Discounted Summer Reading Books for Students entering 11th Grade:

The Bean Trees* by Barbara Kingsolver ($12.00 Paperback)

Growing up in Kentucky, Taylor Greer dreams of getting away. She heads west with high hopes and a barely functional car. By the time she arrives in Tucson, she has acquired a completely unexpected child and must somehow come to terms with both motherhood and the necessity for putting down roots. Hers is a story about love and friendship, abandonment and belonging, and the discovery of surprising resources in apparently empty places.

The Jungle* by Upton Sinclair ($6.00 Paperback)

In this powerful book we enter the world of Jurgis Rudkus, a young Lithuanian immigrant who arrived in America filled with dreams of wealth, freedom, and opportunity. And we discover, with him, the astonishing truth about "packingtown," the busy, flourishing, filthy Chicago stockyards, where new world visions perish in a jungle of human suffering. Upton Sinclair, master of the "muckraking" novel, here explores the workingman's lot at the turn of the century: the backbreaking labor, the injustices of "wage-slavery," the bewildering chaos of urban life. The Jungle, a story that launched a government investigation, recreates this startling chapter of our history in unflinching detail. Always a vigorous champion on political reform, Sinclair is also a gripping storyteller, and his 1906 novel stands as one of the most important works in the literature of social change.

Tracks* by Louise Erdrich ($12.00 Paperback)

From award-winning, New York Times bestselling author Louise Erdrich comes an arresting, lyrical novel set in North Dakota when Native Americans were fighting to keep their lands. At a time when Indian tribes were struggling to keep what little remained of their lands, Tracks is a tale of passion and deep unrest. Over the course of ten years, as tribal land and trust between people erode ceaselessly, men and women are pushed to the brink of their endurance—yet their pride and humor prohibit surrender. The reader will experience shock and pleasure in encountering characters that are compelling and rich in their vigor, clarity, and indomitable vitality.

The Grapes of Wrath* by John Steinbeck ($14.00 Paperback)

(Required reading for Honors/Advanced Placement Students)

This Pulitzer Prize-winning epic chronicles the Dust Bowl migration of the 1930s and tells the story of one Oklahoma family driven from their homestead and forced to travel west to California. The novel captures the horrors of the Depression and probes the very nature of equality in America.

All books are being sold at the discounted rate for educational institutions. Sales are cash only and returns are not accepted.
All students will have the opportunity to purchase any of the above books on June 7th.
