

Fairfield College
Preparatory School

Annual Report

2014-2015

Dear Friend of Prep,

Thank you! Your love for Fairfield Prep, expressed both in your warm welcome to me and in your generous commitment to our mission, is impressive. St. Ignatius of Loyola said, "Love is shown more in deeds than in words." The pages of this annual report only begin to tell the story of all you have done for Fairfield Prep and the depth of your love. Your financial support, your presence at events, and your prayers allow us to continue our Jesuit, Catholic tradition of excellence. Indeed, your love for our students shines brightly throughout these pages.

This is an amazing time to become part of the unfolding narrative of Fairfield Prep. The new projects and facilities are visible reminders of an even deeper resolve to advance Jesuit education. We hope you will take the opportunity to see the Student Life center with its expanded dining capacity. This elegant space is framed by offices for campus ministry, Christian service, and student project rooms. Leveraging our technological investment to support an iPad user interface, we have effectively created a collaborative learning environment that prepares Prep students to be team leaders in a global economy.

You will also notice the beautiful practice surface on Barlow field. Fundraising efforts are ongoing to pay for this field, but we knew that constructing it was an immediate priority for the safety and performance of our athletes. We have also reconfigured and renovated a variety of classrooms, laboratories, the music room, and the beloved St. Joseph chapel. Please stop by for a tour or for morning mass when you get a chance.

These developments are foundational capital investments that create new opportunities, along with new operating expenses. Your generosity to the annual fund makes this possible. Your support ensures that young men continue to receive the very best that a Jesuit education has to offer. Throughout the school day and at various events, I often look around to see myself surrounded by diverse and talented students wearing the FP logo with pride. Their faces beam with enthusiasm and the potential to transform our world in positive ways. At those times, I know our efforts are worth it. It is then when the love contained in your deeds unfurls for all to see.

Your gifts are greatly appreciated by our students, by our dedicated faculty, and by me. Please know of our prayers for you and your family and may God's abundant love be ever present in your lives. I look forward to meeting you over the course of this year.

Sincerely yours,

Rev. Thomas M. Simisky, S.J.
President

Reunion Classes

GOLDEN GRADUATES

The members of the Class of 1965 reunited 50 years after their Prep graduation to celebrate their Golden Anniversary Reunion on the weekend of May 29 – May 31. In addition to a weekend full of great fun, great memories and great friends, the Class of '65 also presented Prep with a very generous five year gift commitment of $146,800! The funds raised by the class will be used in two ways: to benefit Prep's Jesuit Educators Academy and for support of the Annual Fund. Fairfield Prep is most appreciative of the efforts of the 50th Reunion Committee (see box p. 23) and for the continued loyalty and generosity of this great class!

Matching gifts from corporations are a substantial and welcome way for donors to help Prep obtain additional funds. Matching gifts, directed for the same purpose as your gift, will be counted as a contribution over and above your personal gift or pledge payment. Depending on your employer, your gift could be matched 1:1, or even 2:1. We thank those friends who utilize this great benefit at their, or their spouse's place of work, and we thank all our corporate and foundation supporters that continue to offer such impactful programs.

By Terry Donahue '59, McAuliffe Society Member

My first close connection with Fairfield Prep occurred in 1957. My older brother, Jeff, was about to graduate from Saint Augustine grammar school in Bridgeport. There was discussion around the dinner table about the new high school run by the Jesuit fathers and how it would be a great opportunity for a good education. Of course there were considerations such as transportation, would there be any friends going, the difficulty of the entrance exam and the expense of tuition. Jeff took the entrance exam, was accepted and enrolled. I followed two years later as a member of the Class of 1959.

Fast-forward to today. I now realize, with the perspective of fifty-odd years in the rear view mirror, what a tremendous life experience four years at Prep was. We entered Prep as boys and graduated as young men. In the process we made friends for life and learned the lessons of life. The journey was guided by a strong contingent of Jesuits who addressed us as "Mister," educated us as "students," made us dress like we were going to work and expected from us nothing less than our best. Respect for others, hard work, strong minds, and high morals were the keys to future success. Today these lessons are still part of the fabric of Prep. The number of Jesuits is reduced but the message of their order is still strong.

I am fortunate to have maintained a close association with Prep over the years. My wife Mary and I raised our family in Fairfield and were blessed with seven sons. We sent them all to Prep. Except for a few years of absence, I was closely familiar with the school from 1976 when my first son Jack enrolled until 1996 when the last one Pat graduated. I also watched the journey of my grandson Daniel who graduated in 2014.

Were there changes in that period of time? You bet there were! The school has always been moving forward and today I think Prep is at its best. Academics are challenging, the faculty is earnest and dedicated, the physical plant is great and getting better, and the leadership is strong. The outlook for continued strong leadership was recently confirmed with the appointment of Rev. Thomas Simiski S.J. as the new Prep president.

The Class of 1959 celebrated our 50th reunion in 2009. Early in the planning for our jubilee it was decided that we would create a full four-year scholarship for a student in financial need. This goal crystalized our fund raising and ignited our class to come together. My class, through the efforts of many on the reunion committee and the contributions of classmates, raised $239,300. The Class of 1959 Scholarship went to a young man chosen by the Prep administration as an appropriate recipient.

This wonderful achievement inspired me to ask if there was a way for an individual to create a similar opportunity for students to attend Prep. The Development Office answered my question with an unqualified "Yes." You don't have to fund an entire tuition each year. Rather you can create a fund to partially fund a student tuition each year and it will go on forever as your legacy to Fairfield Prep.

There are various ways to create this fund. I chose to create a Charitable Gift Annuity (CGA). The essential elements of the CGA are you make a significant transfer of assets to Prep. In return you receive a guaranteed return in the form of a quarterly dividend for the remainder of your life. There can also be a contingent annuitant. There are tax offsets in that both your initial gift and the annual dividend income are partially tax free. When you die, the principal is a gift to Prep.

I was amazed to discover that I was the first person to establish such a fund for Prep. I certainly urge other senior members of the worldwide community known as Fairfield Prep alumni to think about supporting future students at Prep. Think about giving them the opportunity that you received to change the future path of their lives. Think about getting a tax equivalent return that is six times greater than you are getting in your CD's or sixty times greater than your money fund. Think about donating appreciated assets without paying capital gain taxes. Think about your legacy. Establish a scholarship fund in your family name and you will forever be remembered at Fairfield Prep.
