

Transition Fair - January 2016

Table Number	Name	Description	Disabilities Served	Areas of Transition Addressed (ED= Education; EMP= Employment; IL= Independent Living)
11	Aggies Elevated	Aggies Elevated is an inclusive post-secondary education program for students with intellectual disabilities based on the campus of Utah State University. Students live on campus and participate in an inclusive two-year college experience designed to increase independence.	This program is geared toward students age 18-26, with intellectual disabilities who would not typically meet the admission requirements for USU.	ED
39	Allies with Families	Allies with Families informs and supports families who have children with mental health challenges. We have programs that support each member of the family.	We serve families who have any type of mental health diagnosis - everything from ADHD to Bipolar Disorder and everything in between.
40	Assist, Inc. Community Design Center	Assist, Inc. provides assessment and design options for accessibility modifications to homes and features for new homes.	Modifications for physical disabilities	IL
38	Autism Council of Utah	The Autism Council of Utah is an independent council working to foster collaboration, communication, and learning among families and agencies. Our aim is to promote access to resources and responsible information for individuals of all ages who have, or are affected by autism or related conditions.	Autism
18	Autism Spectrum Disorder Clinic &amp; Neurobehavior Home Program	We provide medical and mental health services to people (children and adults) with ID (home) and testing, therapy, groups, and early intervention (ASCD).	Intellectual disability, Autism, TBI, mental health conditions of all kinds

Transition Fair - January 2015

26	Canine Companions for Independence	Canine Companions for Independence is a non-profit organization that enhances the lives of people with disabilities by providing highly trained assistance dogs and ongoing support to ensure quality partnerships. These dogs are given free of charge to qualified individuals. We train four types of assistance dogs: Service Dogs assist adults with physical disabilities by performing daily tasks; Hearing Dogs alert the deaf and hard of hearing to important sounds; Facility Dogs work with a professional in a visitation, education, or health care setting; and Skilled Companions enhance independence for children and adults with physical, cognitive, and developmental disabilities.	Deaf and hard of hearing, physical, cognitive, and developmental disabilities.	IL
24	CHADD of Utah	CHADD of Davis County offers Parent Support Groups that meet the first Thursday of every month at the Bountiful Community Church. We also teach a 7-week course, Parent-to-Parent Family Training on ADHD, three times during the school year. These classes are held in Farmington.	ADHD
14	Chrysalis	Chrysalis offers a wide range of services from around the clock supervision to environments with minimal staff involvement. The focus of Chrysalis is serving and supporting individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities to live a fulfilling life in the community.	Chrysalis provides a continuum of care from in-home intensive ABA services to children with Autism Spectrum Disorders to around-the-clock, one-on-one care in a Chrysalis home. Chrysalis disabilities as well as individual placement with families in a host home setting.	IL
8	Davis School District at Davis Applied Technology College (DATC)	Our staff is located at the Davis Applied Technology College Campus. We provide Special Education services to high school students from Davis School District and other school districts. Our goal is to support students who aim to succeed in a program at the DATC.	All mild to moderate disabilities.	ED

