Rockin' the Stands

◆ The 1989-90 B-team cheerleaders are Lisa Austreim, Casi McFarland, Darcy Petersen, and Amy Johnson.

◆ The 1989-90 football & boys basketball cheerleaders are Amy Thompson, Laura Austreim, Allison Druse, and Teresa Groos.

◆ The 1989-90 girls basketball/wrestling cheerleaders are Laura Kuntz, Teresa Clites, Jenn Schrecengost, and Amy Toso.

The three groups of cheerleaders kept busy this year with a various number of activities. The girls planned the entire homecoming pep rally and practiced throughout the summer for their upcoming sport. Four of the cheerleaders competed at Huron and Brookings with a self designed dance routine and many attended a summer camp.

The Few, The Proud

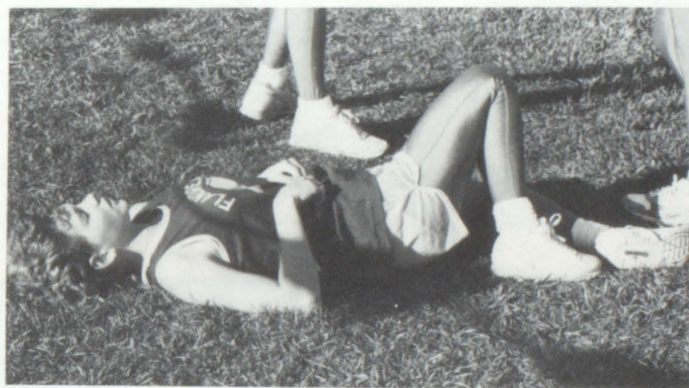

Once again when the cross country team met for practice at the beginning of the season, numbers were small. As a result, junior high runners were brought up to insure team qualifications in races. The girls' team had four runners. Enthusiasm was high as new head coach Randy Weller provided workouts to get the members in top physical condition. Highlights of the season included the girls winning the Big Sioux Conference Championship at Tuthill Park in Sioux Falls. Six girls and two boys also qualified for the state meet in Mitchell. Laura Austreim, Karen Evans, Jenny Story, Lisa Albers, Leandra Sutton, Wendy Kneebone, Dennis Hobbie, and Danny Cecil ran at state with Cecil placing third in the race.

Doing Fine In '89

Even though the record shows 5 wins and 4 losses, the Flier football team led in most of the statistics. They outscored their opponents 157-95. They were also on top for first downs, rushing, passing total, and per game average yards. Travis Benson led in rushing with 671 yards and Travis Peper received the most passes for 365 yards. Quarterback Kevin Zwart tossed the ball 153 times for 890 yards with 63 of his passes being caught. Zwart also grabbed six interceptions and did the punting and kickoffs for the Fliers. Kickoff returns leader was Brian Drapeau with 9 for 123 yards. The punts were mainly returned by Dave Leraas having 7 for 50.1 yards. The majority of the tackling was done by Rob Delaney, having 90 tackles. Travis Benson also led the individual scoring with 42 points.

For the first time ever, the Flandreau girls basketball team put its name in the State A program. After winning the district title by beating Sioux Valley and 5th rated DeSmet, the girls went on to take the Region 2A title from the Tri Valley Mustangs. At State, the girls lost first-round action to Pine Ridge, who later finished 1st place in the tournament. After the loss, the girls went 2-0 by beating Wessington Springs and Lead, finishing as Consolation Champs. The team was proud of the 18-7 season, the best record in school history. Leading the team with the most points was J.P. Schuchard and Karisa Voorhees scoring 342 and 325 points, respectively. The co-leaders in rebounding were Teresa Groos and Schuchard with a total of 189 each. Schuchard and Voorhees were both named to the All-tournament team. All-Conference honors went to all of the starting five players, and Voorhees made the All State 3rd team selection.

Life On The Links . . .

In a sport that takes a great deal of concentration, natural talent and a lot of practice make a difference. While the boys' bright spot of the year was a good showing at regions, the girls' highlight was bringing home the 1st place title from the Hamlin meet. Six golfers went to state; Jesse Nester, 13th; Travis Johnson, 13th; Matt Johnson and Terry Johnson for the boys and Stacy Ekern along with Christine Wittrock for the girls. Stacy Ekern placed 2nd at State for Flandreau's strongest performance of the year.

Finishing with a 14-7 win-loss record, the Flier boys had their ups and downs throughout the season. The 1989-90 schedule provided the Fliers with many tough, top-ranked opponents. The team won the Big Sioux Conference tournament for the fourth straight year, by winning an exciting, overtime game against Harrisburg. For the season, Mike Jewett led in all statistics. He scored 447 points, grabbed 177 rebounds, had 88 assists, and 71 steals. Travis Benson was the second leading scorer with 293 points. Kevin Zwart followed Jewett in rebounding with 130 for the season. At the guard position, Travis Peper had 51 assists and 41 steals to place him second in both categories. Kevin Hammer and Jewett both were named All-Conference players and Benson, Zwart, and Peper were honorable mention. Jewett also broke the school record for the most points scored in a high school career. He finished with 1472 points.

▲ Steve Schiefelbein concentrates on the ball while running the offense against Dell Rapids.

