Recommendation: None at this time. Annual update report to the Board of Education.

Purpose: This report serves as a 2025-2026 year-in-review for the Communications Department and includes a focused analysis of Strategic Plan Goal #3: Community, Collaboration, and Partnerships.

Background: The Communication Department's mission is to support the District through clear, transparent communication, to share information about the school district, and to build school pride within the community.

The Communications Annual Report is used to: document important information and identify trends within our district; highlight the Communications Department's activities and projects; and provide year-to-year comparable data. We will also share how the work of the Communications Department aligns with the objectives in Goal 3 of the District Strategic Plan.