Transition Fair - January 2015

4	Davis Assistive Technology Teams - Davis School District	The Davis Assistive Technology Teams work students in Davis School District to provide assistive technology and services to students. We work with school teams to assess, provide equipment and support.	We serve students with all disabilities.	IL, EMP, ED
2	Davis School District Special Education Transition Planning Website	Transition planning is a focus on helping students transition from high school to real-life activities, such as employment, further education, and independent living. It is required by federal Special Education law. In Davis School District, transition planning on the IEP officially begins in 9th grade, but age-appropriate transition activities can be done by parents and teachers much earlier! Transition planning is done by the IEP team (including the parents/guardians) and should take into account the student's strengths, interests, preferences, and the family's cultural values. This website gives information and links to other sites to help students and their parents and teachers plan for their transition to life after school.	All disabilities
19	Department of Workforce Services	The Department of Workforce Services provides assistance with training or related expenses to individuals age 14 and up who are seeking high school diploma, GED, or post-secondary education. DWS administers the WIA (Workforce Investment Act).	DS can serve students with disabilities that may interfere with successful completion of a training program. WIA Youth program can offer one-on-one tutoring, mentoring and individual counseling.	ED, EMP
7	Disability Law Center	A non-profit organization providing legal help in disability discrimination in education, employment, abuse and neglect, housing, and voting.	all types of disabilities	IL, ED, EMP
32	Division of Services for the Blind and Visually Impaired - Utah State Office of Rehabilitation	The Division of Services for the Blind and Visually Impaired helps individuals that are either visually impaired or blind find or maintain employment.	We serve individuals that have visual impairments or are considered legally blind. These individuals may also have secondary disabilities	ED, EMP

Transition Fair - January 2015

33	Division of Services to the Deaf and Hard of Hearing	The Community Center for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing provides services such as case management, employment services, hard of hearing resources, assistive technology, and educational workshops	deaf, deaf-blind, and hard of hearing	EMP
22	Division of Services for People w/Disabilities	DSPD provides services to children and adults in the community including home services, employment and day services, and residential services, all to promote people leading self-determined lives.	DSPD serves people with intellectual disabilities and related conditions (autism, CP, severe epilepsy, etc.), ABI, physical disability.	IL, EMP
17	EnableUtah	EnableUtah aspires to create and enhance opportunities and independence for people with disabilities. We have a production program, enrichment program, after school, summer enrichment, supported employment, supported living, and behavior consultation services.	We provide services to individuals with physical disabilities, cognitive impairment, and mental illnesses. These include, but are not limited to, learning disabilities, intellectual disabilities, brain injuries, Prader Willie, Down Syndrome, various physical disabilities, depressive disorders, anxiety disorders, psychotic disorders, ADHD, Bipolar and personality disorders.	IL, EMP
23	Epilepsy Association of Utah	The mission of Epilepsy Association of Utah is to provide support services for people living with epilepsy, educate the community about epilepsy and assist in raising funds for research. The EAU provides the following services: Support Groups, Get Seizure Smart Training, Get Seizure Smart Epilepsy Education Conference, Continuing Education Scholarships, Awareness Events, Transportation Assistance Program, Medical Assistance Program, Artilepsy, Camp Neuro Revolution (ages 10-18), Youth Ambassador Program (ages 18-30), and Referral Services.	The EAU serves a diverse population of people, including a wide age group range, syndrome-specific disorders, multiple-disorder/disability services, including access to information in American Sign Language and, soon, Spanish.	IL

Transition Fair - January 2015

34	Guardianship Associates of Utah	Guardianship Associates of Utah (GAU) is a non-profit organization that works directly with the Office of Public Guardian to provides direct Guardianship, Conservator and Trust services to individuals who have been deemed by a court of law to be incapacitated, incompetent, or legally disabled.	all types of disabilities	guardianship
13	Medical Home Program - Children w/Special Health Care Needs	The Medical Home Program helps medical professionals improve services for children with disabilities and helps families better advocate for their children.	all types of disabilities	IL, ED, EMP
27	NAMI Davis County	NAMI Davis County's mission is to insure the dignity and improve the quality of life and health care for persons living in Davis County who are affected by mental illnesses and to improve the lives if their family members through support, education, advocacy, and understanding. All services are free. There is never a charge to participate in any NAMI education class, support group, mentoring, or to receive materials.	mental illnesses	IL
15	National Ability Center	The National Ability Center empowers individuals of all abilities by building self-esteem, confidence, and lifetime skills through sport, recreation, and educational programs.	All (developmental, physical, cognitive). Friends and family of participants are encouraged to join in as well.	EMP, IL
36	Ohana Center for Adults with Special Needs	Ohana is a day center where adults with special needs can socialize, develop, and maintain life skills. We focus on providing meaningful activities and nurturing relationships.	Intellectual, psychiatric, sensory (speech, ASL, Autism Spectrum Disorders) or a combination, with low to medium support needs.	ED
25	PARC	PARC provides employment opportunities, supports, and training to people with disabilities. These opportunities include employment opportunities in the community, on government contracts, and in the PARC facility.	All disabilities	EMP
37	Phoenix Services Corporation	We provide supported living services through DSPD or Private Pay, and employment services through Vocational Rehabilitation.	TBI and other similar disabilities	EMP, IL
45	Ross Family Autism Scholarship Fund	Provides scholarship money to graduating seniors who are going to post-secondary education, either college or technical school.	Autism Spectrum	ED

