Celebrate The Century!

A special year was celebrated in South Dakota as the state reached its 100th birthday. Flandreau also held a party in conjunction with the state's birthday as our town turned 120 years old. The Centennial was kicked off in November with a balloon release by students. In May, the Centennial Wagon Train passed through town and in July was the big celebration. An all-school reunion with over 1600 alumni was held as well as a parade, creamery picnic and many other activities.

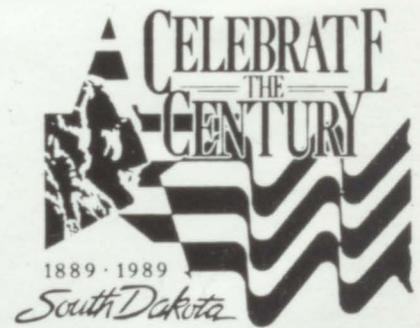

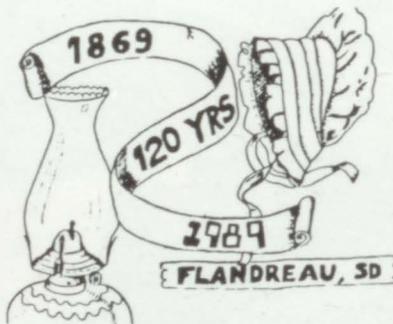

Students hang onto hundreds of balloons before they were sent off in the wind to other places. Each balloon had a message for its finder to come and celebrate our state's centennial.

UP, UP, and AWAY!!

Flandreau High's Dirk Graves' artistic talents earned him 1st place in the Flandreau Centennial logo contest.

Time Out

Students used what little free time they had to do activities other than school work. They used their spare time to sleep, eat, goof around, and hang out . . . anything but detention.

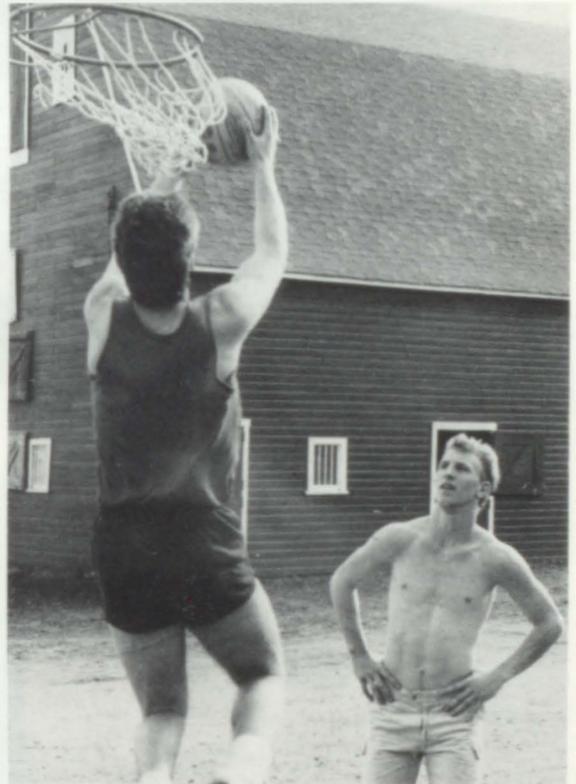

One of the bad points of sleeping in is shown by Tammy Hammer as she fixes her hair before school.

Jarrod Lee eyeballs his shot as Brian Otto and Donny Peters watch carefully.

Making use of the last five minutes of the day, Amy Thompson, Teresa Groos and Danny Pulscher make plans for the upcoming weekend.

At the annual cast party, Mike Jewett and Chad Johnston make sure they've still got the "right stuff".

I Owe, I Owe . .

Even though all high school students enjoy having money to spend, a select few took the initiative to go out and find a job. The Flandreau area offers a variety of job opportunities for money hungry teen-agers. These range from farming, to nurse's aides and flower arranging to mowing for the city and many more.

What's In, What's Out

There were many new fads and fashions entering the scene this year. Spandex went out, while torn jeans and skateboarding became "in". Guess and Espirit still remained the popular labels to wear and the fashionable fad was to wear as many watches as possible. For the skaters, Vision Streetwear was the name for their everyday attire. Year after year, some things change, while others will always stay the same.

Brian Anderson, Tod Lacey and Tad Greenlee execute three variations of "streetplants". What good moves!

Chuck Jones models the new look — holes are in!

Displaying one of the latest fads is Akamu Barboza with his collection of watches.

Homecoming Sparks Up Tradition

Students got into school spirit with homecoming being only the second week of school. Kicking off the homecoming week was P.J. Day on Monday, and Backwards Day on Tuesday. Wednesday was Favorite Fairytail Character Day and Thursday was 50's and 60's Day. Friday was the Purple and Gold Day. The Little Orpheum was held on September 15 with all the class skits and the crowning of the royalty. The sophomores won the best class skit again, while the Senior football players captured the best overall skit. Chosen as king and queen were Steve May and Amy Schultz. Other candidates were Steph Johnson, Dawn Wenge, Sarah Penney, Colleen Shaeffer, Chad Johnston, Akamu Barboza, Tom Price, and Brett Ketcham. This homecoming brought back an almost-lost tradition. A bonfire was held after little orpheum.

