Reader's Theatre: Lexy Antoine, Marilyn Allen, Lea Clark, Amy Sanderson

Adam Day

The oral interpers had a great season with over twenty students competing at events throughout the fall. There was strong leadership from the veteran performers and a lot of improvement from the novices. This was evident by the number of superior awards received at area meets, students competing in final rounds and many interpers placing at the Big East conference and Region 3A competitions. The season ended on a fantastic note with four students qualifying for the state festival in Yankton.

-Coach Tuchscherer

When you hear the expression, "I talk to walls," it's basically practicing your piece in front of a wall that acts as your audience so you're ready to perform. I love "talking to walls" because it boosts up my confidence in preparing my piece.

-Kiley Burggraff

I loved being in Oral Interp this year, and I wish I had started it my freshman year.

-Adam Day

How was the Season?

Where did the expression "I talk to walls" come from?

Why Oral Interp?

I talk to walls! We had some pretty great t-shirts this year, even if nobody knew what they meant at the start of this season. And this year was by far my favorite year in Oral Interp. We had a great group of people that went out and created a fun and energetic atmosphere for all of us. It is great to see so many freshmen and sophomores go out this year, and I hope they continue to go out because Oral Interp is something that you will always keep with you and remember. On the plus side, you get to work on your speaking skills! There were also a lot of cool pieces performed by our team this year, so a big thanks to Ms. Tuchscherer for picking out some good ones.

One of my favorite memories of this season was practicing our Reader's Theater. Lea, Amy, Marilyn and I participated in a feminist Reader's Theater where we got to pick on boys in the audience, so that was always fun. Another favorite memory of mine was the state competition in Yankton. Everyone did really well and it was an awesome experience. I specifically remember Amy, Caitlyn and I playing James Bond all around the hotel parking lot spying on Ms. Tuchscherer while she checked us in.

It was also really nice to have all the school support that we did this year. The students and staff were always supporting us before and after our meets and that was especially cool. We also had one of the best turn outs at our showcase than we ever had before and I encourage everyone to go next year!

VANESSA
Renneria

Vanessa has a strong desire to learn. She always turns in high quality assignments. She is respectful to her teachers and students. She is actively involved during class discussions, she stays on topic and is a pleasure to have in class.

AMY
Sanderson

Amy takes pride in her high quality work. She is thorough and consistently gives her best effort every day in class. Amy is an active learner and enjoys working with others. She brings a positive up-beat energy to the classroom and is a person that brings a smile to those around her.

DAVID
Silva

David Silva has had an excellent year with the term semester. David has qualities of always staying calm in stressful situations, very approachable, trustworthy, and empathetic as seen in helping new students. David has become a very important person in this school to help us bridge the gap between different cultures.

ANDREA
Valsecchi

Andrea is an outstanding student to have in class. His work ethic and quality of work is second to none. He is a pleasure to have in class and is a hard worker. Andrea is a great individual.

RHEAN
Sundermeyer

Rhean is a dedicated and attentive student who brings her best to class every day. She adds a sense of fun to the classroom while asking thoughtful questions and participating during readings and discussion. Her willingness to help other students and leadership in the classroom is greatly appreciated.

MARIA
Patterson

Maria has been really been putting forth good effort in class. She completes assignments well and on time. She participates well in class and partner activities and asks smart questions during practice time. Her good attitude and quiet lead-by-example mentality make her an excellent addition to class.

STUDENT Spotlights

ALYSSA

Trevor does a great job of leading by example in Spanish class. He consistently turns in assignments, participates in class discussions and partner work and asks thought-provoking questions concerning our topics study. His desire to know why the language works the way it does is refreshing and his questions concerning it often help his classmates to better understand as well.

MANUEL
Davis

Manuel has shown a strong desire to learn. He will answer questions during class discussions and activities. He had really progressed over the year. He always does his best. He is great to have in class. He is friendly and supports his classmates. Awesome student to have in class.

Missy has consistently been upbeat and positive in class. She works hard to get assignments done on time, has a great attitude in class, and has set goals for life after high school. I have enjoyed having her in my class this year.

