CLASSES

Juniors completed their busiest year in high school. In order to raise money to sponsor a prom, which would be remembered for years, they managed the concession stands at home football, basketball, and wrestling matches. The magazine sale added to the growing treasury. Hard work and initiative, under the supervision of Mrs. Telkamp and Mr. Burns, contributed to a successful banquet and prom.

Leading the active Juniors were Joan Fargen, Student Council Representative; Susan Ekern, President; Mary Kreber, Treasurer; Lani Julson, Secretary; Mike Halter, Student Council Representative; and Jan Gullickson, Vice-President.

This was one of the various classroom activities that the junior class had the "pleasure" to participate in during the year. The advanced biology class injected growth hormones into chickens for two weeks and then dissected the poor things.

The King and Queen

Bette Hass and Kevin Dailey happily received the honor of reigning over the Homecoming festivities. They were crowned the night of Little Orpheum held September 23. The Senior class picks ten candidates out of their class to run for King and Queen. Then, the whole student body votes for the final decision.

The Road to Victory

The Seniors slop it on!

Before the game started, the cheerleaders took a funnel, made by the art class, onto the field. The cheerleaders, pep club members, and the band formed two lines in which the boys ran through before proceeding around the rest of the field.

During Homecoming week, it is traditional for the Seniors to paint the rock which is located in the southeast corner of the parking lot. This year the rock was painted an avacado green with the '71 painted in gold. Brad Bonde hand painted the '71.

King Kevin and Queen Bette were honored on Homecoming by leading the parade through main street. Bette was head cheerleader for the Fliers, and Kevin represented Flandreau at the State Wrestling Meet. They also took time out at half-time to greet the cheering crowds. We ended the night with a victorious win over Harrisburg 35-12.

Homecoming week was full of excitement, anticipation, and nostalgia. The seniors are seen here on the road after completing the painting of the '71.

The Girls' Athletic Association or GAA was started this year at Flandreau High School. Approximately ninety high school age girls have participated in the various activities sponsored by this organization. Competition this year was limited to intramural. All but freshmen can letter by accumulating a total of 500 points, which may be acquired by taking part in GAA supported activities.

Cheerleaders Help Push Fliers Toward Victory

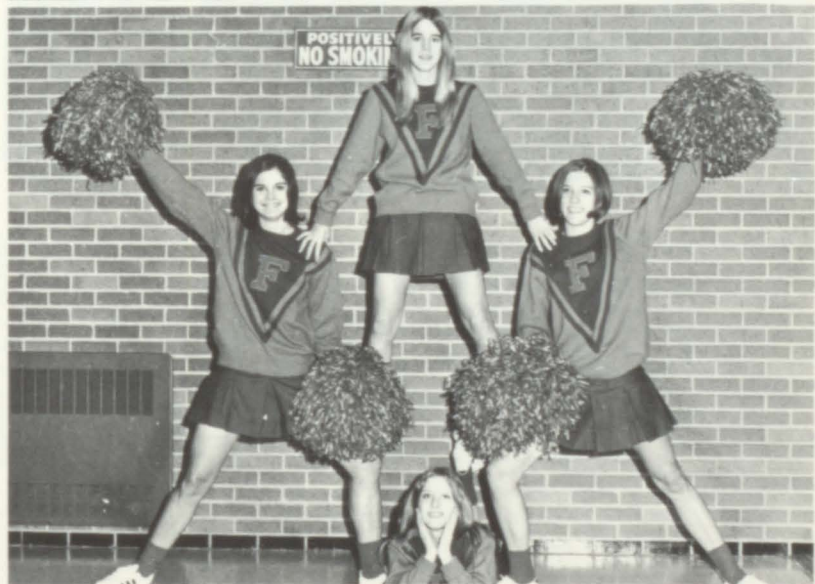

To become a cheerleader, you must first try out in front of several faculty members. They choose ten girls who will then try out before the student body. These girls are selected according to personal appearance, skill in jumps, arm movements and spirit. Finally, the student body selects from these ten candidates the varsity cheerleaders.