Seniors gave speeches and Freshmen went through initiation. Friday's game was close all the way. The crowd saw lots of action from the players, cheerleaders, and the drill team. The winning touchdown came with ten seconds left on the clock. Harrisburg's hopes of winning dwindled as the Fliers came out on top, 29-21. The annual dance ended homecoming week!

1988 Royalty

On Thursday, September 15, 1988, Shawn Delaney and Nicole Dixon turned over their titles. Steve May and Amy Schultz were crowned the 1988 homecoming King and Queen at Little Orpheum. Other royalty members included Akamu Barboza, Steph Johnson, Sarah Penney, Brett Ketcham, Colleen Shaeffer, Chad Johnston, Dawn Wenge, and Tom Price.

Doin' It For Sugar

The 1989 musical was "Sugar" based on the movie "Some Like It Hot". The cast was Denita Hove (Sweet Sue), Amy Thompson (Sugar), Ron Gourneau (Bienstock), Steve May (Joe/Josephine), Brett Ketcham (Jerry/Daphne), Danny Sutton (Osgood Fielding), Akamu Barboza (Spats), Mike Jewett (Dude), Dirk Graves (hood), Kevin Zwart (Knuckles), Jason Jensen (hood, reporter, bell boy), Chad Johnston (henchman), Amy Schultz (Olga), Sarah Johnson (Dolores), Colleen Shaeffer (Mary Lou), Jill Jorgenson (Rosella), Larry Salway and Frank Wakeman (gangsters), Paul Welbig (gangster, cab driver, train announcer), Judene Gullickson (musician), Jodie Powers, Charleen Lubben, Jennifer Reidel, Katherine Schmidt (jobless musicians).

Prep For Prom

After months of selling concessions and magazines, it was finally time to start decorating for the annual Junior-Senior Prom. The class voted on the theme "When I'm With You" and emerald green and silver for the colors. The week before prom was spent gathering supplies, hanging streamers and blowing up balloons in preparation for the big night.

“When I’m With You”

Once again, Prom night proved to be worth the wait. After weeks of shopping, planning, and anticipation the night began with couples or groups of friends going out for supper. Some went to Sioux Falls or out of town while others chose to dine in town. Then, the night continued as everyone danced to the music of Art vs. Money, this years band. With no scheduled “after-prom” party, the classmates split up and went their separate ways to finish the magical night with movies, music, cruising, private parties, and early morning breakfasts.

Every Little Step

Many dances were held during the school year. Student council planned the Homecoming and 50's & 60's dance. Halloween dancing was sponsored by the Catholic Youth and the teachers got Jon Michaels during Education Week. Of course, the annual Christmas Dance was put on by the FFA and FHA. Dances were a place to learn new moves and catch up on the latest.

Pride! Pride! Pride!

The Fliers weren't expected to do well this year, but they sure proved people wrong. Last year's underclassmen led the team to the quarterfinal playoff game and became this year's 7-3 team. "This year we took a reasonably unknown group of football players and came up with a championship team. What could this be attributed to? Desire, heart, and the tradition of Flier football," was Coach Jim McGlone's response to this year's season. Flandreau concluded the 1988 season with 3021 total yards while holding their opponents to only 1842 total yards. Steve May led in rushing and scoring with 1038 yards and 100 points. Akamu Barboza topped the tackle statistics with 101 tackles. Quarterback Kevin Zwart passed for 843 yards while Brian Johnson was on the receiving end for 259 yards.

While tying the best record in FHS, 17-5, the Flandreau girls basketball team also achieved many team goals. They defended their district 3A Championship title. Also, they beat their long-time rival Tri-Valley, putting them in the championship game of the conference tournament for the first time ever. Karisa Voorhees and Colleen Shaeffer scored over 300 points during the season and also were named to the All-Conference selections. Julie LeBrun was picked for honorable mention. The team ended their season with a heartbreaking 53-52 overtime loss to Madison in the first round Region 2A tournament. The team was disappointed with the loss, but satisfied with the success of the year.

Boys Repeat Title

With only five returning members, the 1988 Cross-Country team was very successful. The boys chalked up another conference championship and took first place at the West Central meet. The team consisted of nine runners with seven competing in the state meet in Pierre. Garret Renville finished 36th, Danny Cecil, 58th; Dennis Hobbie, 69th; Dustin Francis, 83rd; Poly Gilbert, 94th; and Louis Montgomery, 95th. The season ended with a satisfying 12th place at state. The only competing member from the girls team running at state was Judene Gullickson placing 74th.

Weathering The Season

The 88-89 Golf season resulted in a third place conference finish for both boys and girls. The girls enjoyed a first place finish at Parkston, while the boys placed 5th. This was a very large meet. At

State, the girls placed 7th with a score of 701. Stacy Ekern, Jill Jorgenson and Steph Johnson were participants. The boys finished 8th with a team score of 530 Travis Johnson, Jesse Nester and KK

Wrestlers Put A Strong Hold On Season

This year the Flier wrestlers were coached by Mr. Dan Schutt and assisted by Mr. Randy Weller. The 88-89 wrestling season was different than any other season. There were 13 weights instead of 12, eliminating the 98 pound class. The new classes are 103, 112, 119, 125, 130, 135, 140,

