

RAFT Rubric

Main Idea: 10 points

A	The content of the RAFT is accurate and well-researched.
B	The content of the RAFTS is mostly accurate and well-researched. Student mostly followed guidelines of the paper. Information clearly relates to the main topic.
C	The content of the RAFT is somewhat accurate and well-researched, Student does not follow all the guidelines. Information relates to the main topic.
D	The content of the RAFT is mostly inaccurate. Student does not follow guidelines.
F	Winged it – what were you thinking?

2

4

6

8

10

Elaboration and Details: 10 points

A	The author provides many details and elaborates fully on the main ideas.
B	The author provides details and elaborates on the main ideas.
C	The author provides some details and elaborates on some of the main ideas.
D	The author does not provide details and does not elaborate on main ideas.
F	Did you get the assignment? Did you read the rubric?

2

4

6

8

10

Organization 10 points

A	Information is very organized. The RAFT paper flows and makes sense.
B	Information is organized . RAFT paper mostly flows and/or mostly makes sense.
C	Information is organized, but parts of the RAFT paper are unclear or difficult to understand.
D	The information appears to be disorganized. Much of the RAFT paper is unclear or difficult to understand.
F	Is this in English?

2

4

6

8

10

Creativity: 10 points

A	The RAFT paper is very creative and demonstrates lots of thought, planning, and research.
B	The RAFT paper is creative and demonstrates thought, planning and research..
C	The RAFT paper is somewhat creative and demonstrates some thought, planning and research.
D	The RAFT paper is not very creative or thoughtful and do not show much planning and research.
F	Did not inherit the creative gene.

2 4 6 8 10

Context Paragraph

A	The context paragraph clearly and completely answers all of the questions and includes an explanation of how this person was affected by the abolition of the slave trade.
B	The context paragraph answers all of the questions and includes an explanation of how this person was affected by the abolition of the slave trade.
C	The context paragraph answers some of the questions and/or includes an explanation of how this person was affected by the abolition of the slave trade.
D	The context paragraph omits many of the questions and does not include an explanation of how this person was affected by the abolition of the slave trade.
F	Nothing

2 4 6 8 10

Grade: _____