The Flandreau High School cheerleaders were kept busy boosting our guys to victories throughout the year. Before the season started the girls attended a "potluck" supper at Chester with their adviser, Mrs. Hellerich. All the cheerleaders in the new conference were present, and they exchanged a few ideas. The girls also attended the Cheerleading Clinic at Brookings.

The "A" cheerleaders are pictured at the TOP. FROM FRONT TO TOP they are Bette Hass, Debbie Whipkey, Debbie Carr, Margo Headrick, and Jackie Olson.

Students Strive Toward Constructive Avenues

The Flandreau Chapter of F.H.A. started the year with the initiation picnic. The new members introduced themselves and officers were elected. The girls entertained their fathers at Daddy Date Night, using Thanksgiving as the theme. Before the holidays, the members went Christmas Caroling with the Flandreau Indian School F.H.A. Chapter. For the annual Christmas Dance, during which Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus are chosen; the Nickle Bag of Soul furnished the music. In February they held a Valentine's Party for the Headstart children. This year the Regional F.H.A. meeting was held in Madison with 30 members and chapter mothers attending. Cindy Headrick was picked as the Region III secretary. The final activity of the year was the style show. Using the 25th Anniversary as the theme, a huge cake was constructed for the members to model on.

The Student Council, this year, was represented by a boy and girl from each class. These students were under the leadership of Ken Rahn, Student Body President. The Council for the 1970-71 school year had the responsibility of planning Homecoming week. They also helped revise the Student Dress Code. Members of the Council are SEATED Renee Ramsdell, Machel Wahley, Ken Rahn, Colleen Parsley, and Joan Fargen. STANDING are Kerry Thomas, Rick Quincy, Stuart Zephier, and Mike Halter.

The officers of the 1970-71 organization of FFA are (BACK ROW): Tim Amdahl-Sentinel, Rick Veldkamp-Treasurer, Alan Warner-Secretary, Denis Parsley-Vice President, Dave Ullom-Reporter, Larry Johnson-Parliamentarian. (FRONT ROW): Mr. Acheson-Adviser, Graydon Dailey-Chaplain, and Kevin Dailey-President.

The FFA sponsored a Parent-Son mixer this year. The evening started with a supper paid for by the Civic and Commerce Club. The meal was followed by opening ceremonies, presentation of guests, comments by the state officer and reciting of the FFA creed. Honorary Chapter Farmers were introduced preceding the highlight of the evening, the naming of the FFA Sweetheart. Entertainment was provided by the All-State group, and a guest speaker, Dr. Duane Acker. The meeting was concluded with the usual closing exercises.

Other activities taken part in by the Flandreau Chapter were helping the FHA sponsor the Christmas Dance. The group hosted a livestock judging contest, participated in the Winter Fair in Flandreau and in the speech contest at Chester. Only two overnight trips were taken by the FFA boys. One was to the Sioux City Livestock Judging Contest at which Bruce Lee, Dave Ullom, Tom Reinhart, and Denis Parsley were present. Denis Parsley, Kevin Dailey, and Mr. Acheson attended the national convention in Kansas City.

The chapter won the Pheasant Unlimited Contest in Brookings. They attended the State Contest in Brookings and as a chapter ranked 10 out of a total of 62 chapters that participated.

Laurie Jorgensen

Laurie Jorgensen was chosen the chapter Sweetheart for 1970-71 at the annual Parent and Son Mixer held October 22. The Sweetheart was chosen from the five candidates pictured at the right. They had been voted on previously from all the rural girls in the senior class. Laurie was given a bouquet of roses and received the FFA Sweetheart jacket which she wore during National FFA Week.

The annual FHS Christmas Dance, sponsored by the FFA and FHA, was December 19th. The Nickel Bag of Soul provided music from 7:30 to 11:00 at Spaford. During the dance, Kevin Dailey turned over his hat to the new Mr. Santa Claus and Shelley Whaley turned over her apron to the new Mrs. Santa Claus. The girls Donna Duncan, Gail Dailey, (Mrs. Claus), Joan Fargen, Debbie Whipkey, Cindy Headrick, Renee Jones, Darci Dappen, and Ruth Ann Larson were up for Mrs. Santa Claus. Larry Johnson, (Mr. Claus), Gordon Doyle, Luther Johnson, Arvin Snuggerud, Gordon Christenson, Graydon Dailey, Rodney Fox, and Doug Bendt were candidates for Mr. Santa Claus.

