11/16/17

Hello parents, this is Mr. Lots and Mrs. Slater-Sanchez calling from over at Hillview.

Don't forget, tomorrow, 11/17, is a minimum day with dismissal at 12:40 pm. We have no school next week, with classes resuming on 11/27.

Our 1st semester is coming to a quick end. Our last day before winter break is 12/15, so that gives us only three weeks before semester report cards will be sent home. Any students who have less than a 2.0 GPA or have any F's on their semester report card will be at risk for retention. 8th graders in this position may not walk for promotion, and all students in this position will be required to attend intersession school. Let's make sure we get those grades up!

Parents, please remember to help us make sure all of our students are safe before and after school. We understand traffic is slow, but please be sure to drive slowly and always watch for students. Please also remind your child they should only cross the street at a crosswalk. Thank you for helping us make sure our students remain safe coming to and going from school.

We hope everyone has a great week next week. Enjoy the time off and have a Happy Thanksgiving!

Thank you,

Rodney Lots & Jennifer Slater-Sanchez
