Comments from Student Reps.	respective schools.
Comments from the Public	Ms. Nanci Johnston expressed concerns about the possible elimination of instructional coaches which could potentially destroy the current infrastructure.
Comments from Employee Group Reps.	Mr. Jeff Johnston, President, Lodi Education Association (LEA), announced the upcoming "Read Across America Day," in recognition of Dr. Seuss' birthday. He referenced accessing CTA's website for a link to contact legislatures regarding a tax revenue extension.
Comments from Board Members	Mr. Heberle announced that Tokay High School received 3 rd place at the Central California Regional Science Bowl Competition.  Ms. Cassel requested the Board be provided with self-study and accreditation reports for the high schools on their WASC studies. She asked for a notice to be sent to counselors and administrators to fully implement the direction given by the Board to change math guidelines to allow options for students.
Comments from the Superintendent	Dr. Washer commented on the WASC studies being held at McNair, Bear Creek, Lodi, and Middle College High Schools. She reported that the agenda for the March 8, Study Session would include a report on basic budget operations, the AVID program, and a proposal for the creation of a virtual academy.
REPORTS Update on the District's Expense Reduction Plan	Dr. Washer presented a report on the District's Expense Reduction Plan and the progress to-date, including energy savings and reductions at the JAESC. She reported on suggestions from two employees that are being implemented: Ms. Garnet Shinn to check all line items on the budget and if they have not been used in the last year, eliminate them from the budget; and, from Ms. Michelle Madrid to consolidate the extended year school program to reduce the number of sites and to extend the year for special education students, to reduce transportation costs.
Update on Cell Phone Budget	Dr. Washer presented an update on the plan to reduce the District's cell phone budget. She reported a yearly savings of $6,000 gained by reducing the number of employees assigned a cell phone. Cell phone users left on the list for purposes of student safety and facility emergencies were identified, as well as those whose phones are self-funded or do not affect the General Fund. It was pointed out that some administrators have relinquished their district cell phones. Dr. Washer noted she will personally pay for retaining her district-issued cell phone. Discussion was held with regards to eliminating broadband cards from laptop computers. The Board was in agreement for the cards to be removed from their District computers.