These Active Students Are Big Assets to Our School

The High Flier staff, pictured at the RIGHT, has worked throughout the year to present the happenings of the various school organizations. The staff has put these together weekly in the High Flier section of the local newspaper.

During the year, these busy young students keep our library in neat, clean order. They keep themselves busy by checking books in and out, helping to find reference material, and reminding people of over due books and fines.

The local declam contest was held October 27th. There were fifteen students that participated. The four that were ranked the best in their division are pictured ABOVE RIGHT.

They are Steve Ramsdell, poetry; Jackie Olson, dramatics; Donna Warner, humorous; and Dean Mogle, oratory. These four went on to the District Contest. Steve was the only one to win at the District Contest. He received an excellent rating at the Regional contest.

The Flandreau debate team was in a new conference this year. They participated at meetings held the first Tuesday of every month starting in November. These meetings were in Sioux Falls. Their advisor was Mrs. Murtha for the first semester. Mrs. Moose was advisor during the second semester.

One Act Plays — Hard Work And Fun

One of the three One Act plays presented at the local contest this year was "Ah, Romance". Pictures of this play are shown ABOVE. The Sunnybrook Home for Aged ladies was a happy place until Mrs. Willma Spruggs fell in love with a visiting plumber, one Aloysius Grogan. Their romance blossomed and then suddenly wilted when Miss Jessie Daniels, roommate to Willma, stretched out her claws in the direction of the bewildered Mr. Grogan. Each is confident she is the one he will take out for the day. The situation, while tense, is extremely and totally humorous. Unfortunately, Mr. Grogan chooses a third and surprising companion.

Alpha Beta Gamma Sorority is just finishing Pledge week when news arrives that Major Curtis (recently retired from the Women's Marine Corps) has been assigned as housemother. Her rules are strict and this means no late hours and no rock and roll. She plans to introduce calisthenics, curfews and "mess duty". To make matters worse, Major Curtis arrives in a wheel chair with a broken leg. Major Curtis has a weak spot. She's incurably superstitious -- a fact one of the pledges plans to use to the sorority's advantage. By the time the pledge is through Major Curtis is bounding for the door, determined to be a housemother at Jackson College in the next county.

"How to Get Rid of a Housemother" was another play presented this year in the local contest. Pictures of this play are pictured ABOVE and at the LEFT.

"The Ugly Duckling" Goes to State

Arrangements have been made for Prince Simon to marry Princess Camilla. The King and Queen are rather anxious, because--let's face it--Camilla is plain! So it is decided that Dulcibella, the beautiful maid, will impersonate Camilla until the wedding. But Prince Simon has heard that Camilla is so beautiful that he considers himself rather plain beside her, so he has his man, Carlo, impersonate him, because Carlo is very handsome. Simon and Carmilla meet by chance and fall in love. Each looks quite beautiful to the other, and they live happily ever after.

"The Ugly Duckling" by A. A. Milne placed first in the local One Act Plays Contest held on January 18. They received a trophy for their superior rating at the District contest at Lincoln High School on January 23. On January 29 and 30 they went to Huron to compete in the State contest. This was the first time that any play from Flandreau had taken part in the State contest.

People placing at the District contest were Steve Ramsdell, Debbie Carr, Shelley Whaley, Joan Schmidt, and Dan Vigness.

Class of '71 Presents "I Remember Mama"

The Senior Class of 1971, under the direction of Mrs. Irene Steffensmier, presented the play "I Remember Mama" by John Van Druten. The date of the performance was April 3, 1971, at the Flandreau High School Auditorium.

This is a story about a Norwegian family living in San Francisco around 1910. It was written and narrated by Katrin Hanson, who is the lead character in the play.

The Hanson family is confronted with the problems of modern life and is stuck on their "old country" ways. Modern medicine presents one particular problem. To Mama, the hospital rules and regulations in this country did not apply when Dagmar had her operation.

