

Application for Independent Study

An independent study may be arranged when a student wishes to receive academic credit for a subject not covered by a catalog course. Approval to take an independent study (see signatures below) must be granted by the end of the drop/add period of the semester in which the student plans to take the course. The following conditions apply:

- The student must have a cumulative GPA of 2.00
- A student may ordinarily take no more than one three-hour independent study per semester
- A student may not take more than nine hours of independent study over the course of his/her studies without approval from the Academic Appeals Committee. (Please see the catalog for further details)