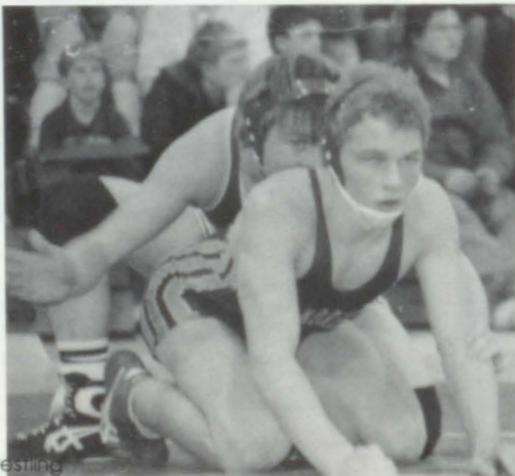

145, 152, 160, 171, 189 and HWT. The wrestlers concluded their season with a 5-5 record. Flandreau hosted the invitational and conference tournaments. The wrestlers also participated in many tournaments during the season. Five members advanced to the Regions in Dell Rapids-Jarrold Lee, Kevin Krantz, Donny Peters, Rob Delaney and Steve May. Rob, Jarrod and Steve advanced to State. Rob placed 4th at the State Tournament which was in Sioux Falls.

Too Close For Comfort

A disappointing loss in the region tournament kept the Flier volleyball team from heading into the state tournament. Despite hard work and determination, they lost to Chester in Region 2B play. Other tournament finishes were 2nd place in the FHS Alpha 4, 2nd place in the Big Sioux Conference and 1st place in the FIS Alpha 4. Finishing the season with a 21-13 record (4-2 in the conference) left the team very satisfied with their efforts. Alison Barthel finished the year with 93.9% serving and 26 aces with Tonya Bakkedahl serving 90.9%. Alison also ended the season with 99.5% setting after setting 811 out of 815. Alison and Zollie Montgomery were chosen as All-Conference players and Carol Svendsen received honorable mention. At the Athletic Banquet on March 20, Coach Adolph presented three awards to individual players. B Team player Joy Walker received recognition for 98.1% serving totals, freshman Barbie Schuyler was awarded Most Improved, and Zollie Montgomery was named the All-Around player for the 1988-89 season.

The Right Stuff

Finishing the season with a 19-7 record and placing 3rd in the State 'A' Basketball tournament, the boys basketball team proved to many that they had "The Right Stuff". The team accomplished many goals such as being the Big Sioux Conference champs for the second year in a row. The Fliers came out second in the district tournament and beat the number one ranked, Sioux Valley Cosacks, in Region play to advance them to the state tournament. The Fliers had a total of 1,895 points which gave them an average of 73 points per game. Brian Johnson led the scoring with 525 points followed by Mike Jewett and Travis Benson. The team was 65% on the free-throw line and held their opponents to 1,670 points. Mike Jewett and Brian Johnson were given the honors to be named to the "All tournament team" during the State "A" tournament. Brian Johnson was also named to the second team all-state.

Striding For Success

Though the numbers were low, the 1989 girls track team had a successful season. They finished on top at many meets and represented Flandreau in seven events at the state meet. Casi McFarland placed second in the 100 meter hurdles setting a new school record of 15.7. Carol Svendsen, Amy Schultz, McFarland and Karisa Voorhees finished 5th in a time of 52.4 in the 400 meter relay. Experience paid off the as the boys track team completed another successful season. The team finished first at the Conference and Region meets along with many other meets throughout the season. The 400 meter relay team, Jim Van De Velde, Chad Johnston, Steve May and Travis Benson placed 5th at the state meet with a time of 45.91. Kevin Krantz, Dustin Francis, May and Van De Velde ran the medley relay placing 6th place overall. Injuries took the place of points at the state meet while the team ended with six points.

Making A Splash Of Memories

The 1988-89 Annual Staff worked as hard as ever to make this year's annual better than before. Every Monday and Thursday nights, the staff hustled to fill the book with the fun and important events of the year. Though there were a few tests of the staff's endurance, such as losing 29 pages off a disk six days before the final deadline, they were able to complete the book for 1989 with hard work and cooperation. Once again, Mary Lynn Headrick and Roger Janssen devoted hours of advising on typing, copy writing and printing pictures to help produce the yearbook.

Speaking For Themselves

Although the team lost many talented actors to last year's graduation, many experienced and younger students provided an exciting year for the team. Denita Hove and Audra Lind placed first at every tournament except a second place finish at State with their duet called "One Sunday Afternoon". Individual actors included Danny Sutton with Oratory and Drama, and Robert Fir-man with a humorous piece. They both advanced to Regions. Tricia Waxdahl and Jodie Powers also competed at the district meet in Poetry and Prose respectively.

Picking their brains and magazines are Russ Hofkamp and Robert Firman as they rush to prepare their extemp presentations.

Bring It Home

The one act play was "Bringing It All Back Home", a play about a family coping with the reality of the Vietnam War. This play went to Regions, but came up short of the place required to attend State. Three actors received acting awards with Brett Ketcham receiving leading actor and Ron Gourneau and Denita Hove receiving supporting male and female honors.

All Fired Up

The F.H.S. drill team presented various routines to such songs as "Fallen Angel" and "Hippy, Hippy Shake". They got everyone all fired up during the performance at half-time of the homecoming game. The girls took their routine to the Indian School when they performed "You're in Love" at girls districts. Cheryl Ahlers coached the girls during their practices and through performances.