Setting It Up

Due to some unexpected injuries, the Flier netters had a slow start to the season. Although many close games were lost, the team steadily improved throughout the year.

When tournament time arrived, the Fliers were prepared to win. After a slow start in the first match, the girls came back to take second place in the District tournament, behind Arlington. Then advancing to regions, the team again came in second to Arlington, bringing an end to a much improved season.

Rebuilding Season

The 1989-90 Wrestling season was a rebuilding year for the Flandreau matmen. Junior high members were brought up to help fill out the squad. The Fliers were under first year head coach Randy Weller and his assistant, Mark Sampson (Sammy). The Fliers sent Jarrod Lee, Donny Peters, and Rob Delaney to the state tournament in Rapid City. Rob led the team in total team points (145), pins (15), takedowns (45), and 3-point nearfalls (21). Jarrod was 2nd in team points (125), pins (12), takedowns (26), and 3-point nearfalls (17), and led in reversals (26), and 2-point nearfalls (13). Donny was 2nd in reversals (14), and led in escapes (21). They, along with Dave Eng, consist of the seniors finishing their last wrestling matches for FHS.

Step By Step

When track season arrived, the girls team found themselves small in number, but with the help of some junior high girls, they made the season very successful, as several girls qualified for the state meet. The boys team also qualified three for state. Danny Cecil won the 3200 meter run and placed fifth in the 1600 meter run in the state meet. Kevin Hammer also placed sixth in the 110 meter hurdles. Kevin Zwart also took eighth place in the 400 meter dash. The girls team qualified nine girls: Julie LeBrun, JP Schuchard, Karisa Voorhees, Casi McFarland, Tracy Schmidt, Tami Johnston, Trisha Whaley, Sarah Gullickson, and Wendy Kneebone. Although the girls did not place any at state the experience will help in following years.

Break Away

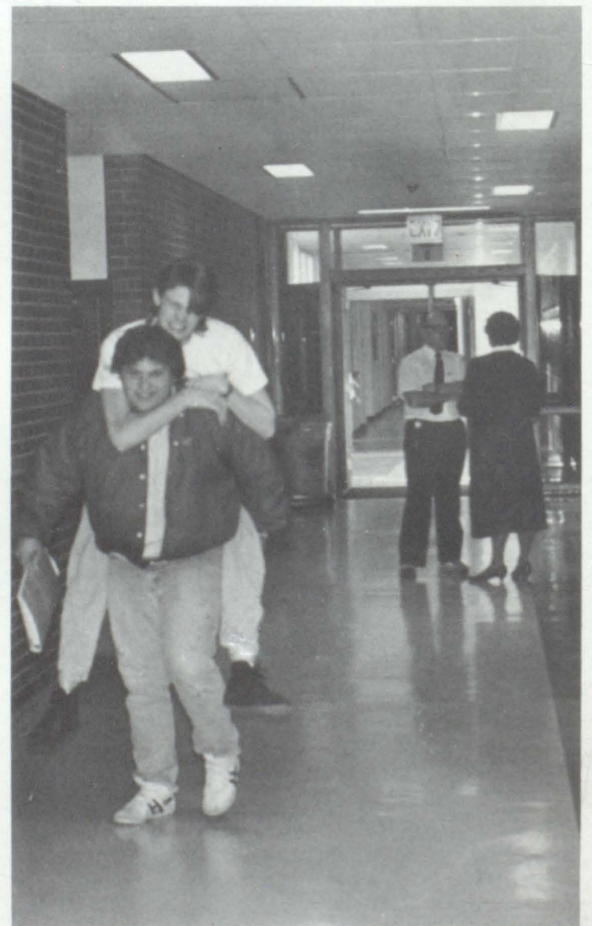

Contrary to popular belief, students at FHS found time during the day to relax. The between class rush to the lockers; the late-to-class sprints; and, the before-school strolls around the halls served as a pleasant change from the monotonous classroom routine.

Although homecoming was still a week away, excitement rose as the student body waited for the announcement of the 1989 royalty candidates. Five senior girls and five senior boys were nominated by their fellow classmates to represent the class during the homecoming festivities. At Little Orpheum, Steve May and Amy Schultz turned over their titles as king and queen. Mike Jewett and Teresa Groos were elected by the student body to take over the honor.

Spirit Catches On!

▲ The Senior class runs off with both of the awards for their imitation of "The Teacher's Lounge".

♥ Jarrod Lee serves his punishment by bobbing for apples in Kool-Aid at the Kangaroo Court festivities.

Homecoming festivities were held September 18-22, 1989. The cheerleaders worked hard to select the activities for the week. Monday was "Get up and go" day. Participants dressed like they just got out of bed. Next was "Woodstock" day. Hippies roamed the halls spreading peace and passing flowers among each other. Wednesday the school glowed with colors. Some students dressed like everybody's favorite little candy-Skit-tles. Students dusted off their old ties and ugliest socks for Thursday's events. On Friday, "Purple and Gold" day, the homecoming week violaters were prosecuted at Kangaroo Court. Although the week was fun and successful, the Fliers lost the homecoming game to Dells. The week was capped off with the annual dance.