Many people besides the director and the cast contributed to make the play a success:

Curtain Pullers--Bette Hass, Donna Duncan, and Pat Skroch.
 Promptors--Laurie Jorgenson and Cindy Buchholtz.
 Makeup--Karen Pray, Pam Johnson, Pat Skroch, Bette Hass, Donna Duncan, Debbi Erickson, and Donna Schliinz.
 Advertising--Donna Duncan and Debbi Erickson.
 Programs--Debbie Bauer, Kristy Miller, and Virginia Rasmussen.
 Ticket Takers--Joan Smith, Donna Warner, and Leetha Thelen.
 Lights--Dan Vigness, Bill McFarland, Verlyn Larson, Gordon Doyle, and Dean Mogle.

Ten-year-old Arne, in the hospital after a knee operation, exercises Uncle Chris' remedy for pain. Arne is one of the many children whom Uncle Chris helped to walk again.

Mrs. Steffensmier eagerly observes as Uncle Chris inspects Christine's teeth. Uncle Chris was the big black Norwegian of the family who frightened almost everyone.

Dagmar, the youngest of the family, has a fond nature for animals. She hopes to become a veterinarian. Uncle Elizabeth, enjoying the pleasure of life, is totally unaware that he is to be chloroformed.

Mr. Hyde read to the family in the evenings. Papa, Christine, Dagmar, Mama, Aunt Trina, and Nels listen intently to his wonderful stories: "Mr. Holmes, they were the footprints of a gigantic hound."

Katrin (Shown at the RIGHT) was the oldest girl in the family and worked hard to be a writer. Papa called her "the dramatic one."

Mama, Aunt Sigrid, and Aunt Jenny (Shown BELOW) discuss Trina's marriage to Mr. Thorkelson, who runs the mortuary.

Earning a superior rating for his solo at the regional contest was Dean Mogle.