Early summer marks the start of the FHS flag team. The girls are required to attend a camp in Vermillion during the summer. Here is where they learn new techniques and routines. The flag girls perform with the marching band at football games and parades. They use many different props including three kinds of flags, ribbons, hoops, and scarves. Mrs. Rita Emter is the advisor for these girls.

These two pictures show just a portion of the spirit the flag girls have. This was taken at one of FHS's home football games.

Strike Up the Band

Band started off the year with marching in achievement days parade. Then they attended Hobo and Trojans Days as well as performed their field show during halftime at a football game. The band had three concerts-Christmas, Pops and Awards. Many of the ensembles and soloists attended the Regional band contest at Augustana. Many earned superiors. Fundraisers included selling pizzas and band dinner tickets. The FHS band provided entertainment at pep rallies and played at many home games.

The woodwind choir was one of the many ensembles which received a superior rating. Members are back row: Tonya Bakkedahl, Stacy Ekern, Colleen Shaeffer, Denita Hove, Tiffany Christensen, Tab Grafing, Tammy Ausland, Amy Ketcham, Alison Barthel and Jana Welbig. Front: Amy Schultz, Angie Baer, Jill Jorgenson, Sarah Johnson, Ann-Marie Thompson, Karen Evans and Judene Gullickson.

The pit band for the high school play were: Ann-Marie Thompson, Alison Barthel, Angie Baer, Michelle Arnold, Darcy Petersen, Mayme Clark, Craig Tjeerdsma, Alison Druse, Stacy Ekern and directors Steve Solem and Larry Wilske. Seated are: Audra Lind, Karen Evans and pianist Marda Olson.

Performing their field show at a football game was one of the bands many talents.

Feelin' Hot, Hot, Hot!

This year's vocal group performed only one concert but stayed busy with contests and special performances. The group had a Christmas program on December 19th with the entire chorus singing first, followed by the swing chorus. Later, the all-state members went to Aberdeen for a weekend event. In early spring, vocal members who chose to participate in the music contest, went to Dakota State College to perform their pieces in front of judges and instructors.

Members of chorus are (not in any order): Mindy Bauer, Jennifer Duncan, Dawn Elverud, Russ Hofkamp, Jody Jensen, Brian Johnson, Jill Jorgensen, Theresa Keck, Brett Ketcham, Audra Lind, Larry Salway, Danny Sutton, Diane Svendsen, Jim VanDeVelde, Tricia Waxdahl, Dawn Wenge, Allison Druse, Stacy Ekern, Teresa Groos, Kevin Hammer, Mike Jewett, Travis Peper, Carol Svendsen, Amy Thompson, Karisa Voorhees, Kevin Zwart, April Barron, Julie

The swing chorus put on additional performances during the holiday season. Members are back row: Mike Jewett, Danny Sutton, Brian Johnson, Kevin Zwart, Kevin Hammer, Russ Hofkamp, Brett Ketcham, Larry Salway Middle row: Amy Thompson, Teresa Groos, Karisa Voorhees, Alison Druse, and Julie LeBrun Front row: Stacy Ekern, Audra Lind, Jody Jensen, Dawn Wenge, Jill Jorgensen, Carol Svendsen, Shiela Corcoran, Susie Schatz, Jennifer Duncan, and Tricia Waxdahl

The swing chorus nears the conclusion to their presentation of "Christmas From Their Heart".

Junior and senior high choruses join together for the final song "South Dakota, My Dakota".

Vocalists chosen for All-State honors were Audra Lind, Larry Salway, Jill Jorgenson, Jody Jensen, Danny Sutton, Russ Hofkamp, and Brett Ketcham.

FHA Reorganizes

1989 was a year of reorganization for the Flandreau F.H.A. Officers elected were: Judene Gullickson-Pres., Ammy Thomson-Vice Pres., Barbie Schuyler-Sec., Christine Wittrock-Treas., Kris Geraets-Hist., Jessica Hasvold and

Tony Francis-Pub. Rel. In Nov. they attended the Region III meeting in Dell Rapids. Judene Gullickson, Christine Wittrock, Zollie Montgomery, and Kris Geraets all received Superiors on their Action Activity Events and they moved on to the state meeting. Others that placed with Excellents were Barbie Schuyler, Theresa Schuyler, Katherine Schmidt, Amy Toso, and Cam Raye Geraets. At the state meeting, students participated in various workshops.

Members are: Kris Geraets, Zollie Montgomery, Barbie Schuyler, Christine Wittrock, Katherine Schmidt, Judene Gullickson, and Advisor Mrs. Lori O'Leary. Not pictured Tony Francis, Jessica Hasvold, and Ammy Thomson.

Receiving Superior ratings at the state meeting were Kris Geraets and Zollie Montgomery.

Besides the usual business at the F.H.A. convention the students had free time to attend a dance.

FFA Opportunity for Excellence

A major change in FFA is that it is now the National FFA Organization. It was decided that the "farmer" title be dropped because the organization encompasses many more skills than just farming. A popular community project was the work that was done on the Duncan park. In addition, tree planting and a long term garden plan was implemented on the grounds of the "old" high school. Individual projects, judging contests, and record keeping seemed to keep students busy for the remainder of the school year. FFA stand outs for the '88-'89 year were Warren Raguse, Jerrie Thomas, Lynn Iverson, Shaw Loiseau, Kevin Krantz, Angie Hinricher, Matt Reed, Ed Hanson, Jessie Doyle, and Travis Duinkerken.

