Definitions

The Texas Education Agency provides a definition of ECSE as follows:

Early Childhood Special Education (ECSE)

Eligible children with disabilities, ages 3-21, are entitled to receive a free and appropriate public education (FAPE) under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA). In Texas, school districts Early Childhood Special Education (ECSE) programs provide special education and related services for eligible children with disabilities ages three through five. ECSE refers to the services provided by the school district, not to the place where they are provided. Eligible children may receive ECSE services in variety of settings such as pre-kindergarten, self-contained classrooms or in community settings such as Head Start or the private sector.

ECSE Unit

B.I.S.D. has created the “ECSE Unit” as an instructional setting for students whose FAPE cannot be provided primarily in the regular setting. Students based out of ECSE units require instruction focused primarily on learning functional skills and/or pre-requisite skills to academics. As students begin to learn and mature, many will increase participation in the general education setting. Our goal is to continually move students into mainstream settings and least restrictive placements.

Disabilities

In order to be eligible for special education services, the child between the ages of 3 through 21 must meet the criteria for one or more of the disability categories listed below:

Auditory Impairment (from birth)

Autism

Deaf Blindness (from birth)

Emotional Disturbance

Intellectual Disabilities

Multiple Disabilities

Non-Categorical Early Childhood (ages 3 to 5)

Orthopedic Impairment Other

Health Impairment Specific

Learning Disability Speech or

Language Impairment

Traumatic Brain Injury

Visual Impaired

Non-Categorical Early Childhood (NCEC)

Under the Individual with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), younger students (ages 3-9) may be eligible for special education and related services under a broader disability category called “Developmental Delay.” States can choose what to call this general category, how they define it, and what age range it applies to.

In Texas, this category is called “Non-Categorical Early Childhood (NCEC)” and is for students aged 3-5 who have general delays in their physical, cognitive, communication, social, emotional, or adaptive development; and who, because of these delays, need special education and related services. In Texas, a child between the ages of 3-5 may be described as “NCEC” if he or she has been diagnosed as having one of the following:

- Intellectual Disability
- Emotional Disturbance
- Specific Learning Disability Autism

A determination of NCEC must comply with criteria set forth in federal and state law as described in the Non-categorical Early Childhood framework of the Legal Framework for the Child-Centered Process Education Service Center Region 18. https://framework.esc18.net/Documents/Side\_by\_Side.pdf .For more information on eligibility, please visit Texas Project First.

Educational Placement Options for Students with Special Education Disabilities, Age 3 to 5 years of age

In accordance with the IDEA, all students in the Brownsville Independent School District who qualify for Special Education are served in the least restrictive environment with their non-disabled peers. Placement decisions are made on an individual case-by-case basis. Students who are classified with special education disabilities and/or other students whose needs warrant special programming may be educated in any combination of instructional placements. These combinations may include:

- General education classes
- Academic support provided by General Ed. Teacher and/or ECSE Unit staff (inclusion)
- ECSE Unit Classes of Foundational skills and pre-requisite academic skills taught by Special Education Teacher and ECSE Unit staff.
- Any combination of the above mentioned (ECSE Unit and General Ed. Classes) as dictated by Least Restrictive Environment for each individual student.

Goals of the ECSE Program

The primary goal of B.I.S.D. ECSE unit placement is to facilitate the inclusion of students in the general education setting to the maximum extent possible.

- It is recommended that ECSE student's length of day mirror the general education setting.
- Grade level should be determined in accordance to age for EE (3 years), PK (4 years), and Kinder (5 years). Grade level placement should follow PEIMS Guidelines.
- It is recommended that therapy be given in the general education setting as deemed appropriate to the student's IEP.
- Curriculum for the ECSE classroom should be aligned with general education.

“It is therefore the responsibility for all involved to justify the amount of time the student remains in the ECSE unit setting”.

What is Inclusion?

Is it Inclusion?