MISSY
Whiteskunk

Shanaya, as part of our Advanced Multimedia curriculum, has really stepped-up and taken responsibility for our yearbook. She has spent many hours outside of class time compiling and completing work lists, taking pictures, laying-out and proofing pages and coordinating the project. Her attention to detail and design skills have significantly evolved which is evident in the great yearbook being published. She is always willing to take on extra projects (ie PAC ads, videoing and editing, Senior Videos for individuals, etc). She is a great worker, responsible, and reliable

SHANAYA
Lunday

Taylor has been doing a fantastic job in Spanish. He is always prepared for class with his work done and done well. He participates in class discussions, asks smart questions during lecture and practice and is very good about coming in outside of class to ask questions about assignments. He is a very positive leader in the classroom and gives his best in large group, small group, and individual work. His conscientiousness is to be admired.

TAYLOR

Coach Coach

Coach Streit

There were a lot of personal records set this season by all of our runners which is always the top goal. In the process however we had some runners set school records which was icing on top of the cake. LCC conference champs for boys and girls and 4 runners (Guy, Anthony, Dylan, and Marilyn) who made the top 25 list for best in school history.

Coach Gappa

Looking back on the year you may have seen a Human Hotdog in our camp, athletes on the lookout for a black car during their workouts, early morning practices, athletes challenging one another every race, the Fliers sweeping the LCC, and some great performances at the State meet. There may have also been an intense game or two of Catch Phrase on trip to State (wake up Julson, Dylan and Marilyn)!

Live to run. Run to live.

XC Boys

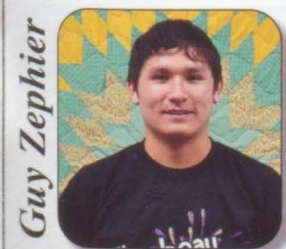

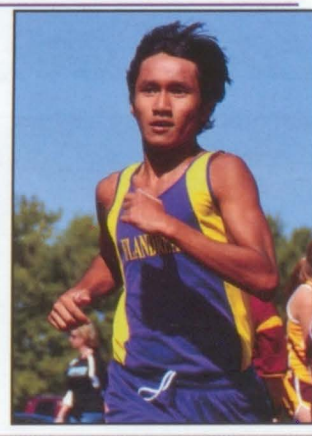

Kaylee Doyle, Morgan Doyle

Quinn Orlick

Guy Zephier

Guy competed in his 5th State XC meet. The 5 finishes ties him with Charles Knutson and Charlie Jones for the most appearances at the state meet in school history. Guy was the champion of the Arlington Invitational as well as the Champion of the Lake Central Conference. Guy 33rd place finish at the state meet would have earned him a spot on the record board had he not already owned the 8th place on the record board. As a junior, Guy is already one of the most accomplished runners in the history of the school, and is very deserving of being the XC Athlete of the Month.

I have always felt that Cross Country is one of the most challenging sports and yet a lot of fun at the same time. Our sport is everyone else's punishment. While running several miles doesn't sound appealing to many people and is probably not the most exciting thing to watch, we always had a good time talking and hanging out during practice and at meets. I couldn't ask for better coaches than Streitz and Gappa. They are always easy going and trying to do different things to make practice more enjoyable but still expect and push us to be our best. There are days when the workout is hard or you just don't feel like running but in the end, it is always worth it. As long as you trust Streitz and Gappa and do what they ask of you, you will reach your goals as a runner.

Our season was full of ups and downs, but a consistency was our dedication and hard work. We became a very close team by the end of the season and were willing to sacrifice for each other. We started the season with a motto of "Good enough is not good enough." Our goal was to get better each day by pushing ourselves and each other. The girls put not only sweat but also a few tears into the season, which shows how much they believed in themselves, their teammates, and the program.

Coach Lueck

Although our record was not what we had hoped; the JV & C programs had a lot of success. Many changes were made to our program and these girls endured them with an open mind and great attitude. Significant improvements were made throughout the season. Each player worked hard to better not only themselves, but the whole team. These girls have the attitude and skills necessary to be very successful in the upcoming years!

