STUDENT LIFE

Enjoying Spare Time

All the students at FHS arrive at school about 8:15 and become involved in many activities outside of the classroom, like walking the halls; talking to other students about the latest happenings; or an upcoming events. This is done also in-between classes. After the last class, though, the school is quickly cleared out.

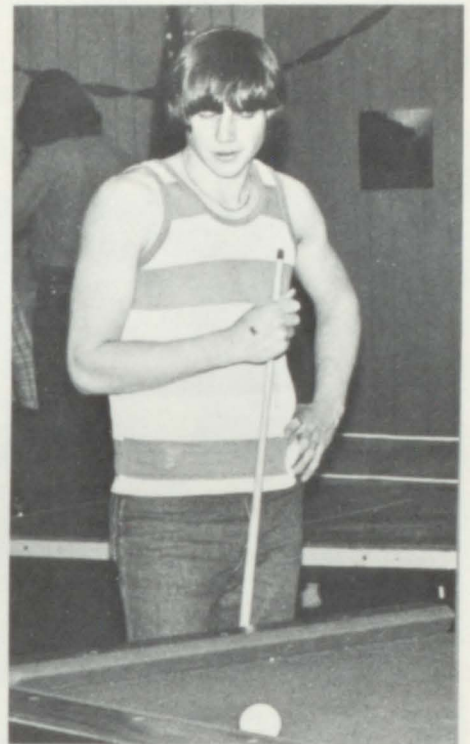

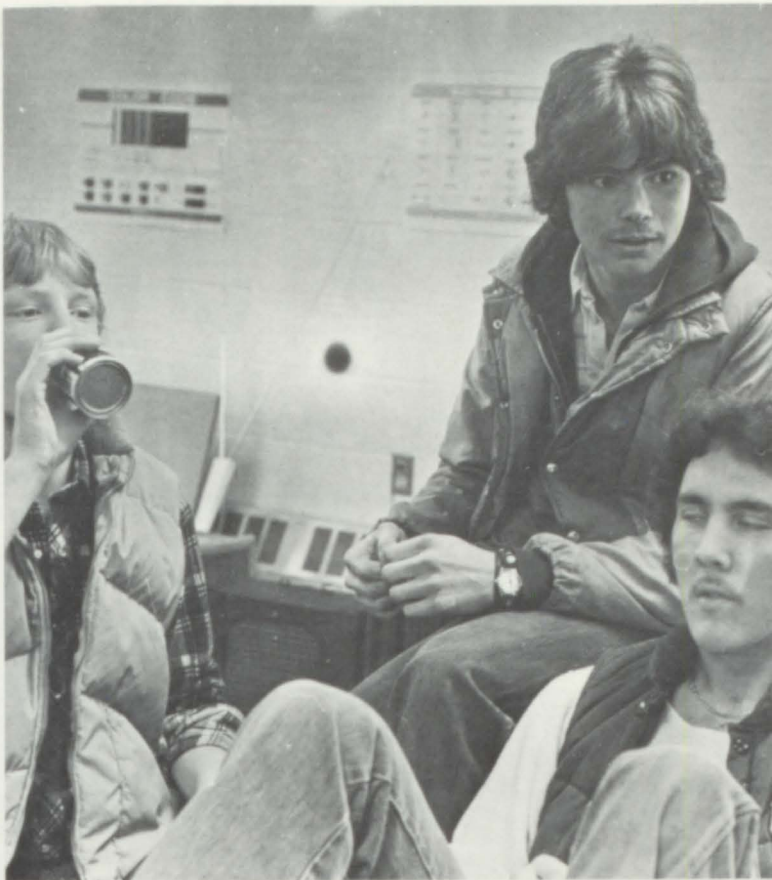

Top are Cindy Bouldin, Ruth Reiter, and Gina Schatz examining their elbows.

Middle are Jody Petersen and Mary Hunter showing their skills at the pottery wheel.

Church Activities Part Of Routine

Church youth groups participate in such events as roller-skating parties, movies, hay rides, and church picnics.

Along with the fun came discussions on many different topics, such as being caught in embarrassing situations.

Top are Richard Haugen, Coleen Headrick, Jill Wendell, Jani Pasch, Marla Johanson, and Denise Clark at Lutherleague.

Above are Ardean Albers, Dave Ziebarth, Rick Gullickson, Lisa Ludeman, Karla Hansen, Lisa Weigel, Janine Hurley, Sandy Gullickson, and Peggy Wilts at Presbyterians.

Student Groups Active In 4-H

Students involved in 4-H groups held demonstrations, hay rides, and entered the county fair to become eligible for the State Fair.

Many of the 4-H clubs constructed floats for the county fair parade.

Top are Brian Thielsen, Eddie Ehlers, and Rick Gullickson presiding over a 4-H meeting.

Jobs Keep Students Busy

Many students lead a double-life by going to school during the day and working after school. These jobs are of a wide variety including, waitressing, clerking, gas station attendents, carry-out boys, and dish- washing. These part-time jobs help students earn a little spending money while going to school as well as some on-the-job training.

ACTIVITIES

Homecoming Of 80

Homecoming week began September 10th with special activities for each day of the week.

Monday was designated sucker day. Tuesday was the day for everyone to come to school in their sloppiest clothes. Wednesday found most of the student body wearing white socks and tennis shoes. Thursday was the day to wear number jerseys. The climax of the week, Friday, found the student body wearing purple and gold.

The Fliers ended Homecoming week with a victory over Elk Point. After the game, D.C. Express from Brookings provided music for the Homecoming dance.

Musical Presented

An all school musical, "Mr. Crane" was presented to the public on April 17th and 18th. The students practiced three nights a week for a month before the play was presented.

A School for Young Ladies was the setting for the musical.

Ike Crane, a new dancing teacher, who resembled Ichabod Crane of the "Legend of Sleepy Hollow," was hired. Mr. Crane fell in love with the music teacher, Kathy VanTassel. Because of his feelings, a struggle developed between him and the gym teacher, Tom Bones. Tom Bones used various tactics, taken from the "Legend of Sleepy Hollow" to try to scare Ike Crane away. In the end Tom Bones realized his mistake and Ike wins Kathy's affections.

“Come Sail Away”

Theme Of 1980 Prom

“Come Sail Away” was this year’s theme for the Banquet and Prom.

The Banquet, which was held in the high school lunch room, was catered by Blue Mound Inn. This area was decorated with blue and silver streamers. A large picture/poster was on one wall.

A group of junior girls provided the entertainment after the Banquet by singing, “Come Sail Away,” for the assembled guests.

Follow Your Dream

Follow your dream...
Take one step at a time
and don't settle for less,
Just continue to climb.

Follow your dream...
If you stumble don't stop
And lose sight of your goal,
Press on to the top.

For only on top
Can we see the whole view,
Can we see what we've done
And what we can do,
Can we then have the vision
To seek something new...
Press on
And follow your dream.