Check to See if Your Student Has an Inclusive Education

YES	NO
Child spends the majority of the day in the general education classroom.	Child spends the majority of the day in a special education classroom and goes to a general education classroom for one or two periods.
Child's desk is included with the other groups of desks in the classroom.	Child's desk is away from the other desks in the classroom.
Child has access to and is included in classroom lessons and activities that are adapted or modified to meet his/her special needs.	Child works on his/her own curriculum.
Child attends outside activities with the class including assemblies, field trips, enrichment classes and recess.	Child is given alternate activities and options with other special education students.
Child is an independent, valued and respected classroom member.	Child is looked upon as helpless, needy and dependent.
The child's paraprofessional facilitates access to the curriculum and classroom activities.	The child's paraprofessional determines access to the curriculum and classroom activities.
The paraprofessional encourages child to complete work as independently as possible, while providing support when needed.	The paraprofessional does not provide many opportunities for the child to complete work independently and "hovers".
Child receives specialist support (therapy, speech and language) with minimal disruption to the class routine and program.	Child is pulled from the classroom lessons and activities for specialist support without consideration for what the child will miss.
The teacher can identify your child's strengths and areas for improvement.	The teacher refers to the specialists and paraprofessional to identify child's development.
Child can name classmates and has many common classroom experiences.	Child does not know classmates and does not have many common classroom experiences.

Ten Tips for Special Educators

Collaborate, communicate and promote the participation of students with disabilities in the inclusive classroom.

1. Visit the regular classroom. Measure student progress and participation in the general education classroom. Your lesson modifications, adaptations, and learning goals will be more meaningful.
2. Define roles and expectations. Go to classroom teachers and explain your role and how you can help. Specify what you will need to increase student participation. Discuss discipline and behavior expectations.
3. Use the expertise of others. Do not use time duplicating time invested in researching content areas. Solicit the classroom teacher's participation. Ask for the syllabus, learning objectives, outcome standards, rubrics and any other content information.
4. Develop a rapport with others. Talk with teammates and administrators in person. Encourage others to voice concerns, hopes, and fears.
5. Watch your language. Teamwork stems from good communication. Use people's first language. Avoid acronyms or language specific to your field.
6. Invite students to ARD meetings. Students who attend their own meetings understand their role and responsibilities. As students, family friends' teachers and other professionals to share their goals and expectations with the student.
7. Promote student-teacher relationships. Brag about student strengths. Tell classroom teachers how students can participate. Never apologize for placing a student in a general class.
8. Use friends as natural supports. Let peers walk together between classes, program communication devices and assist at lunch.
9. Supervise classroom aides. Give para-professionals explicit instructions. Outline duties in detail. Always follow up and monitor how things are going in the classroom.
10. Promote active, experiential learning. Alternative methods encourage active learning for all students. Assist classroom teachers in planning cooperative learning groups, learning centers, and project-based lessons. Student will "not be a bother."

Who is ultimately responsible for the instruction and safety of the students?

The main responsibility lies with the supervising teacher, both in and out of the classroom. Therefore, it is very important that the supervising teacher train and take the time to review the routines and responsibilities with the paraprofessional. Time should be built into the daily schedule for teacher to review student success and failure with the paraprofessionals who have worked with students.

What are the responsibilities of the paraprofessional whose assignment is a one-to-one?

The teacher should always deliver instruction; however the paraprofessional can provide the student with re-teaching and reinforcement of the skills taught. See the document on use of one-to-one paraprofessionals for more complete list of duties. PARA-ParasDutiesandResponsibilities.doc \(live.com\)

Who is in charge of discipline?

The teacher is in control of the class with the help of the support staff. The paraprofessional helps students stay on task and assists in redirecting inappropriate behavior.

How do paraprofessionals support teachers during whole class instruction?

During whole class instruction, the classroom teacher is teaching and the paraprofessional is in a supportive role.

Can a paraprofessional review the student's IEP?

Yes, paraprofessionals can review the student IEP along with the supervising teacher. The supervising teacher must remind the paraprofessional that any information discussed will be strictly confidential and remain in the classroom.

Who will communicate with parents?