"I believe in you!" Switching our shirts equals change in attitude and outlook on volleyball. During the Hamlin game, there were 10 people in the crowd but you would have thought it was a full house by the volume! Our pre-game tradition was doing cheers to get us pumped up and listening to music in the coach's office! The sleepover at Kelly's was really fun! We stayed up until 5 in the morning just watching scary movies, playing Just Dance, and taking pictures. I am so thankful for my entire team and coaches for always believing in us knowing that we could improve in everything we do!

The 2012 Flandreau Flier Football team was exciting to watch and brought pride to their approach to playing the game. They put in a lot of time improving themselves in the weight room year round and focusing on becoming the best they could be.

Coach Ahrens

It was a solid year with a heartbreaker at the end, but I'm really proud of the way all the guys battled tough throughout the year.

Coach Foster

It was an unforgettable season, with the first regular season win against Tri-Valley in a number of years, the seniors going out with four straight Big East Conference titles, and a semi-final game that will be talked about for years. This group of seniors ended their careers making a huge mark on Flier football. It was great to be a part of it.

Coach Clarke

I'm proud of the guys and how hard they worked this year. There was an expectation set and this year's team far exceeded that. Going 10-1 on the season is something that everyone can look back on and be proud of.

This team made my senior year one of that I will never forget. We left our mark on Flandreau wrestling by placing for the first time in 40 years. There were many good times along the way. The best being when Coach Ahrens was singing his little heart out to Adele's song "Rolling in the Deep" on our way to state wrestling. The other 5 hours of the drive, we listened to ESPN radio. So boring! I'll remember jamming to "Heatbeat" before every practice. Something I'll never forget is when our entire team ganged up on Coach Ross. We had him down and he faked a back injury so we would all get off and he just took off running! We always would talk in the coach's room for about 30 minutes after every practice. A team becomes so close throughout a season of wrestling because the workouts are worse than any other sport but it was all worth it.

Looking back on the season seems like so long ago, yet a year we will never forget. Just like any other team, we definitely had our ups and downs. Even through the long, hot hours in the gym and the tedious practices and drills, we always found a way to make it fun and spice things up a bit. The game in Parker when Brice decided to take over for Mr. Relf's pre-game pep talk and wrote plays and stats all over the board, talking exactly how he would. He walked in and caught her red handed. We laughed our butts off and every game since, Mr. Relf would ask Brice if she wanted to cover the pep talk. All of the bus rides to games with Bruce as our bus driver and the time we all thought we were about to drive off the road with Verlyn! I'll never forget the pre-game jam sessions, sleep-overs, meals, heart-to-hearts, our "Believe" motto, and experiencing all of it with the girls I did. Throughout the season, we proved to everyone in the crowd that we could play with the best of the best. Some games we let slip, but it only motivated us to work harder. Being able to play the sport of basketball is such an amazing opportunity and I will miss everything about it for years to come. I would like to give a huge thank-you to all of the coaches, fans, and parents who were along for the journey and for always believing in us. But most importantly, my teammates. I can't even begin to describe the bond we have. I'm so grateful to have experienced my last season with every one of them. They are truly amazing. We not only became friends, but family.

This was a great team to be a part of, we had a lot of fun this season. Every day our kids came to practice and worked hard and competed with one another to make themselves better. These seniors have been a joy to coach over the years and I wish them nothing but the best in their futures. We have a good group of hard working players coming back next season and I am already looking forward to it.

Coach Shoup

I really enjoyed working with the basketball team this year. They worked hard day in and day out and made every long night and long bus ride worth it. We had a disappointing ending but the way those kids came back in the final game summed up who they were as a team.

Going to practice everyday was something I looked forward to because we were always having fun. Shooting half court shots was something that we actually practiced. I specifically remember a drill when Jacob Weber was working really hard. He banked in a few threes, but the best part is when Weber dove for a ball and was trying to hold on. When Mitch Hansen lifted up the ball... along with Weber still straddling the ball! HAHA It had everyone in the gym laughing. I'll never forget the good times we had together. We had a young golf team this season and they got a lot of valuable experience to build upon for the future. We had a difficult spring with all the snow in April that really condensed out season into about a two and half week period. The kids played through it and enjoyed the time they got on the course.