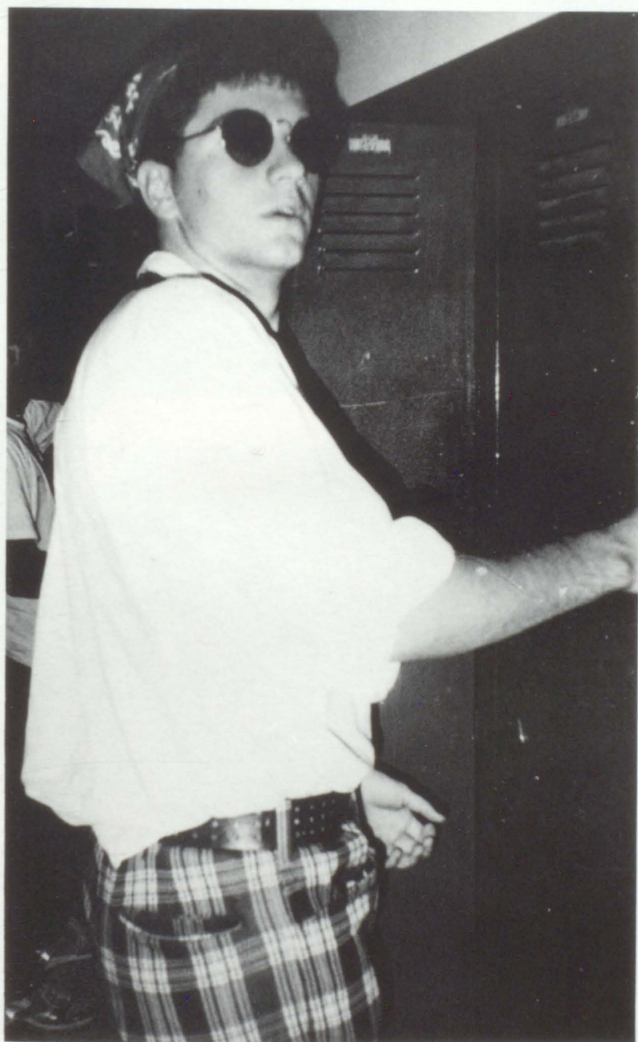

♦ Denita Hove and Amy Thompson started each of the skits off with a little bit of humor at the Little Orpheum.

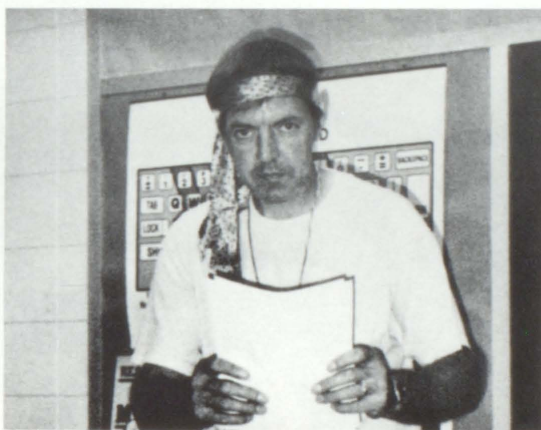

♦ The homecoming candidates watch Bailiff "Igor" Burns and Judge McGlone call their criminals to the stand to receive the verdict.

♥ "Flowerchild" Cliff Sutton stops for this "shot" on Woodstock Day. This year marked the 20th anniversary of Woodstock.

▲ Honor Your Senior Day was a "rough one" for Mr. Steve Solem and other teachers.

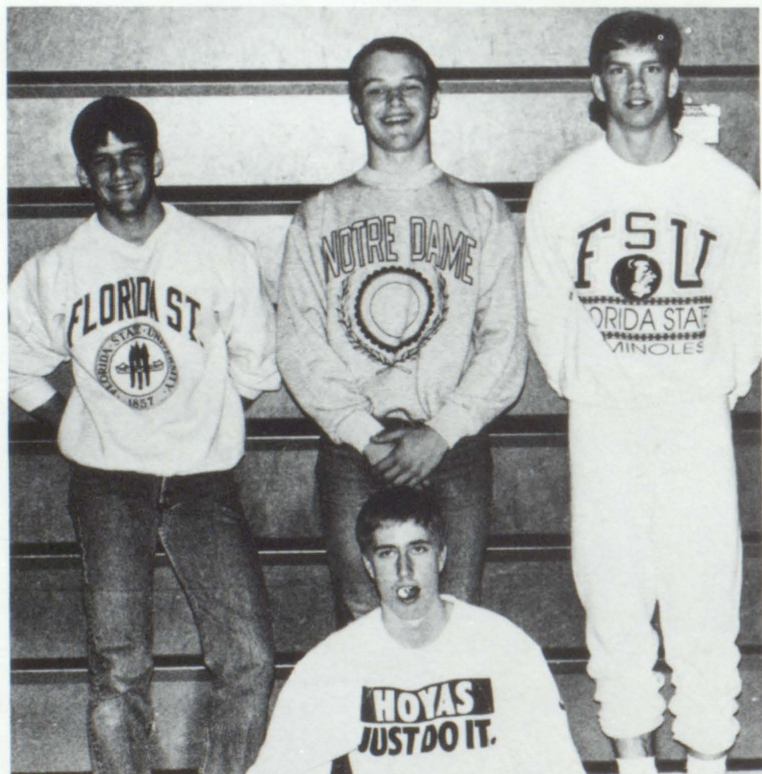

All throughout the year, students saw many fads and fashions come and go. Rolling jeans was a fad that stayed with everyone for the entire school year, while wearing jeans with holes in them left quickly due to the school dress code. Some other fads were leather coats in winter, "Just Do It" T-Shirts, and regular sweat pants just to stay comfortable.

