Recommendation(s): None at this time. Informational report to the Board of Education.

Purpose: To inform the Board about Special Education services that Westside Community Schools (WCS) provides to students who attend nonpublic schools that are within District 66 boundaries.

Background: This presentation will provide an overview of WCS's partnerships with nonpublic schools. It will highlight the services provided to students, which consistently exceed minimum requirements, as well as the options available to both resident and non-resident students. The presentation will also provide an overview of WCS's annual consultation process with our nonpublic partners to ensure continued access to services, effective collaboration, and clear lines of communication.
