MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

We are continually blessed by your selfless kindness, living the St. Ignatius prayer for generosity:

“Teach us to give and not to count the cost.”

Dear Alumni, Parents and Friends of Fairfield Prep,

The Quad is glistening with a foot of fresh snow, and during Christmastime we renamed this center of the Prep campus at the annual Tree Lighting. The Quad was re-dedicated in the name of Father Walter Pelletier, S.J., '47, who is a beloved, former Prep faculty and staff member. Fr. “Pell” attended the ceremony, blessing and lighting the tree, to commence the Advent Season. With the anticipation of Christmas filling the halls in creative decorations, the Prep Community embraced the season with an Advent Mass and the annual toy drive to help families in need.

Our first semester was action-packed. We began the school year with the Mass of the Holy Spirit, honoring Jerry Hemenway '61 and Ed Krygier '60 with the St. Ignatius of Loyola Alumni Award, and recognizing their service to our community and international world with compassionate volunteerism (see nomination information below). At our Thanksgiving Assembly we heard inspiring speeches from staff, students and Michael Maggiore '00, who shared his story of survival. In sports, Football Coach of the Year Tom Shea '73 led the Jesuits team to the Class LL State Championship game for the first time in 25 years. Individual athletes excelled as well, with Cross Country's Christian Alvarado '14 breaking school and state records, and many young men earning the privilege to play sports at top colleges and universities.

We also enjoyed entertaining performances in drama and by our expanding music program. We witnessed our young men grow spiritually through many opportunities for service and immersion in communities near and far, plus deepen their faith through retreats and Christian leadership programs. Our extracurricular clubs continue to offer many students a wonderful outlet to develop knowledge, passion and friendships. This issue is filled with stories of achievement and profound reflections, all of which help define the “Prep Experience.”

Finally, our Annual Report confirms the gracious generosity of our large Prep family and how individuals like you help to sustain Fairfield Prep and its important role in our young men's lives. Your commitment to our Jesuit, Catholic mission makes it possible for us to award over $2 million in financial aid annually to help our families make a Prep education possible for their sons. We are continually blessed by your selfless kindness, living the St. Ignatius prayer for generosity: “Teach us to give and not to count the cost.”

May God bless you and your loved ones in this promising New Year.

Sincerely,

Rev. John J. Hanwell, S.J.

We Never Say Die!

FOOTBALL IS CLASS LL STATE RUNNER-UP

There was a lot of excitement about Prep football this past fall; on the field, in school and with fans and alumni. There was the Class LL Championship that we wondered if it would ever be played. There was the exciting offense that scored a school record 491 points and the ferocious defense that held opponents to less than 100 yards rushing nine times. There was the team's success: Class LL finalists, SCC Division I West Champions and a #6 ranking in the final statewide poll.

But wins and stats only tell a part of the story. The groundwork for this year's success started four years ago. The transition from the winning seasons under Rich Magdon gave way to a disastrous 0-10 season. Spirits were broken, a new head coach was hired and a new program was born. Despite a bad season, players and their families trusted in the Prep tradition and chose to come here to be a part of something new.

Winning takes physical and mental toughness, dedication and commitment, and after a sterling 8-2 freshman season, the class of 2014 found out just what that meant. For three years they built their bodies lifting weights throughout the year and built their skills in off-season passing leagues and at football camps at BC and Yale. They faced and overcame adversity and won five games as sophomores and six as juniors. As they grew as players and men, they experienced the real joy of football; they came together as a team.

By August they felt they were ready to do something special, even in the face of arguably the most challenging schedule Prep has ever played. It wasn't easy. There was a last second loss to St. Joseph and disheartening defeat by Hand. In each of those games Prep put itself into a big hole, but came roaring back. After Hand it was play-off football; one loss and the play-off dream was over. With their backs against the wall, they won seven in a row. Their spirits and their confidence in themselves and each other never wavered for an instant and they never quit. On Thanksgiving they overcame a 20-2 halftime deficit and came back to win 29-20 to earn their place in the play-offs. Like the fight song says "...we never say die." This team will be long remembered for their never say die spirit.