Making A Statement

Both girls and boys were interested in being bolo-tie fashionable.

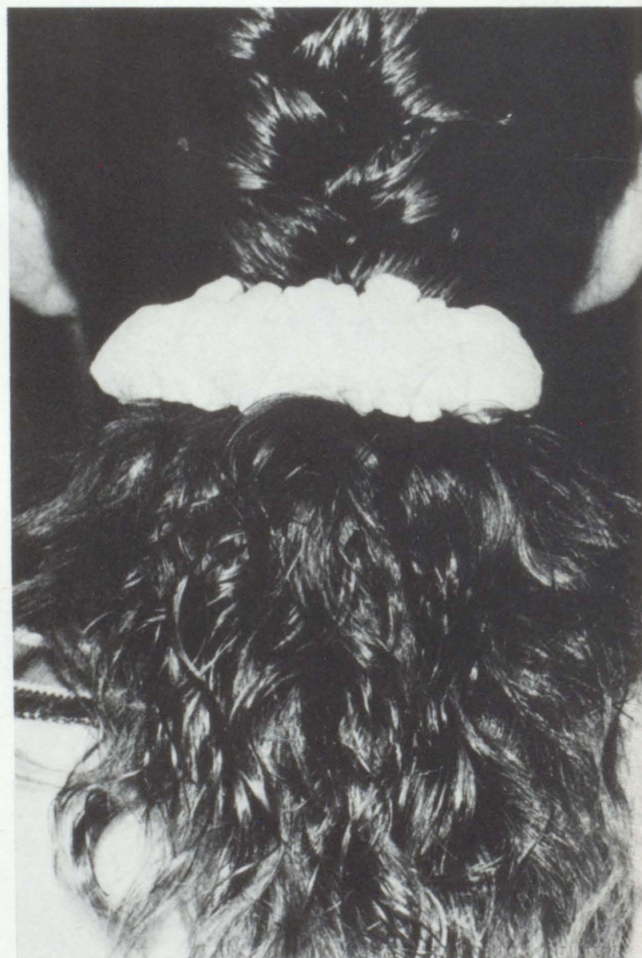

Mocassin shoes with rubber cleats were a comfortable favorite.

David Leraas, Travis Schipper, Kevin Hammer and Shaw Loiseau display the ever popular college sweatshirts.

For girls with long hair, french braids and clip barretts were in style.

Dance . . . You Know It

From homecoming to Valentines Day, students at FHS find a reason to dance. The student council holds several dances and the FFA/FHA hold an annual Christmas dance, along with several church sponsored dances. Pat Shaeffer serves as the dedicated school "DJ" while he listens to requests and puts out the hits for all to hear. Whatever the occasion, teens find dancing as a pleasant form of weekend entertainment.

♥ Pat Shaeffer selects the next hit for all to dance to.

◆ Slow songs always draw couples onto the floor to take advantage of the romantic mood.

"We're Off To See the Wizard"

This year's musical was "The Wizard of Oz." The hard work payed off as the crowd of all ages enjoyed it. The cast members were Karen Evans (Dorothy), Amy Thompson (Scarecrow), Craig Tjeerdsma (Tinman), Denita Hove (Lion), Robert Firman (The Wizard), Bridget DeClerk (Good Witch), Michelle Markuson

(Wicked Witch), DeLane Albers (Lord Growlie), Julie LeBrun (Gloria), Alison Druse (Aunt Em), Mike Jewett (Uncle Henry), Paul Welbig (Joe), Stac Druse, Paul Welbig, Kevin Zwart, Mike Jewett, and Frank Wakeman (soldiers), Carol Doyle (Oz Lady), Karisa Voorhees and Tonya Bakkedahl (Witch #1 and #2), JP

▲ Aunt Em (Alison Druse) and Dorothy (Karen Evans) desperately run to escape the tornado.

Decorating For A Night To Remember

After spending the school year earning and saving money, the junior class found that it was now time to combine its talents and decorate for the long awaited prom. They voted and selected the colors black and silver. Streamers, balloons, stars, napkins and paper in these colors were ordered to help transform the room into a romantic atmosphere. Ideas were then combined and the scene for a night to remember was created.

▲ Kim Hansen, Pat Shaeffer and Amy Ketcham decide what to do with just a few of the hundreds of balloons.

▲ Up on the scaffold is Jen Ahrendt peeking through the streamers.

