

The Duchossois Family Scholars Program

A distinguished merit scholarship program at Culver Academies

The Duchossois Family

The Duchossois family has supported the Culver Academies for over 50 years. They have also put back significantly into the community in which they live through a variety of scholarship opportunities and significant endeavors in health care and other areas of need and promise, especially in the Chicago area.

Craig Duchossois, a 1962 graduate of Culver Military Academy, is the CEO of Duchossois Industries, Inc., of Elmhurst, Illinois, a family-owned and -operated company; and is a member of The Culver Educational Foundation Board of Trustees. He received B.S. and M.B.A. degrees from Southern Methodist University and served in Japan and Vietnam as an officer in the U.S. Marine Corps.
