness."

Look up the word Creator in several dictionaries. Does it say "One who creates"? _____

It is really not possible to define a word by using a part of the word. In other words, the dictionary will say that a teacher is "someone who teaches." To really understand this word, you would have to know what the word teach means.

To really define this word, you will need to look up the word create.

So, look up the word create.

Copy the meaning here:

Discuss what the word Creator means. Use the definitions of creator and create to form a clear definition of the word creator. Write your definition here.

Be prepared to share your ideas with the class.