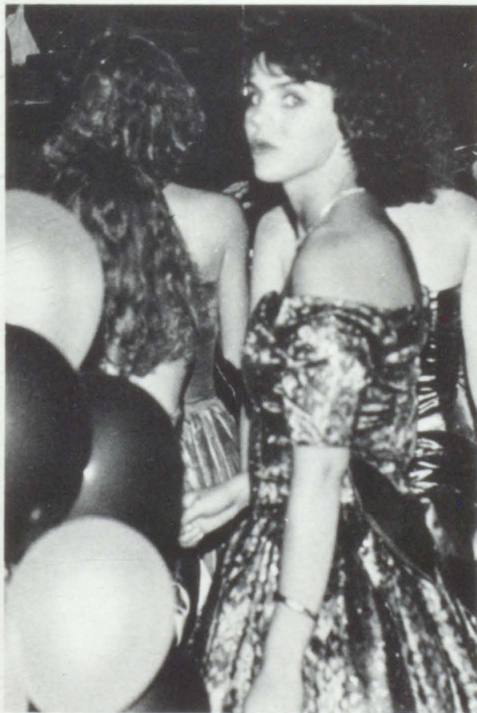

A Night To Remember

Prom proved to be a night to remember. The juniors and seniors dressed up in their tuxedos and formals and attended the dance at the community center. After raising money all year the juniors hired the band XTD to provide music for the evening. Short dresses and limosines were the new trends at prom.

♦ Sophmores, Abet Garcia and Tamra Merritt were elected by the junior class to be punch servers.

J.P. Schuchard eyes the camera with a suspicious look before joining her friends.

The juniors and seniors were a very excited audience as they danced to the tunes of XTD.

Working Hard or Hardly Working?

The rising cost of entertainment causes many students to find part-time jobs in order to earn the extra cash needed for movies, gas, cruising, shopping, music, junk food, and other items necessary to a teenager. Many students find employment by pumping gas, waiting tables, bagging groceries, and baby-sitting, along with other odd jobs.

◆ Members of the Flandreau National Guard Unit are Donny Peters, John Barthel, Brian Ausland, and Jarrod Lee.

♥ Lynn Iverson earns extra cash by cleaning Metropolitan Federal Bank.

♥ Jay Johnson, Travis Peper, and Mike Jewett prove that a great amount of physical labor is required for their job at Austreim Tree Service and Landscaping.

FHA Has A Winning Entry

Although the group was small, they had the determination to keep the Future Homemakers of America alive and going at Flandreau High. The FHA group had various activities including co-sponsoring the Christmas dance with the FFA members and two girls attending the State Convention in Sioux Falls. Christine Wittrock and Judene Gullickson won a top superior at the convention with their entry on parenting. Mrs. Lori O'Leary was the advisor.

Band Heads To Canada

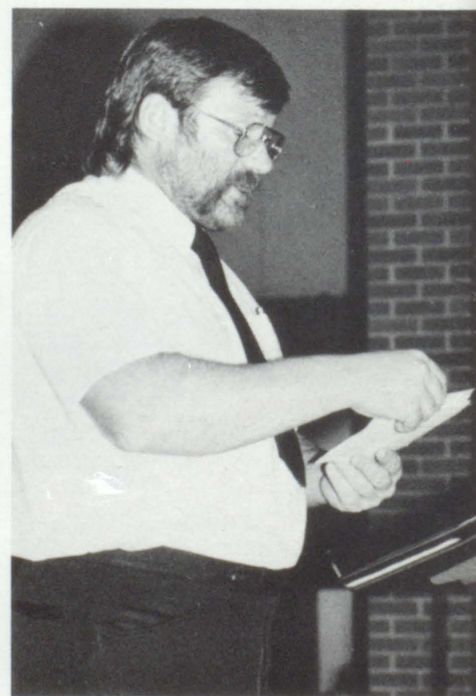

The Flandreau High School Band kept itself busy this year, whether it was entertaining for sports activities or performing concerts for the public. They were also busy selling calendars, cheese, and candy to raise funds for a summer band trip to Winnipeg, Canada. The band participated at All-State tryouts at O'Gorman High School and had one member, Pat Shaeffer advance to Rapid City for All-State. The band received a superior rating at a contest in Freeman. The stage band went to Aberdeen and Vermillion for contests also.

Three On A Bench

▲ This year's One Act Play, Three On A Bench, included Amy Thompson, Denita Hove, Paul Welbig, and Craig Tjeerdsma.

Three On A Bench was this year's One Act Play. Four students were involved with Mrs. Ellingson as the director. The play was about a guy and a girl who get in a fight because of jealousy. The fight occurs on a park bench below a widow's window who becomes a match-maker for the two. Eventually she falls for the policeman who hangs out at the park. The play received an excellent rating at the competition at Augustana College on January 25.

♥ During practice, Denita Hove, the widow matchmaker, comfortably waits her turn to get on the stage.

Knowing the Facts

Students at FHS who maintain high scholastic requirements are honored in different ways. Juniors who meet certain standards are chosen as Girls and Boys staters, some juniors and seniors are inducted into the National Honor Society each spring, and students are selected to represent Flandreau at the Big Sioux Conference Academic Bowl. For the first time this year, students in the gifted program participated in the Odyssey of the Mind competition.

The student council members kept busy with activities throughout the year. The group held meetings about once a month to plan dances and various other happenings like National High School Activities week. All class officers are elected by their classmates at the end of the previous year.

♥ The Freshman class officers were Kevin Haug, Todd Hinricher, Iris Penney, back row and front, Sara Shaeffer and Amy Toso.

♥ Teresa Groos, Kevin Hammer, Laura Austreim, Mike Jewett and Teresa Clites were the Senior class officers for 1989-90.

