

Who Said It?

Name: _____

Match the statements in the chart with the speakers listed in the Answer Box.

Answer Box The Greeks and Romans Thomas Jefferson John Locke King James
When I wrote “We hold these truths to be self-evident,” I meant that everyone can see that these things are true.
“Our government favors the many instead of the few; this is why it is called a democracy.” We invented the idea of democracy.
“All men are created equal.” I wrote that in a book that Thomas Jefferson read.
“Divine Right of Kings” I don't believe that all men are created equal. I was meant to rule over people.
Answer Box Abraham Lincoln Susan B. Anthony Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.
The Declaration of Independence says “All men are created equal.” That means slavery is wrong.
I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed: "We hold these truths to be self-evident: that all men are created equal."
“All men and women are created equal.” Women should be able to vote.

Answer SheetWho Said It?

Name: _____

Match the statements in the chart with the speakers listed in the Answer Box.

Answer Box The Greeks and Romans Thomas Jefferson John Locke King James
When I wrote “We hold these truths to be self-evident,” I meant that everyone can see that these things are true.	Thomas Jefferson
“Our government favors the many instead of the few; this is why it is called a democracy.” We invented the idea of democracy.	The Greeks and Romans
“All men are created equal.” I wrote that in a book that Thomas Jefferson read.	John Locke
“Divine Right of Kings” I don't believe that all men are created equal. I was meant to rule over people.	King James
Answer Box Abraham Lincoln Susan B. Anthony Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.
The Declaration of Independence says “All men are created equal.” That means slavery is wrong.	Abraham Lincoln
I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed: "We hold these truths to be self-evident: that all men are created equal."	Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.
“All men and women are created equal.” Women should be able to vote.	Susan B. Anthony