

Charter, Online, Private, and Home School Student Participation in Co-Curricular and Extracurricular Activities

Public Charter and Online Students		Private and Home School Students
Co-Curricular (class during day)		Extracurricular Only
PRE-REQUISITES TO PARTICIPATION	May participate at the student's boundary school .	May participate at the student's boundary school .	May participate at the student's boundary school .	May participate at the student's boundary school .
	Class not offered by student's charter or online school of enrollment	Activity not offered by student's charter or online school of enrollment.	Class not offered by student's private school of enrollment.	Activity not offered by student's private school of enrollment.
	There is room in the class.	There is room in the activity.	There is room in the class.	There is room in the activity.
	The student meets District and school standards of eligibility.	The student meets District and school standards of eligibility.	The student meets District and school standards of eligibility.	The student meets District and school standards of eligibility.
	The student's parent agrees to provide student transportation to and from the school.	The student's parent agrees to provide student transportation to and from the school.	The student's parent agrees to provide student transportation to and from the school.	The student's parent agrees to provide student transportation to and from the school.
	N/A	N/A	Student shall have received an exemption from compulsory public school.	Student shall have received an exemption from compulsory public school.
FEES	The student's charter or online school of enrollment approves participation and pays $75 school participation fee .	The student's charter or online school of enrollment approves participation and pays $75 school participation fee .	N/A	N/A
	School participation fee charged one time annually per student regardless of the number of co-curriculum/extracurricular activities the student participates in during the school year. Must be paid prior to tryout or participation. [Receipt to product #40120005]
	The student pays activity fee in the same amount charged to all students, one-half of the basic registration fees , and any student activity specific fees .	The student pays activity fee in the same amount charged to all students and any student activity specific fees .	The student pays activity fee in the same amount charged to all students, one-half of the basic registration fees , and any student activity specific fees .	The student pays activity fee in the same amount charged to all students and any student activity specific fees .
	If the student qualifies for fee waivers, the charter or online school shall pay waived fees to the boundary school. Determination of fee waiver eligibility is the responsibility of the charter or online school.		Fee waiver may be grant in the same manner as students at the boundary school.
ENROLLMENT	Student should be enrolled the same as any other students attending the school.	Enroll in Course 615.	Student should be enrolled the same as any other students attending the school.	Enroll in Course 615.
	~Co-curricular activity has been liberally construed to include any class that meets the pre-requisites' listed above. ~Charter and online students may not enrolled in Davis Connect or Utah Students Connect. These are programs not a student's boundary school. Private and home school students may enroll in these programs. ~If a student is enrolling in Drivers Education they must take both the classroom instruction and driving instruction at the student's boundary school.			