FHS TORCH and Co-Pilot

At the beginning of every year, students are selected to be on the high school TORCH team (Teams On the Road to Chemical Health). This years TORCH group held a New Year's Eve lock-in, sponsored school dances, sold rolls and juice in the morning, and did many other activities to keep themselves busy.

Under their new advisor, Mrs. Karen Thaler, the high school students put out another year of the Co-Pilot. This year, the class was offered for both semesters. The first semester class consisted of Angie Watson, Danny Peters, William Hasvold, Dean Clites, and Allison Barthel. The staff conducted interviews, wrote many stories about happenings in the school, and did paste up work for publishing.

◆ The Co-Pilot staff for the 2nd semester were back: Alissa Klassi, Tammy Ausland, Danny Pulscher, Jay Johnson, Teresa Groos, Chris Christiansen and Allison ThinElk. Making It Happen

Faculty members at Flandreau are responsible for all students receiving a quality education. They work many countless hours putting together interesting lesson plans. Many teachers are also involved with extra cirrcular activities. Flandreau High School had several student teachers learning under the experienced hand of present faculty members. New administrative members added to the group were Mr. Gary Markuson, high school principle, and Mrs. Lisa Sanderson, business manager.

The Flandreau High School Board includes back row, Mr. Mark Froke, superintendent; Mr. Mark McGlone, Mrs. Ada Jorgenson, Mrs. Brenda May, and Mr. Dann Cecil. Front row, Mrs. Lisa Sanderson, business manager; Mr. Jim Doyle, Mr. Fred Smith, and Mr. Gene Gullickson.

Mr. Gary Markuson, previously from Highmore S.D., replaced Mr. Barnes as the new high school principal.

Back row: Miss Wendy Schutte, Mrs. Roberta Luttmann, Mrs. Janna Ellingson, Mrs. Marda Olson, and Mr. Cliff Sutton.
Front row: Mr. Jim McGlone, Mr. Keith Burns, Mr. Roger Fodness, Mrs. Beth Renner, and Mrs. Lori O'Leary.

That's What Friends Are For

After spending many years forming close friendships and memories, the end of high school finally arrived! With promises to keep in touch, the seniors found themselves heading in separate directions to attend college and vocational schools or to go out into the working world. Memories of proms, state tournaments, homecomings, and parties will always stay fresh in their minds as they leave behind the comfort of high school and go on to the next step in their lives.

One Last Look...

The Final Step

On May 27, the graduating class of 1990 walked across the stage one final time as they received their diplomas. Former junior high teacher, Steve Stanforth, provided the commencement address, after being selected earlier in the year by the senior class. After the class sang "That's What Friends Are For," they presented the mothers with blue-tipped white roses, which was the class flower.

▲ DeLane Albers accepts his diploma as the first graduating senior from the class of 1990.

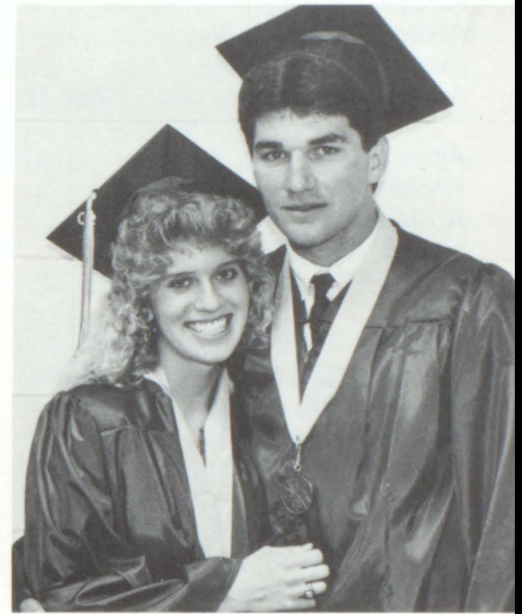

▲ Jay Johnson gives a wink to show his relief at finally reaching graduation day.

▲ Receiving awards from the Flandreau Education Booster were Angie Hinricher, DeLane Albers, Carol Doyle, Jay Johnson, Tamara Hofkamp, and Stephanie Dykstra.

▲ Mike Jewett and Laura Austreim were the recipients of the annual Wittern scholarship.

▲ Jarrod Lee, Donny Peters, Nicolle Gerlach, and Tracy Powers received recognition for their hard work by being awarded the Alice M. Rusch scholarship.

◆ Back row: Kevin Zwart recieved the Jellife scholarship, and Travis Peper and Alison Barthel received the Fuller scholarship. Front Row: Carol Svendsen received the Trent Harvest Ag award and Teresa Clites received the FEA scholarship for being valedictorian.

Always Be The Class Of '90 . . .

