

NAME _____

From 1619 to Slavery

Directions: Fill in the explanation of each document as the movie or timeline is described.

Date of Document	Description of Document	Explanation of Document
Ancient Map	Map of World, including North America and Africa
1619	Illustration of Jamestown Landing
1622	John Martin and policy towards Indians
1623/1624	1624 Virginia Census
1628	Sir George Yeardley's Will
1630	King Charles I Proclamation on Tobacco
1650	Biography of Anthony and Mary Johnson
1662	Law About Mothers and Children
1669	Laws Regarding Punishing Slaves
1670	Court Document about Anthony Johnson's Land
1736	Runaway Slave Advertisement

NAME _____

From 1619 to Slavery—ANSWER KEY

Directions: Fill in the explanation of each document as the movie or timeline is described.

Date of Document	Description of Document	Explanation of Document
Ancient Map	Map of World, including North America and Africa	Shows West Africa, including Angola and the New World
1619	Illustration of Jamestown Landing	We don't know if the Africans were indentured servants or slaves
1622	John Martin and policy towards Indians	Indians were hard to use as slaves because they escaped easily and blended into the environment
1623/1624	1624 Virginia Census	No respect for Africans--they were not given names, or if so, only a first name
1628	Sir George Yeardley's Will	The Africans were not free 9 years after they arrived
1630	King Charles I Proclamation on Tobacco	Tobacco was growing exclusively in the colonies so more labor was needed, fewer indentured servants
1650	Biography of Anthony and Mary Johnson	Anthony and Mary Johnson were free and had their own land, cattle, indentured servants, and slaves
1662	Law About Mothers and Children	Children born to slave mothers were not slaves
1669	Laws Regarding Punishing Slaves	A master who punished an African slave and killed him or her would not be punished because slaves were property
1670	Court Document about Anthony Johnson's Land	Richard Johnson, Anthony's son, was given back to England because Anthony Johnson was African
1736	Runaway Slave Advertisement	Runaway slaves were searched for and rewards were offered