The supervising teacher is responsible for handling parent concerns. The responsibility of the paraprofessional is to direct parents back to the teacher. Please do not expect your paraprofessional to convey important information to parents, to handle concerns, or to inform parents of problems. Refer to paraprofessional duties and responsibilities located on the special services website. PARA-ParasDutiesandResponsibilities.doc \(live.com\)

Physical structure is the way in which we set up and organize the student's physical environment.

- Tables
- Desks
- Baskets
- Bookshelves
- Colored Masking Tape
- Carpets
- Partitions
- Easels
- Filing Cabinets

Clear Physical boundaries define classroom, spaces and visually tell a student:

- *What is to occur in each area.
- *Where each area begins and ends.
- *How to get to a specific area by the most direct route.

Physical Structure Components

Location

- Classroom
- Playground
- Hallway
- Cubby

Design / Layout

- Clear visual and physical boundaries
- Minimize visual and auditory distractions
- Develop instructional, independent and rec/leisure areas
- Organization

Transition Markers

Transition Markers are a visual or auditory process to help guide, cue and prompt the students through the daily activities and lessons.

Examples:

- Signals that it is time to “check your schedule”
- Lead to future independence
- Powerful visual tool
- Can be simple (colored card)
- Can be complex (reflect student’s interest)
- Songs: example “clean up song”, timer sounds, bells, etc.

Schedules

A definite schedule allows a child to know and anticipate what's going to happen to him. A schedule allows a student to form a routine, thereby building a comfortable environment in which he can become more productive.

1. Different types of Schedules
2. Picture/Written
3. Written
4. Photograph
5. Icon
6. Object
7. First/Then
8. Velcro
9. Manila Folders
10. Card stock paper
11. Clip boards
12. Binders

Schedules are NON-NEGOTIABLE

Visual Schedule

Definition: A series of communication pictures used to help children understand and manage the daily events.

Visual Schedules are important because they:

- Help with sequential memory and organization of time.
- Assist with language comprehension to reinforce what is expected of them.
- Reduce the possible occurrence of challenging behaviors.
- Clarify that activities happen within a specific time period.
- Alert the student of any changes that might occur.
- Assist the student in transitioning independently.
- Incorporate social interaction.
- Examples: “To Do” / “Done” or “First/Then”
- Promote Independence!!!

Visually Structured Learning Activities

Work Systems

Individual Work Systems provide a systematic way to receive and understand information.

Work Systems answer:

1. What work needs to be done?

Use containers to visually define the work items

2. How much work do I need to do?

Help the student be more productive by letting him know how much work he needs to do.

3. What should I do with my work when I am finished?

Establish a routine for finished work.

4. What should I do next?

Offer a transition to what's next on the schedule or in the routine.

Pasta Work System

Pizza Work System

Social Skills

Goals of Social Skills Training

1. Help students to establish a new set of responses to social situations.
2. Teach students how to integrate their behaviors with others in the environment.
3. Enable the students to generalize the social skills outside of the classroom.
4. Help the student to change their behavior to fit the environment.

Social Skill Lesson Components

1. Objective
2. Rational
3. Modeling
4. Role Play
5. Rehearsal
6. Practicing
7. Coaching
8. Feedback
9. Generalization

Thoughts on Social Skills

1. Social Skills should be purposefully infused into the existing curriculum in every class of each day.
2. Social Skills instruction is not an abandonment of subject area BUT an enhancement to learning.
3. Social Skills are the interactions that shape human relationships and are the foundation for successful living.
4. Social Skills should focus on each student's individual need.
5. Programs that support Social Skills include Quaver and Teach Town.

Social Stories

A social story is written according to specific guidelines. These guidelines assist a parent or professional in gathering needed information and developing an effective social story.

The list of basic guidelines is as follows:

1. Communicate desired behaviors in a positive way.
2. Write at or slightly below a student's reading comprehension level.
3. Describe who, what, when, where, and why.
4. "Write-in reality": Mention variation in routine.
5. Consider using "wh" questions as titles or subtitles.
6. Write from a first-person perspective, as though the student is describing an event.
7. Use terms like "sometimes" and "usually". For ex., "Art is usually on Tuesday's at 2:00 o'clock."
8. Board maker, writing with symbols, google images, and real-life images.