Transition Fair - January 2015

10	Salt Lake Community College - Disability Resource Center	The Disability Resource Center at SLCC provides accommodations for students with a documented disability under the ADA. We also facilitate an ongoing effort to make our campus/classrooms more universally accessible.	All	ED
44	ScenicView Academy	ScenicView Academy's mission is that by working together, we help individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorders and other learning disabilities gain skills that lead to interdependent and fulfilling lives by developing best methods and practices, for the benefit of "the one."	We serve adults with high functioning Autism, Autism Spectrum Disorders, and other learning disabilities that include: ADHD, Dyslexia, Dysgraphia, etc.	EMP, IL, ED
41	Social Security Administration	The Social Security Administration (SSA) provides retirement, disability, survivors benefits to qualified individuals. SSA also administers the Supplemental Security Income (SSI) program for disabled, blind and aged persons. This program is for low income people with disabilities.	SSA provides benefits for persons with all disabilities, mental and physical including ADHD, Autism, TBI, Learning Disabilities, etc.	EMP
42	TLG Residential Support	TLG Residential Support is a community-based, hands-on training program focused on helping young adult women with developmental/intellectual disabilities transition to living more independently. The home is drug-free, alcohol-free, and tobacco-free, and is located in a well-established, close-knit community with access to amenities and public transportation.	Young adult women with moderate to severe developmental/intellectual disabilities. Our vision is to teach self-sufficiency through gardening, meal preparation, healthy living, recreation, animal care, grocery shopping, budgeting, etc.	IL
16	TURN Community Services	TURN Community Services provides opportunities for growth in social/recreational settings as well as in their home (group home, apartment program, or their own place).	All developmental disabilities - Down Syndrome	IL, EMP

Transition Fair - January 2015

28	United Way 2-1-1	2-1-1 is the three-digit telephone number designated by the Federal Communications Commission in 2000 to provide widespread public access to community information and referral services. It connects callers with the specific public sector agencies and non-profit organizations for the wide variety of services they need. It connects callers with volunteer opportunities in order for people to volunteer their time, talent, and energy in response to community needs.	We offer referrals for services related to virtually all forms of disability	IL
35	Utah Advocacy Network, LLC	Utah Advocacy Network, LLC, Assisted Living is an intermediate care facility for people with intellectual disabilities. We are approved for 12-16 residents.	Intellectual disabilities, Autism, brain injury, and related conditions.	IL
6	Utah Assistive Technology Program	The Utah Assistive Technology Program (UATP) gets assistive technology into the hands of people who need it. Our goal is to help people use technology to be more independent in education, employment, and community settings. UATP provides training, finance options, and fabrication services to help transition students obtain and utilize assistive technology.	We serve all disabilities, all ages.	ED, IL
43	Utah Behavior Services	We're a comprehensive Behavioral Health care clinic for children, adolescents, adults and families. We offer group, family, and individual therapy. Group behavior management, social skills, and parent training. Services are offered in day treatment, after school programs.	We serve children ages 0-11, adolescents 12-17, adults 18+ with autism, learning disorders/delays, ADHD, Down Syndrome, hearing loss, mood/anxiety disorders, depression, schizophrenia, and other mental health concerns. We also provide parenting/care-giver education, and family support.	IL