The 1988-89 FFA officers were Warren Raguse, Vice President; Jerrie Thomas, Secretary, Angie Hinricher, Treasurer, Matt Reed, Reporter, Shaw Loiseau, Sentinel; and Tom Price, President.

As a new member Lynn Iverson was responsible for leading the FFA pledge at the annual banquet.

Dennis Hobbie, Jon LeBrun, Lynn Iverson, Luke Pulscher, Larry Husaboe, and Travis Duinkerken were new members of the Flandreau FFA Chapter.

Bunks and picnic tables were two of the many projects completed by the members.

Academic Aces

For students at F.H.S. hard work and studying has proved worthwhile. Those Juniors meeting specific requirements were chosen and granted the opportunity to represent F.H.S. and Flandreau at the state conventions for Boys' or Girls' State. Several new members were also inducted into the National Honor Society. Flandreau's quiz bowl team competed in the conference meet held in Dell Rapids in April. Members of the team were Steve May, Ron Gourneau, Tamara Hofkamp, Robert Firman, Colleen Shaeffer, and Dirk Graves.

Leaders Of The Pack

Junior officers are Mrs Donna Hendrickson and Mr. Keith Burns as advisors, Jerrie Thomas and Kevin Hammer, Student Council Reps., Laura Austreim, Treas.; Mike Jewett, Pres.; Teresa Clites, Sec.; and Donny Peters, Vice Pres

FHS "Co-Pilot" Takes Off

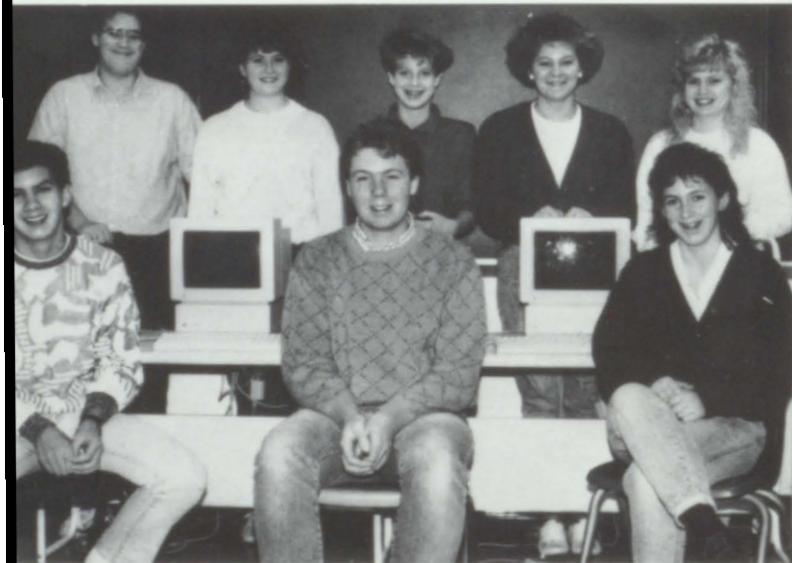

The students of FHS again created their own newspaper after a ten year absence. A journalism class was added to the curriculum at FHS to teach students basics of a newspaper. About every two weeks the class works together to publish a newspaper called the "FHS Co-Pilot". They interview people, write stories, type them into the computer and layout the copy. The "Co-Pilot" staff, along with the staff at the Enterprise, published the paper in the "Moody County Enterprise". Regular features in the "Co-Pilot" are editorials, Dirk's editorial cartoon, Coaches Corner and Out of the Fishbowl which spotlights a senior in each issue. Ms. Gail Swenson is advisor for the staff and Editor-in-Chief.

Working on layout for the paper is one of the many duties of the "Co-Pilot" staff.

Taking Charge

The Flandreau school board members and office leaders spent many hours making sure the 1988-89 school year ran smoothly. They conquered the normal school year ups and downs with reasonable success. They took charge! Mr. Mark Froke took charge of his new duties as the new superintendent.

The school board members are back row Mark Froke, Ada Jorgenson, Dann Cecil, Brenda May and Mark McGlone Front row: Fred Smith, Jim Doyle and Gene Gullickson

Wendy Schutte and Jean Bonrud are shown above going over the lesson plans for the day

Principal Gus Barnes, Business Manager Gladys English, Superintendent Mark Froke and Secretary Emadelle Rupe keep the office work under control. Mr. Barnes and Mrs. English are retiring after the school year and will be missed here at FHS.

Everyday Dedication

Hard work, long hours and alot of dedication are all qualities evident in the faculty at FHS. Many hours are required to make lesson plans, correct papers and make sure that each school year is successful.

Jim McGlone, Larry Wiiske, Myles DeBates, Steve Solem, Roger Fodness, Brian Bergjord, Dennis Rhead, Leroy Benson, John Evans, Keith Burns, Clifton Sutton and Lowell Linder compose most of the male teacher population at FHS.