Soccer boasts winning season

The Prep Varsity Soccer Team enjoyed another successful season under Coach Ryan Lyddy '93. Coming off of a 2012 season that saw the Jesuits reach the state final for the first time in school history, the team lost eleven seniors to graduation that left many holes to fill. Despite that, younger players stepped up and continued the strong soccer tradition of Fairfield Prep and finished the season with a 9-7-3 record and appearances in the SCC Conference Tournament and CIAC LL State Tournament.

The Jesuits began the season with an out of conference victory at Newtown, led by goalkeeper Daniel Szabo '17. The freshman keeper made his first varsity appearance and made critical saves for the team as they started off the year on a positive note. After a second win against Daniel Hand, the Jesuits traveled to St. Anthony's on Long Island where they pushed the eventual New York State Champions to their limit before losing 2-1. Prep ran off three victories in the last week of September, topped off by a 3-0 victory at Branford with goals by Christian Backe '14 and Stephen Tortora '14, scoring on a free kick from 25 yards out. Goalkeeper Robbie MacKay '17 earned a shutout during this stretch leading a strong defensive effort by Tortora, Austin Sims '14, Simon Whiteman '15, Pat Hess '15 and Stephen Sappo '14. After a hard fought 1-0 loss to rival Xavier, the Jesuits rebounded with two consecutive shutouts by Mike Meszaros '16 and a 75th minute goal by Jack Oricoli '16 to defeat West Haven 1-0. In the season finale, the midfield play of Travis Cantu '14, Mike Infante '15, Chris Montani '15, Zack Guerrero '16 and Matt Crowe '15 helped Oricoli score two goals as the team defeated Shelton 2-1.

After losing to Xavier in the first round of the SCC Tournament, the Jesuits drew New Milford High School in the first round of the CIAC LL State Tournament for the second year in a row. After surrendering an early goal, Sims and Tortora allowed New Milford few chances for the rest of the game. Late in the second half, Jimmy Colihan '15 scored off a cross from Tortora to tie the game and send it to overtime. Halfway through the second overtime, Colihan struck again, turning around from 30 yards out and placing the ball perfectly in the top right corner of the net to lead the Jesuits to a 2-1 victory. In the second round, the Jesuits encountered an undefeated Greenwich team and ended their season with a 4-0 loss.

The team was led throughout the season by seniors Tucker Gavey '14, Spencer Bebon '14 and Colin Lomnitzer '14. Gavey was awarded with the Coaches Award, and Oricoli took home the Most Improved Player Award. Sims and Tortora, both four-year starters and contributors, shared the team's Most Outstanding Player Award in addition to being named to the SCC All-Conference Team. Both of these players, forwards for their first three years at Prep, unselfishly switched positions to defenders to give the squad an experienced and seasoned backline.

Fall 2013 Crew Highlights

Nearly 80 athletes came out for Fairfield Prep Crew's Fall 2013 season. The season began with a home race against Fordham Prep and the Brunswick School with the freshmen having the most success against the strong local crews. As is often the case in the fall, rain found us for our next event in Hartford at the Head of the Riverfront, but the rowers braved the elements and raced well. For the second year in a row Prep Crew was lucky enough to win a bid to race the Head of the Charles in Boston, and as always the racing was incredibly fast. The fall season came to a close on the Schuylkill River in Philadelphia with the team having their best overall showing all year; always best to end on a high note! This spring the team will be joining the New England Interscholastic Rowing Association and we look forward to racing against some of the oldest and best teams in the country.

Jesuits crush the competition

Prep Cross Country continued its success this year with an undefeated dual meet season (10-0) and the Southern Connecticut Conference Championship. Led by senior captains Christian Alvarado, Alec Hilton, and James Mulliken the team was joined by seniors Matt Scholl and first year cross country runner Adam Vare. Over the last four years the team has a 37-1 dual meet record, numerous invitational meet victories, and two state championships in 2011. Juniors Andy Thane, Paul Cashman, and Jack McGowen were joined by sophomores George Crist and Jack O'Connor in rounding out the varsity squad.