I ride the bus.

	I ride the bus.		I could get hurt or cause an accident.
	Sometimes I try to take off my seatbelt,		I can only take off my seatbelt at home or at school.
	and run away		I will be a good boy and keep my seatbelt on and stay in my seat.
	If I take off my seatbelt, and get out of my seat.		This will make everyone happy!

Social Stories

Presenting a Social Story

1. When introducing a social story, sit to the side and slightly behind the student.
2. Explain what the story is about.
3. Check for comprehension
4. Use visual cues to establish review of the story.
5. The story may be re-written to help the student generalize to other settings or situations.

Questions to Evaluate Social Stories

1. What student behavior was the story designed to address?
2. What does the social story direct the student to do?
3. How many directives were given?
4. Was the directive positive (ex. It told the student what TO do rather than what NOT to do)?
5. How many descriptive statements were used?
6. Were suggestions made to change or revise?

Power Cards

The Power Card Strategy is a way to use a child's special interest to motivate children and youth. Since many children with Autism tend to have highly developed special interests, this strategy is especially beneficial for this population.

Briefly, the Power Card Strategy is a visual aid that incorporates the child's special interest to teach appropriate social interactions, including routines, behavior expectations, the meaning of language and the hidden curriculum. It is effective because it considers the unique characteristics of children and youth with Autism.

The Power Card Strategy consist of two parts:

1. A brief scenario or character sketch describing how the hero solves a problem
2. The POWER CARD which recaps how the child can use the same strategy to solve a similar problem

For example, Nancy, a nine-year-old girl with a diagnosis of autism has a great deal of difficulty when she loses a game. This behavior was demonstrated in a variety of situations at school as well as at home. The following scenario was created featuring Bluey, Nancy's special interest.

Bluey like to play games. Sometimes he wins the game. When he wins games, Bluey feels happy. He might smile, give others a high five or say "yea!" But sometimes he may lose the game.

When Bluey loses games, he might not feel happy. He might take a deep breath, say "good job" to his friend or say, "maybe next time."

Bluey "wants everyone to have fun playing games. He wants you to remember these three things when playing games the Bluey way:

1. Games should be fun for everyone.
2. If you win a game you can; smile, give a high five, or say, "yea!"
3. If you lose a game you can: Take a deep breath, say, "good job" to your friend or "maybe next time."

What are Comic Strip Conversations?

Individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) have trouble interpreting social situations and understanding speech as quickly as most social interactions require.

A Comic Strip Conversation is a conversation between two or more people using simple illustrations in a comic strip format. They show children how to behave in a socially acceptable manner and conform to social standards. The effectiveness can be enhanced by incorporating a child's favorite cartoon character (ex. Sponge Bob, Superman, etc.) into the illustration.

How can Comic Strip Conversations be used?

- To convey important information
- For problem-solving and conflict resolution
- To learn social skills
- To follow simple classroom rules
- To communicate perspectives, feelings and ideas

Elements of Comic Strip Conversations

- A description of the event that caused the problem
- Feelings and thoughts of everyone involved
- A solution to the problem and ideas on how to avoid it in the future
- Reinforcement
- Appropriate symbols (stick figures, smiley faces, thought bubbles)
- Colors used to express feelings (green-happy, blue-sad, black-angry)

Other helpful hints

The more involved the child is in creating his or her own comic strip conversation-the more helpful it will be in the future situations. Make a book of comic strip frames, and after leading the child through several examples, have them create the conversations and solutions on their own. Keep the conversations and use them as a guide and reinforcement if the same, or similar social situation occurs again.

Sensory Integration

The following materials may be used to help students pay attention, calm down, or increase energy levels. It is important to address sensory needs before expecting children to work or pay attention. Having calm and attentive sensory systems will help promote optimal learning in children.

