Minutes

In Attendance: John Tobin, Peggy Stout, Richard Stout, Rob Hunter, Dave Phillips, Michelle Fillion, Kellianne Holt, Carin Ericksen, Kareen Patterson, Deanne Kapetanov, Lisa Gibson.

John Tobin – welcomed everyone, turned time over to Deanne

Deanne: overview of budget and land trust money, school goals for 2016-2017 school year, proficiency levels and growth percentiles in language arts, math, and science.

Kareen Patterson – overview of language arts strategies used last year that lead to increase in language arts scores.

John Tobin – mentioned that for goal 3 the community council last year, early in the year, determined that 4 formative common assessments were too many and had all agreed that the that goal would probably not be reached.

John Tobin – discussion of community council district training encouraged members to attend

Deanne – current budget update

Discussion of use of parent during panther time. Discussed the various possible needs of teachers, the willingness of parents to volunteer. Determined that the principal would move forward with surveying teachers about needs during panther time.

Rob Hunter – discussion of teacher websites, inconsistency, where do students and parents go to find assignments or know what is going in the class.

David Phillips – voiced concerns with the amount of time required to manage a website with calendar and assignments etc. Also the move of the district toward Canvas

Lisa Gibson – canvas does not work well for math

Richard Stout – what is the minimum requirement for teachers? What do we really want online and how do we want to address it to teachers.

Determined that we would continue our discussion at the next meeting due to time restraints.

John Tobin – suggested to wrap up meeting

PTO update (Peggy Stout) – doing good

Counseling update (Claire Cassity) – in the middle of 8th grade CCR's Preparing for state review on January 26th.

Deanne – building updates, department chairs determined that moving at the semester break instead of over Christmas break makes more sense. Council seemed to agree. Construction is still on schedule.

Rob - call to adjourn, David - Second

Unanimously voted to adjourn.