Coach Coach

Coach Stadem

It was a wild year with the weather but the kids gave their best.

Coach Clarke

Proud of the way everyone improved over the season even though the weather was not in our favor. Looking forward to next season.

Coach Streit

The season got off to a slow start with the snowy weather, but never the less the athletes still put together many memorable performances that they can be proud of as they look back at this season.

The 2013 track season was short but was still filled with the memories. DJ, Jake, and I still remember the bets that Mr. Stadem made us our sophomore year and still hasn't come through with them. Everybody was happy the days we got to play gator ball. Sometimes the game got a little too intense but we still had a fun time. It only got better when you beat the coaches. Everybody should be out for track, it is a great time to get better for other sports and it is fun!

Elementary Memories...

Back in the days... DJ Johanson didn't know what to say to Dom Pisawis when he sat next to him in Kindergarten; Tate Lacey and Dakota Petersen got their bathroom breaks revoked due to "fighting"; Makayla Dietrich let one rip in fourth grade and it was so funny that Jacob Patterson had to use his inhaler to breathe; Mitchel Foster dared to lick a pole during the winter season only to have that pole "not let go of his tongue"; Hannah Schipper threw a rock that broke a window and her bestie, Justin Lacey rattled her out; DJ Johanson was blamed for pulling the bus fire alarm when it was really cousin, Kelly Johanson; Makenna Thompson brought a tuba to 'Show N Tell' in 5th grade; Lexy Antoine became Reanne Holiday's first friend in Flandreau.

High School School Memories...

Remembering the time when... the football players went to the 11B State Championship as sophomores and won; Kelly Johanson threw a piece of clay at Carter's pot and got kicked out of Clay for three days; Lea Clark stayed up till 2 in the morning with Lexy Antoine, Amy Sanderson, Keri Johnson, and Leslie Clark on the band trip in Colorado; Hannah Schipper and Dakota Petersen convinced Casey Johnson to go into the crawlspace below the art room; Kara Uilk and Brice Rose skipped class to see Senior Projects only to have Mr. Foster catch them; Reanne Holiday had fun in Ms. Fischer's class with Marcus Pederson and Tia Lake; Senior Skip Day at Carousel Skate; Keisha Jackson, Kelly Johanson, Kendra Duncan, Makayla Dietrich, Lexy Ledbetter, Alissa Gassman, and Makenna Thompson drove to Winner for the Semi-Final Playoff game during the football season together; Mitchel Foster impersonated Russ Henrickson while taking pictures for basketball and Mr. Relf laughed so hard he was crying; Mr. Foster and Mr. Stadem tried to move the piano only to have it tip over just as Mrs. Stadem had come in during the first senior class meeting in the choir room; Kelly Johanson jammed with Makayla Dietrich, Kendra Duncan, Makenna Thompson, and Alissa Gassman to Starships.

Words of Advise

"I have loved contributing to something that people will look at years from now."

-Karissa Blum

"I really enjoy being part of the yearbook, I wasn't sure if I'd like it and now I'm always working on it."

-Shanaya Lunday

"I didn't really want to be on yearbook at first. But, it can release your creative side and it's fun trying new things. I like it a lot."

-Aly Link

"Marda always pushed us out of our comfort zone and let us express our creativity. I will forever remember and thank her for that."

-Cristelle Pisawis

"It was fun to see all the new and cool things that you could do and have people look at for a long time."

-Kendra Duncan

Editor Thoughts...

Working on the yearbook the past 4 years has been quite an experience. When I first started, I remember Marda saying, "DETAILS, KENDRA!" It seemed a little overwhelming, but after you see the finished product, it's worth all the time and effort. I am glad I have had the privilege to work with Marda the past years because when you are in the Tech Center, no teachers can yell at you (not even Mr. Foster)! :)

~Kendra Duncan

Student Spotlight

Kendra Duncan

Kendra has been the driving force behind this year's exceptional book. Her creativity, tireless attention to detail, constant pursuit of innovations, dedication to including activities and people and the extra hours will be forever noted in the excellence of this publication.