- Medium Therapy / Gymnastic Balls to sit on while working or relaxing
- Relaxing, Meditative Music to promote calmness (natural sounds, Yanni, etc.)
- Uplifting, yet relaxing music to promote attentiveness (Enya, River dance)
- Large sensory bins filled with macaroni, rice water, sand, cornstarch, etc.
- (Children can feel, pour scoop, dig, etc.)
- Eye-catching lamps/lights (lava, disco, rope lighting, holiday lights, etc.)
- Battery or plug in massagers: many heat and tactile varieties available everywhere
- Play-dough, silly putty, gak, nontoxic shaving cream painting, whip cream painting
- Slinky toy, koosh balls, stress ball, puppet, fidget toys etc.
- Smell exploration: aromatherapy oils and scented lotions, spices
- Motor activities: climbing, swinging, pushing, pulling, walking, jumping, rolling, crawl tunnels
- Bean bags
- Tent/ Individual areas (allows child to relax from stressful situations)
- Weighted blankets and body socks
- Fidget Toys

Sensory Choice Chart Descriptors

Using a sensory Chart

Sometimes when offered a variety of activity options, a child with an ASD will become overwhelmed and will not be able to make a choice. Additionally, children with ASDs generally have a difficult time trying new things, which results in their repeating the same activity repeatedly. This seems especially common with sensory activities. Using a sensory choice chart is a fun way to help a child who struggles with making choices to choose more easily and try some new sensory activities.

Our Sample Sensory Choice Chart can be printed and used as is or changed to fit your needs. The chart is divided into four categories: Heavy Work, Touch, Oral and Calming. Under each category are six activities. When you want a child to use the chart, have him or her roll a dice and complete the corresponding activity under the first column. Repeat by rolling for and completing one activity from each column until four activities have been completed (or as many as you want the child do).

You can modify your chart for different activities to better address the needs of a particular-child. Download a copy of the Blank Sensory Choice Chart and write in the activities that you want to use. You may also want to laminate your blank chart so that you can use a vis-à-vis to write in different activities. Another option is to use the sensory pictures and attach them with Velcro to the blank sensory choice chart. You can then have the child roll the dice for each column at the beginning of the session and then place the pictures on a Velcro strip to be followed as a picture schedule.

The following are some additional sensory ideas not included in the sample chart that you can use to create your own sensory choice chart:

Calming

1. Listen/watch videos or music of calming. For example: Nature sound, bubble pop, also work great for many children.
2. Read a book.
3. Go into a tent or other dark, quiet area for 5 minutes.
4. Take several deep, relaxing breaths.
5. Go into a dark room and use light up toys.
6. Use weighted vest as needed. Weighted vest should be removed as soon as child is calm.
7. Use of pressure points to calm child.

Touch

1. Finger paint
2. Flour balloon fidget
3. Fill a container or bucket with water and use water toys.
4. Fill a bucket or bin with sand, rice or beans and play in it with hands or toys.
5. Wrap in a soft blanket.

Oral

1. Try to keep a feather up in the air by blowing on it.
2. Blow into a recorder or other mouth instrument.
3. Make silly sounds with your mouth.
4. Sing a song

Heavy Work

1. Lay a series of hula-hoops on the floor. Have the child hop to each one.
2. Wall push-ups
3. Have a stack of heavy items such as phone books on one side of the room. Have the child pack them up
4. Have the child play hopscotch.

SNACK TIME AND COMMUNICATION

Snack time is one of the best times to work on a child's communication skills. Food can be a very motivating tool to use to encourage children to improve speaking skills as they request items. This can also be great time to work on motor skills while opening a milk container or pouring into a glass. Sequencing skills can also be developed as steps are followed in order to prepare a snack.

Data that may be used includes, but is not limited to: progress reports from previous IEP, report card, state testing reports, information from Samegoal, work samples, test samples, information provided by the General education teacher, discipline referrals, attendance reports and information provided by the parents. If appropriate, administer or update a criterion-referenced test (Brigance) one month prior to the annual ARD. All the data is used to write an appropriate PLAAFP and draft IEP goals and objectives.