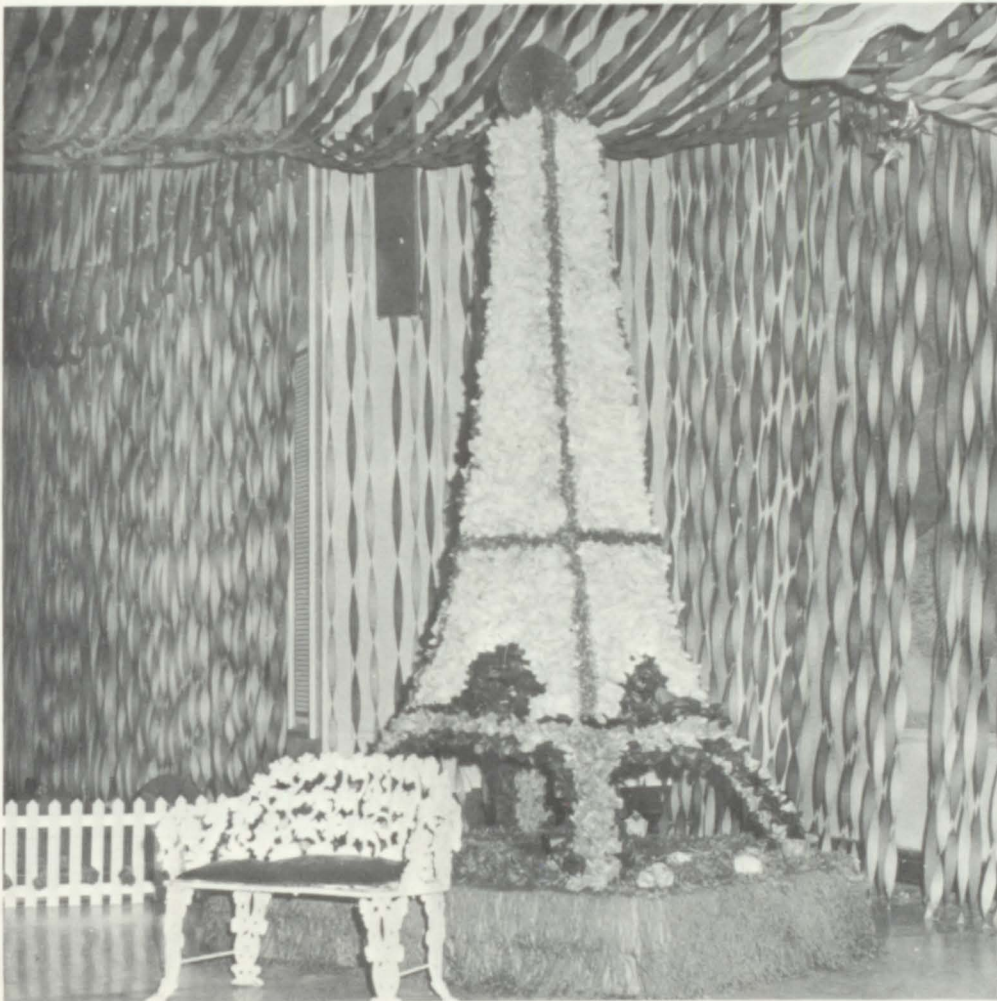

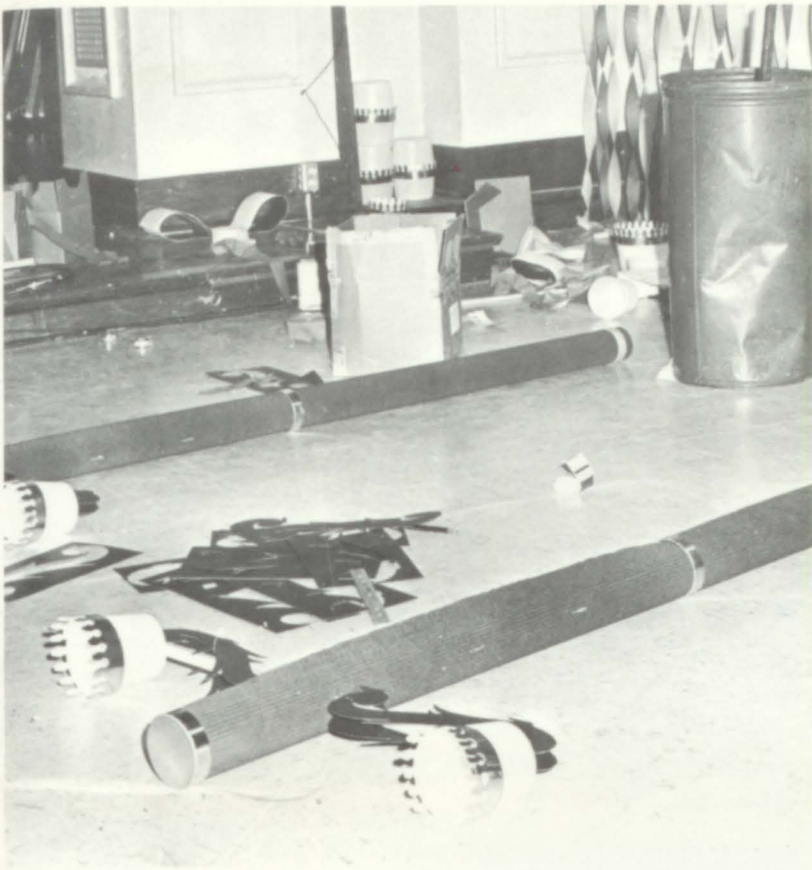

The Girls Sextet includes: Linda Gullickson, Pam Thomas, Brenda Powers, Debbie Severtson, Margo Headrick, and Becky Amdahl. These girls performed at different times throughout the year.

The All State members were (NEAR ROW, TOP TO BOTTOM) Margo Headrick; Becky Amdahl; Brenda Powers; alternate; Debbie Severtson; Linda Gullickson, alternate; and Pam Thomas. (FAR TOW, TOP TO BOTTOM): Verlyn Larson; Tim Amdahl; Dean Mogle; Leslie Heinemann, alternate; Brad Hammer, alternate; and David Mutschelknaus.

The regional contest was held on February 10, 1971 at Madison, South Dakota. The All Staters participated in this contest and received a superior rating for their selection.

The juniors had a very hectic week getting ready for the Junior-Senior Prom. The theme was "Evening in Paris." The picture area was an effiel tower decorated in pink and blue with a dark blue trim. The bandstand was made of pink and blue streamers with a white picket fence and the theme in large letters across the front. The sidewalk cafe had an awning of an assortment of colors. A hedge went around it with lampposts at the entrance. The punch bowl was a well with flowers around the bottom.

