

Morning Broadcast Script

Each short morning broadcast will be a maximum of five minutes long and has the following structure:

Good Morning Ironton Stallions and welcome to the News @ Ninish.

Today is _____, _____, and it is Day ____.

We have a few announcements to help you prepare for your day.

The weather today will be

_____. The temperature will be _____ degrees. Looks like recess is outside/up to Mrs. Smith.

Weather Trivia:

Lunch today is:

We have _____ birthdays to celebrate today. They are

Here are a few announcements from our teachers:

Resource Links:

The weather today:

<http://kidsweatherreport.com/>

<http://www.weather.com/weather/right-now/Coplay+PA+18037>

Weather Trivia:

<http://www.weatherwizkids.com/>

Lunch: (Check the Monthly Menu Planner hanging on the wall)

Birthdays: (Check the list of birthday hanging on the wall)

Check for announcement emails and memos to add to this session.

And now for local sports:

Upcoming Events and schedule:

Elementary Age Local Community Highlights:

On this day is history: on September 10th _____,

A Quote for the Day!

Your reporters today are _____ and _____

Tune in tomorrow and every day at 8:55 for our News @ Ninish Morning Announcements.

Have a _____ day!

Resource Links:

The Local Sports:

Upcoming Events and schedule:
<http://www.usatodayhss.com/school/parkland-high-school-allentown-pa/scores-and-schedule>

Local Community Highlights:
Elementary Age teams and games:

<http://www.mcall.com/sports/>

Today in History:

<http://www.factmonster.com/dayinhistory> and pick one.

Closing Quotes:

http://www.activityvillage.co.uk/quotes_for_kids.htm

<http://www.allbestmessages.com/quotes/motivational-quotes/Motivational-Quotes-For-Kids.php>

Use the Thesaurus to find new creative words to replace overused and uninteresting words in the closing lines of the broadcast.