Discussion: English teachers need shelves for classroom libraries. Teachers would also like to have more desks available to them as the student enrollment fluctuates. Because LAND Trust money can't be used for these items, Brian will look into other funds to see if the teachers can get bookshelves and desks.

With the potential carryover, it was discussed that we survey teachers for funds needed to help achieve SIP goals.

Community Council Training: Maude Beckman

All the training, Power Points and videos are online at <http://www.schoollandtrust.org/> website.

Maude went to: Data, I'm the Chair, So What Now

Liz: Digital Citizenship, Beyond the Requirements round-table

Digital Citizenship: Parents need to be informed of our technology use, firewalls, and have a welcoming process for students and parents to discuss uses with administration so breeches can be addressed.

Internet safety component to this requirement as well. NDJH – training is

It was suggested that we have a link for information on training, policies and uses posted on the website for parents to go to for more information.

Once final grades are in, any students that are credit deficient, will have intervention to help regain that credit. This is one of our school goals.

Department and Program Items:

Counseling Dept.: Johnny Caine, Counselor

They are tracking the students and have interventions ready for those who are credit deficient or struggling in classes.

We have 4 teachers that are paid for using their prep period to help students.

CCR's – appointments are happening now. We need to get parents to come in with their student for these meetings.

Norseman Pride: Mr. Ashton has handed out cards. These are recognition for students going above and beyond here at the school. On Friday's they students with cards can take a turn on the Plinko board to win prizes.

Survey of 8th graders: Helped us to identify different clubs or groups that the kids would want here at the school and identified 1st college students.

After School Program:

Jen Talbot – AP Geography/Gear Up Coordinator

Brian suggested that we invite Jen to CC to discuss the Gear Up program.

12th is Gear Up family night 6 pm.

18th: Family Night for after school program @ 6pm. There will be a Thanksgiving dinner served.

Library:

Literacy night is November 17th at Clearfield High School with James Dashner.

Other Items: Maude Beckman, CC Chair

A group came to the elementary school. They were called Fight the New Drug and they do free assemblies for Utah Schools. They have a grant from Zions Bank to cover these assemblies. Brian will talk with Bailee and see if we can schedule them in for an assembly or for a flex-time presentation.

Title 1 funds:

Significant portion go to 4 teachers, an Administrative Intern and a few TA's.

Agenda Items for next time

Invite Jenne Talbot to talk to CC about the Gear Up program.

Follow up on LAND Trusts needs and wants of teachers. Trisha Udy will send out a survey monkey for the teachers to fill out.