The banquet was decorated with pink and blue streamers. The king and queen sat on white lace chairs under an archway covered with green and pink flowers. Two small trees at the doorway caught your eye as you walked in. To trim it off, a mural of the effiel tower hung on the wall behind the head table.

We Travel to Paris for a Gayla Evening

The prom banquet for 1971 was held at the dining room of the United Methodist Church. It was decorated as an outdoor garden.

Susan Ekern and Bill McFarland reigned at the prom banquet. The Junior and Senior classes voted on candidates also picked by the Juniors and Seniors. Their court consisted of Donna Duncan, Bette Hass, Lani Julson, Margo Headrick, Steve Headrick, Kenny Rahn, DeVere Headrick, Mike Halter, and Denis Parsley.

John Ludgate, Senior Class President, gave a speech at the banquet.

It appears that John's speech was pretty good. Right, Jan?

"Michelle" and "We've Only Just Begun" was sung by some of the Juniors for entertainment. The vocalists were David Ullom, Margo Headrick, Keith Bunker, Jani Neprud, Tim Urban, Susan Ekern, Steve Ramsdell, and Debbie Severtson. The piano was played by Jaralyn Johnson.

Diane Ludgate and Susan Brook were picked out of the Sophomore class to serve punch at the prom. They are pictured above by their wishing well full of punch.

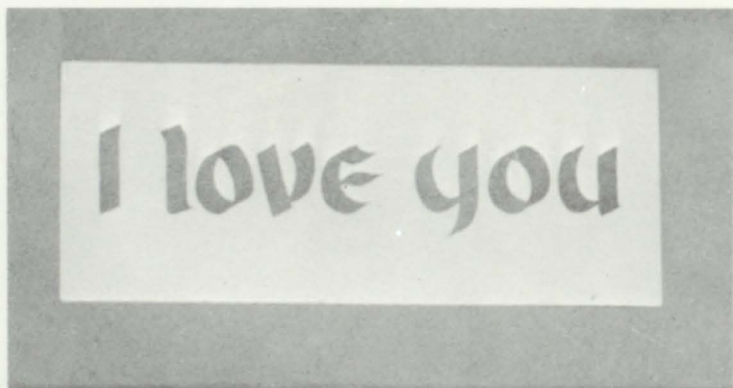

The Nickel Bag of Soul, a nine piece show band, provided music for the couples at the Prom. Six of the members are graduates from FHS.

The couples pictured at the LEFT, are taking time out to sit at a sidewalk cafe. The cafe was decorated with checkerboard tableclothes and candles which added to the enchanted evening.

The couples took advantage of the music provided by the Nickel Bag of Soul. The dance was held at Spafford Grade School. It was decorated with light and dark blue streamers on the walls and on the ceiling. There were also stars which made you feel as if you were outdoors. The Juniors work was well worth the effort.

year, we had no serious handicaps or injuries so we had a full line. Quite a few Juniors were able to play so the school can look forward to another successful season next year.

Winning eight conference games out of ten, the Fliers are quite proud of their showing this year. The two games they lost were to Tri-Valley and Garretson late in the season. Because of their 8-2 record, the team was able to bring home the trophy for the Inter-state Conference.

The District Ten Tournament in which the Fliers participated was held in the Brookings High School gym. We drew a bye for the first round and defeated Egan in the second. This win led us to the championship game. We played the Sioux Valley Cossacks, and we were beaten in a tense overtime by one point.

B Squad Test Drive Skills

and Coach Gus Barnes. This squad played the preliminary game before the "A" game. Their record for the year was fifteen wins and five losses. All the boys feel they gained experience, and they all hope for both a conference and a district trophy next year to add to the school's collection.

The two managers for the teams were Mark Thies (TOP) and Chuck Hofkamp. Chuck had a little trouble with his memory at the beginning of the year. He forgot the "B" team's suits and the "A" team's warmup jackets.

Arlington lent us a few of their uniforms, luckily. All in all, the teams really appreciate all the help the boys give them.