Smiling for the camera are Roberta Luttmann, Janna Ellingson, Marda Olson, Lynette Womeldorf, Lori O'Leary, LeAnn Carr and Wendy Schutte members of the female teaching staff

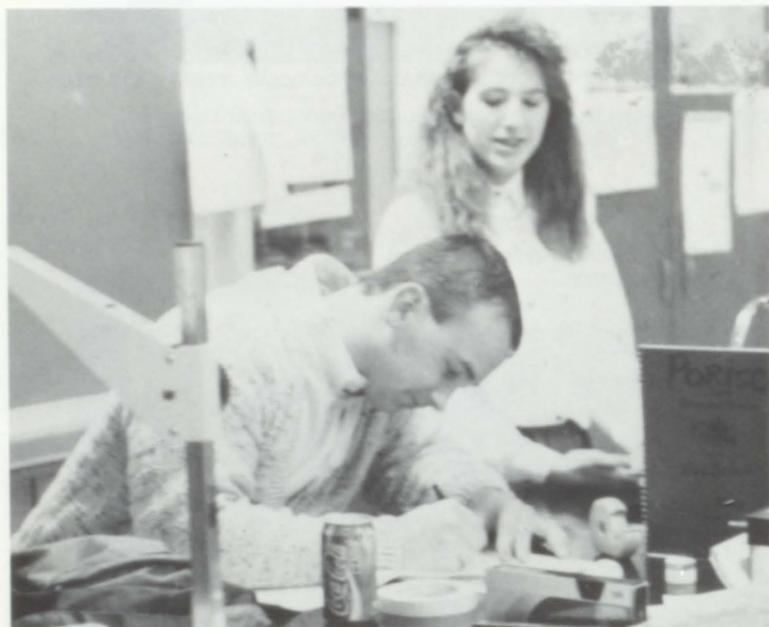

Creative Educators

Art and Home Ec. are just two of the many electives offered at FHS. These electives give the student a choice of classes that center on their own special interests and talents.

Donna Hendrickson is shown to the right giving advice to Chuck Jones and another student during one of her several art classes each day.

Fulfilling Needs

Many classes at FHS are needed to meet both the high school graduation and college requirements. Government and a variety of science and math classes are just a few of the classes that round out a student's schedule.

Keith Burns reads up on the wonders of chemistry.

Jim McGlone is relieved that he can go golfing now that sixth hour government is over!

Randy Weller, a new teacher at Flandreau, teaches freshman physical science, along with junior high science classes.

The 1988-89 school year produced a classroom of "happy campers" in Bruce Porisch's class. He teaches biology and physical science.

Insuring The Future

Music and drama along with other elective courses help broaden the student's future horizons.

Proving that these are important classes and will be with a student for a lifetime must be a challenge for teachers. Flandreau offers students the opportunity to show just what they have to give!

Steve Solem helps the Flandreau High Stage Band rehearse for another performance. Mr. Solem heads up the instrumental music department at Flandreau High

Along with junior high civics and history Jerry Carr spends one hour a day teaching high school geography

Gail Swenson analyzes the fine points of American literature with her drama class

Service With A Smile

There are many jobs in a high school that go unnoticed and unrecognized much too often.

Laundry, dishes, transporting students to and from school, and keeping the school clean are all very important tasks that require many hours including before and after school.

Providing daily service in the kitchen are Doris Solem, Joyce Jurgens, Lorraine Utech, Ethel Wiese and Barb Grafing.

Pansy Bachman always has a smile while making sure the school has fresh laundry.

From dawn until after dusk, the job of the janitors Roger Ehlers and Lowell Wilts is never finished.

In The Beginning . . .

1988-89 — Another blah freshman class? Naaah! This class had flair. This class had many social groups — the “jocks”, the “wannabes”, the “headbangers”, the “skaters”, the “snobs”, the “doinks” and the all around “cool group”. They took the school by storm and have no intention of slowing down.

Senior Splash!

The class of 1989 began their last year at FHS with the usual festivities but added their own twist to the major events. They brought back the tradition of the bonfire after Little Orpheum and changed the whole look of the graduation announcements by having black announcements with turquoise instead of the usual white ones. The high school years really go by fast but many great memories were made along the way as the Seniors of 1989 made their "Splash" at FHS.

Hassle For A Tassle

On May 28, 1989, the seniors had their caps and gowns ready to go and walked the halls of FHS for one last time. Commencement exercises were held at 2 p.m. as awards and diplomas were presented. Verlainne Hoogestraat, past kindergarten teacher at Flandreau, was the speaker. She left the class with a wish of success.

Kim Story finally receives her long awaited diploma.

Scholarship winners were back row: Tricia Waxdahl, David Jueschke; Brett Ketcham, Neil Anderson, and Amy Schuitz, Alice M. Rusch. Front row: Jill Jorgenson, Alice M. Rusch; Amy Bergjord, Jelliffe; and Audra Lind, FEA along with Jill.

Recipients of the FEB Scholarships were, standing: Ron Gourneau, Amy Bergjord, Danny Sutton, and Sarah Penney. Kneeling: Brian Johnson and Chad Johnston. Chad and Sarah also received the Robert Fuller Scholarship.

The Seniors sing "Showing Us the Way" to thank all who had helped them throughout their high school year.