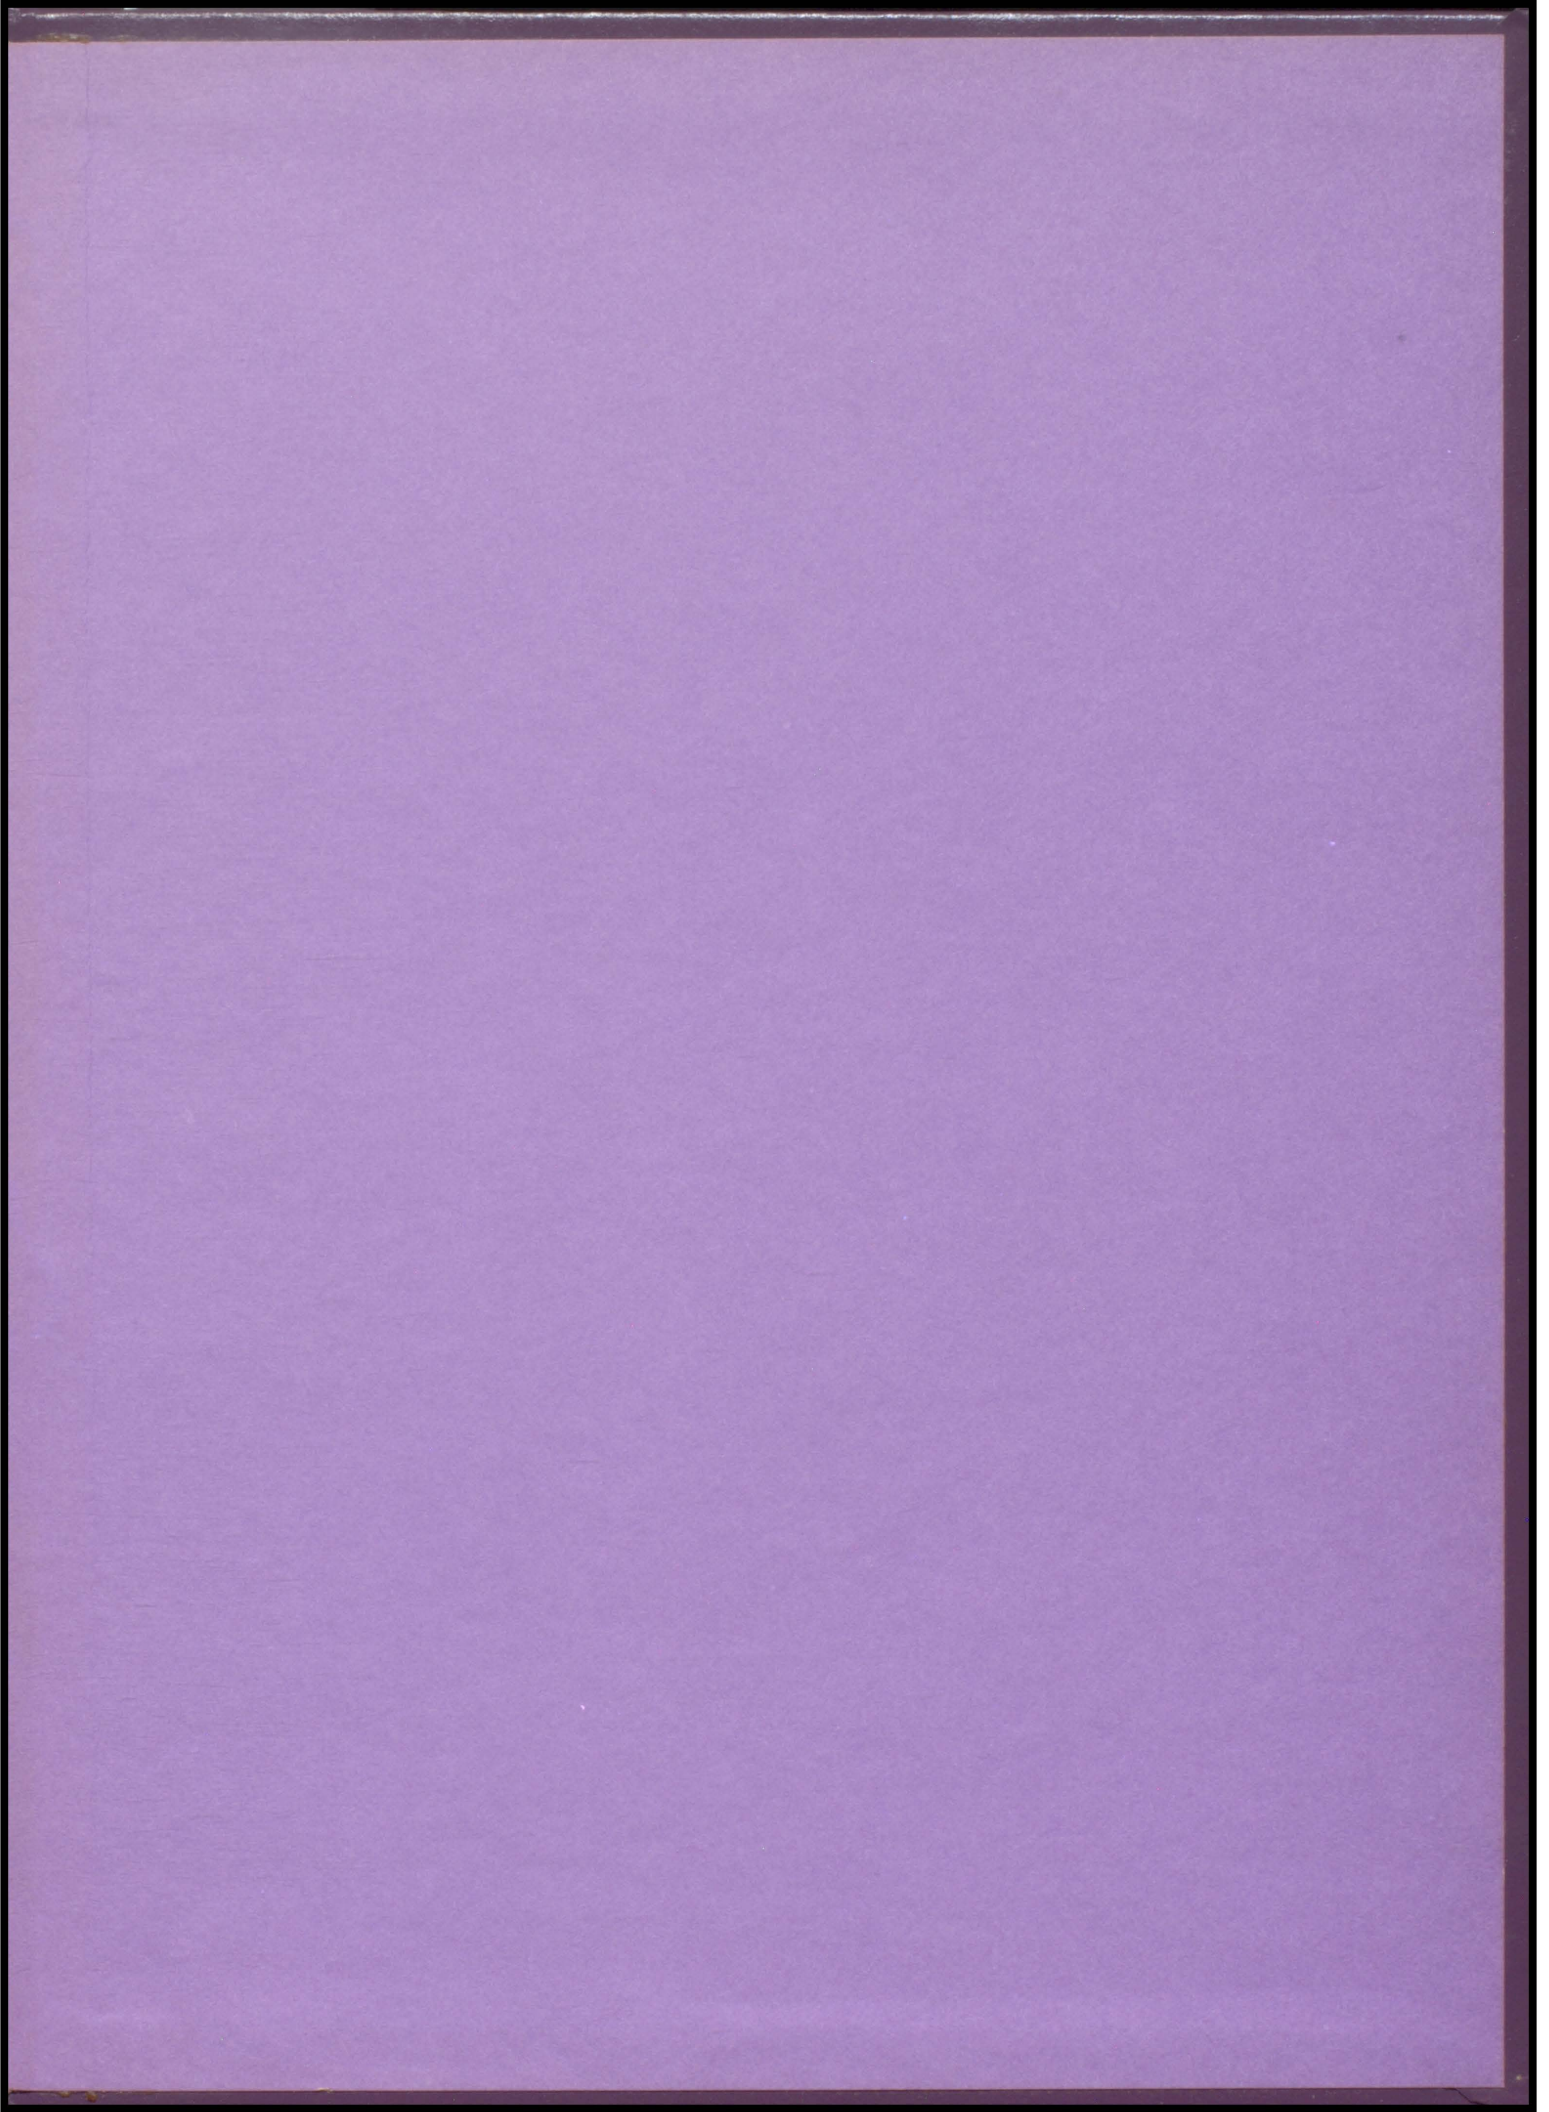

As our final year comes to an end,
We pause to reflect upon the many memories
Which have brought us tears and joy.
We came to this place together,
To learn, to grow, to share . . .
Time and space may separate us
But wherever our pathways take us
We'll always be the class of 1990.

Class Colors: Royal Blue & Silver
Class Flower: Blue-tipped White Rose
Class Motto: We as individuals have a life to lead, a dream to fulfill,
and a desire to succeed.