Crisis Management
Campus Core Team

GUIDELINES FOR THE PREVENTION OF A CRISIS

1. Establish an atmosphere of trust.
2. Teach the rules.
3. Consequences for rule infractions should be known ahead of time and consistently enforced.
4. Rule infractions should be dealt with unemotionally.
5. Students should be allowed to save face: not lose self-respect.
6. Do not make threats. Power struggles should be avoided.
7. Expectations should be clearly defined, and teachers should check to see if they are understood by the students.
8. Model calm, composed behavior. (Especially in stressful situations)
9. Avoid fault finding. The “What” of behavior should be discussed (not the “Why”). Questions such as “What are you doing?” are preferable to “Why are you doing that?”
10. Do not argue with students. Remember, it is not always necessary to have the last word to be right.
11. Attempts should be made to intervene with the behavior before conflict develops.
12. Use Common Sense!

CRISIS MANAGEMENT PLAN GUIDELINES

Definition of Crisis: A Crisis exists when a student poses a serious threat to the safety of themselves/other students/faculty/staff/property.

The CRISIS MANAGEMENT PLAN will be implemented using the BISD approved model- CPI (Crisis Prevention Institute) when the staff or the administration deems it an emergency situation. The plan will be implemented quickly, quietly and efficiently. Disruption of the school schedule should be kept to a minimum.

The plan will be practiced with the students before a crisis occurs and reviewed as necessary.

1. Safety of student in crisis is aided by removing other students, furniture and school items from immediate area. At least two CPI trained adults will remain with the student in crisis. If additional assistance is needed, the administration will assist in bringing in other members of the Crisis Team. Office staff will receive advanced instruction in what to do when staff calls for immediate assistance.
2. Other students will be led from the classroom in an orderly manner with the staff member assigned by the SPED Teacher or the administration. The students will never be sent from the room without a staff member.
3. Places for other ECSE students to go during a crisis (examples of possible choices):
  - I. Resource Room
  - II. Nurses office
  - III. Room # _____
  - IV. Library
  - V. Cafeteria
4. A box with independent level activities, pencils, crayons, etc. will be prepared in advance and left ready to take with the students going to the new location.
5. When student in crisis is back in control, one of the staff members helping with the crisis will go get the rest of the class.
6. If the student coming out of a crisis requires a change of scenery or a quiet place, the general education counselor's office may be used (or any other area deemed appropriate by the administration or the ECSE teacher)
7. If more than one ECSE student is in serious crisis simultaneously, additional help will be required from other CPI Campus Core Team Members. The administration/ECSE teacher will direct these requests.
8. Responsibilities

ECSE Staff:

- Exhaust all CPI techniques. Implement Crisis Plan as practiced.
- Follow teacher directions quietly and efficiently.
- Remain calm and neutral.

If student is restrained, all appropriate forms must be completed.

- Written Summary of Restraint Use form must be completed and shared with campus Administrator, PEIMS Clerk and Diagnostician.
- On the day of the restraint an attempt must be made to verbally notify parents.
- Parents must receive written notification within one school day of the event.

Office Staff:

- When ECSE staff calls asking for immediate assistance, an administrator must be found and sent immediately.
- Crisis situations and information should not be discussed with anyone other than the administration, SPED staff, and those involved. (Only to the extent necessary to maintain the safety and security of the student(s)).
- If a parent calls the office for more information, only the ECSE teacher or administrator should answer their questions.
- Remain calm and neutral.

Nurse:

Respond to call from ECSE staff in timely manner.

- Staff will advise if it is urgent.
- Document checking the student after CPI safety intervention.

General Education:

- Will be advised of the crisis situation and called in only if needed. Counselor's office will be used only if needed.
- Follow up discussion between the student who was in crisis and the counselor may be recommended.

Behavior Specialist:

Other CPI trained staff:

- Campus Core Team will be utilized as needed.