Follow your dreams, take one step at a time. Don't settle for less, just continue to climb
Class colors: Black and turquoise
Class flower: White rose tipped in turquoise

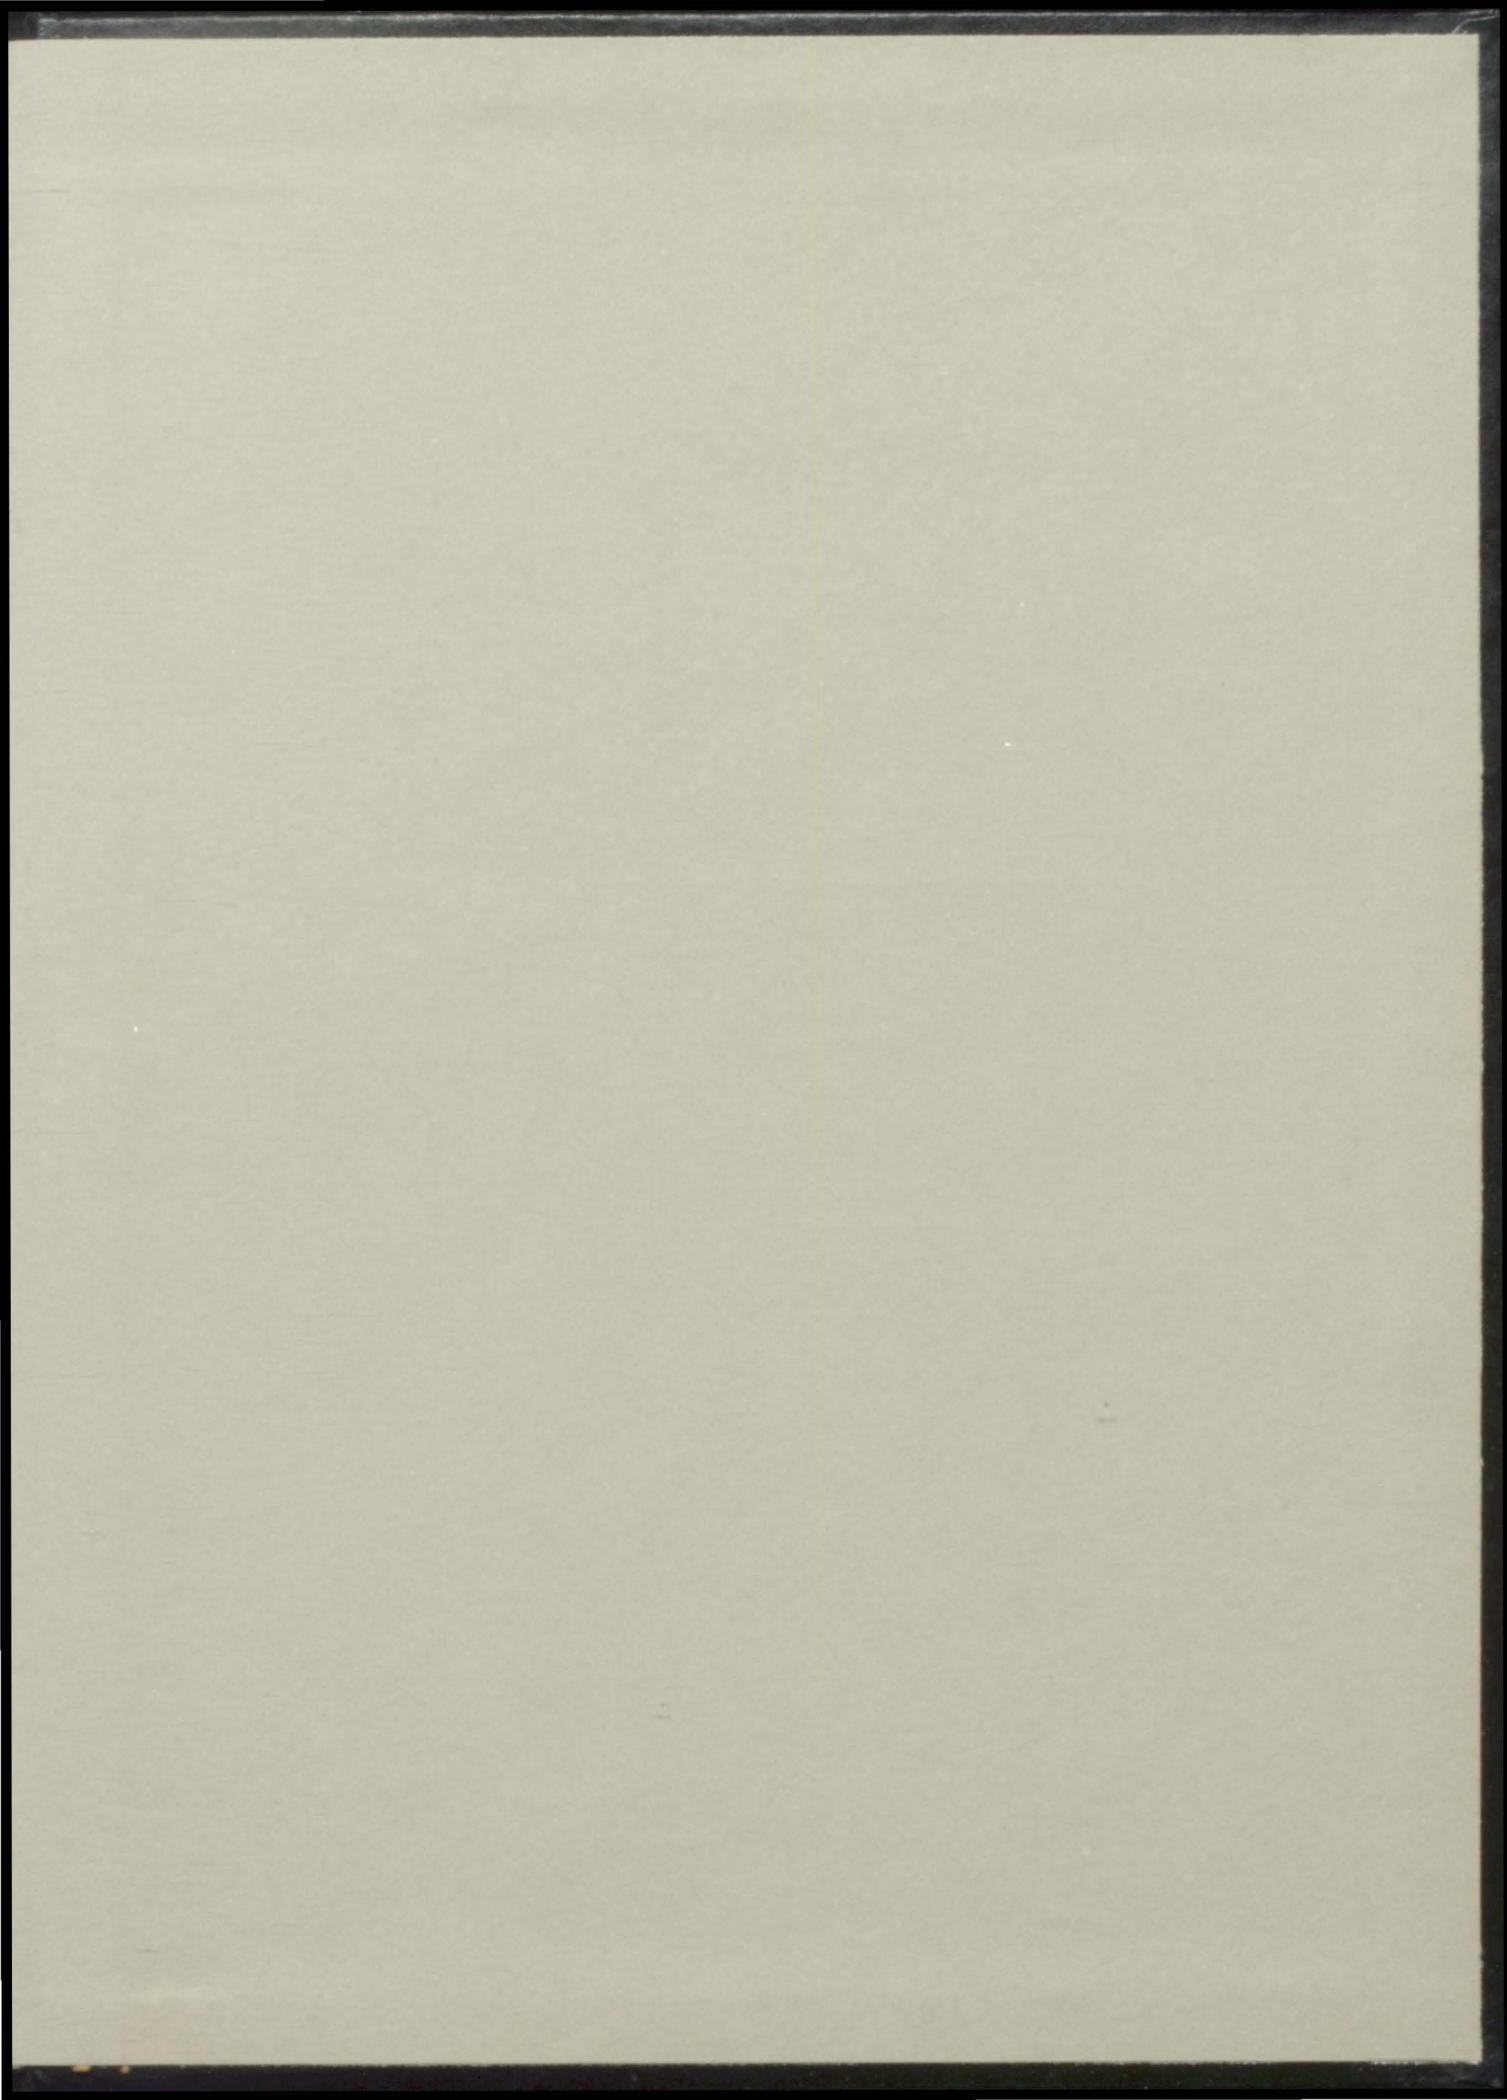

Here we are, tying up the loose ends
And saying last goodbyes to all our friends.
Here we are, makin' all the right moves,
And movin' on to new things, startin' over again.
Where we're goin' to it's still hard to say,
But I know we'll come back some day;
Holdin' on, to all the things you've taught us,
And thankin' you for showin' us the way.

We would like to thank Principal Gus Barnes and Business Manager, Gladys English for their years of hard work and dedication to the Flandreau school system.