It takes a lot of endurance to be fit in track. An example of it is Bruce Lee shown here hurdling.

His time was 10:25.8. Bob Keck set his record at the Canton Invitational in the Preliminaries. His time broke the old record when he achieved 38'11 1/2" in the Triple Jump event at the Lennox Invitational.

In the ABOVE picture we have the track boys and their trophies they won this year. We have two trophies for taking first place in the Madison meet and the Interstate Conference. The others are for superior achievement in medley and relay teams.

Our track team showed a lot of ability and endurance in their 1971 season. We were number one in our Interstate Conference and our total points were 66 3/4. Garretson came up close with 65 1/3. The next week we attended the Region III at Madison. We lost first place to DeSmet who had a total of 86 points. The boys also set a few new records this year. We had no home meets because our new track was not finished. We are looking forward to using it next year. Seven of the boys qualified for the State Meet and two made the finals in the 100 yd. dash. Those two were Bob Keck and Fred Dahlmeier. The other boys were Kerry Thomas, Steve Mach, Stuart Zephier, Bruce Lee, and Kim Duncan.

They were Mrs. Lil Nace, Chairman; Mr. Andy Zephier, Mrs. John Bonde, Mr. Tom Hart, and Mr. Wayne Lydord. The money is now in the Farmers State Bank under the F.A. Wittern Scholarship Fund.

Mr. Wittern was a 1920 graduate of Flandreau High School. Now, he is President of Fawn Engineering Company at Des Moines, Iowa.

The annual Awards Night was held May 11, 1971. On this night, several seniors received well deserved awards for their scholastic excellence.

The candidates were chosen by members of the senior class and the faculty. Each organization chooses the candidate which they think deserves the award most. The awards are presented by a member of that organization on awards night.

These seniors have put forth that extra effort needed to be a success in academics and citizenship. For this, they must be certainly be congratulated!

The hopes of the entire senior class, and indeed the hopes of all of us, go with them as they journey into tomorrow. In this endeavor, we wish them luck.

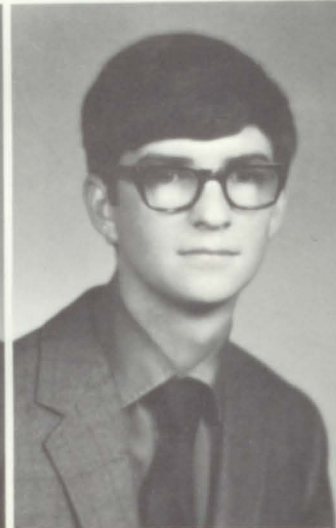

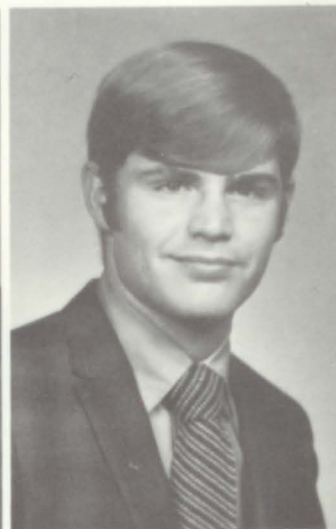

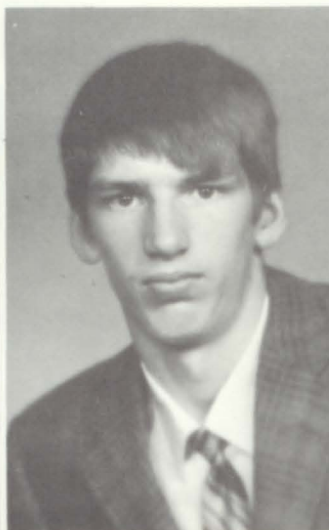

The background of the page features a central horizontal band with a solid grey background. Above and below this band are large triangular sections filled with diagonal stripes in shades of grey and white. The corners of the page are filled with a dark grey or black background, overlaid with numerous thin, parallel white lines radiating from the corners, creating a sense of depth and movement. Two large, hand-drawn white circles are positioned on the left and right sides of the central grey band, partially overlapping its edges.