Transition Fair - January 2015

5	Utah Center for Assistive Technology (UCAT)	The Utah Center for Assistive Technology is a statewide resource offering information and technical services to help people with disabilities acquire and use assistive technology devices. Our services are available to all persons with disabilities, parents and other family caregivers, rehabilitation counselors, independent living specialists, special educators and others who are concerned with or advocate for people with disabilities.	We are able to work with people with all disabilities and all ages in areas including educational technology, augmentative communication, computer assessment, home and car accommodations and more.	ED, EMP, IL
29	Utah Family Voices	Utah Family Voices provides support, navigation, and resource coordination to help families of children/youth with special health care needs. We assist in navigating the systems of care specializing in identifying funding, family support, and health care/medical needs.	All types of disabilities	IL, EMP
38	Utah MAKs (Moms of Autistic Kids)	Big MAKs is a group of "Moms with Autistic Kids" who rally around each other for encouragement and laughter. MAKs is not a support group - but you will find support from others who "get it." After all - we're only as strong as our hair spray, our Diet Coke, and our friends.	autism
1	Utah Parent Center	The Utah Parent Center is a parent training and information service. We provide information about disability related services including IEP &amp; 504 plans, &amp; agencies and service providers. We serve the state of Utah providing our services at no cost to parents. Roz Welch is the Parent Consultant serving families that have students enrolled in Davis School District.	We serve all disabilities and ages birth to young adults up to 26 years old.	IL, ED, EMP
30	Utah State Office of Rehabilitation - Bountiful	To assist and empower eligible individuals with disabilities to achieve and maintain meaningful employment through: Informed choice, quality staff services, counseling and guidance, reducing disability related barriers, effective use of resources, partnerships with consumers and community.	All	EMP, ED, IL
31	Utah State Office of Rehabilitation - Layton	We offer Transition Services to eligible students with disabilities as they transition from school to adult life. Our goal is to provide a smooth transition, holistic team approach, and services that are necessary and reasonable to help prepare for, obtain, and maintain employment	Any disability that may cause potential difficulties related to employment.	EMP, ED, IL

Transition Fair - January 2015

12	Utah State University Transition Specialist Masters Program	The USU Department of Special Education and Rehabilitation is now recruiting licensed special education teachers interested in a masters degree program in Transition Specialty, Low Incidence (Severe) Disabilities.	This program is geared toward recruiting licensed special education teachers who are interested in pursuing a masters degree program at USU, in Transition Specialty, Low Incidence (Severe) Disabilities.
20	Utah Work Incentive Planning Services	We educate Social Security Disability recipients on how work affects their various disability benefits, including SSDI, SSI, Medicare, Medicaid, food stamps, Housing Authority vouchers, DSPD waivers, etc.	All disabilities - must be receiving a disability benefit from Social Security.	EMP
3	Vista Education Campus Post-High Programs	The Vista Education Campus (VEC) provides services to post-high school students who are eligible for special education, and need to earn credit toward graduation requirements, require transition instruction and supports, or both.	We serve students who are eligible for special education services under IDEA and state rules, which includes but is not limited to autism, emotional disturbances, intellectual disabilities, other health impairments, and specific learning disabilities.	IL, ED, EMP
9	Weber State University Services for Students with Disabilities	WSU Services for Students with Disabilities (SSD) provides access and accommodations for students attending university functions, activities, and programs. SSD insures WSU's compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act and other applicable guidelines and regulations under state and federal law associated with access for students with disabilities.	All individuals with disabilities	ED
21	Work Ability Utah	Work Ability Utah provides information and referral for a broad spectrum of services, state, and federal as well as local , state and national organizations. A full website and print materials are available for individuals and families seeking to navigate systems for transition to adult living. Topics include going to work, education and training, social security, health care, housing, recreation, and more. Workshops are frequently conducted and open to the public on these and many other topics.	All disabilities	IL, ED, EMP