Christian Alvarado received national attention this season and won the SCC, Class LL, and State Open Championships. He was undefeated in Connecticut competition and advanced to the New Englands (4th), the Northeast Regional (2nd), and Nationals (20th). Hilton and Mulliken were 1st team SCC and Thane and Vare were 2nd team SCC. The top three are all headed to a collegiate running career (Alvarado to Georgetown, Mulliken to Middlebury, and Hilton to Holy Cross). Next year's captains have big shoes to fill, but the team will return Thane, Cashman, Crist, McGowen, and Matt Rusin to carry on the winning tradition.

Notre Dame Vision

For the past six summers Fairfield Prep has brought students to the University of Notre Dame to participate in a program called ND Vision. In 2013 we brought our biggest group yet – 40 students! At this summer conference our students are able to explore their faith and prayer life. They participate in small group discussions, listen to witness talks given by University of Notre Dame students, and hear from guest speakers. Quoting from the Notre Dame Vision informational material, “Notre Dame Vision is committed to helping young people recognize God’s call in their lives and respond to that call with courage and faith.” The following quotes are excerpts from student reflections on the conference.

My experience was amazing. I felt completely changed in the presence of God through the speakers, small groups, Mass and Reconciliation. I feel like a new person. I know I am now ready to lead my Prep brothers in their spiritual development after going through my own at Notre Dame.

One time that I experienced God’s presence was during Stephanie’s talk. She told us to put our head in our hands, close our eyes, admit what was holding us back, and then throw it down for God to take it from us. I felt goose bumps as God guided me and removed my pain. We were then instructed to stand when we were ready and to pray to God for help on our journey. That was a moment when I was in the presence of God.

I rate this experience a 10 out of 10. This trip has changed me forever. Everything about it was fantastic. I learned so much about myself and I feel that my faith is much stronger – although I have much more to learn. ND Vision has shown me the path to follow in terms of my faith.

I had a great time on the Notre Dame Vision trip. I met new people from different states and I got to know my Prep brothers better. The friends I made at Notre Dame will last for years.

Freshman Rally Day

This October event gave the freshman class a preview of the Freshman Retreat which takes place in March each year. Rally Day is an opportunity for the freshman class to get to know each other better so they can form bonds of friendship and brotherhood. It is also an opportunity for the freshmen to get to know their senior and junior retreat leaders.

Kairos Turns 50

In November Kairos celebrated its 50th retreat at Prep. Starting in February 1996, it continues to grow in popularity. Kairos is a Greek word meaning quality or meaningful time with God. It is an experience of Christian community, prayer, sacraments, involvement in discussions and other exercises. Kairos is a three-and-one-half day retreat grounded in our Christian belief that God is very much a part of our real world, especially through the continuing presence of Jesus Christ.

Mustard Seed Immersion Trip
-- REFLECTION --

The Mustard Seed Immersion Trip to Jamaica exposed me to a new culture, country, friends, food, and diversity. I shared many prized experiences with my Prep brothers at the Blessed Assurance Community. Throughout the trip I struggled and prevailed. As a group, we learned many things about ourselves and others. I was presented with many opportunities to grow in relationship with God, myself, and others.

In Jamaica we did indeed struggle. As a group we struggled to ration our food. We acknowledged that most of the food was not equally distributed. For the first two days the food on the table disappeared within minutes. After a few days of work and reflection there seemed to be more food being given to us — but this was not the case. We were now equally rationing every piece of chicken, every scoop of rice, and every glass of mango juice.

We acted with the true values of Prep brotherhood. We learned to share a meal and to open up and reflect on our day. Through reflection we corrected our faults.

Since the trip, I eat every meal knowing that someone in Jamaica or around the world would be thankful to eat even half of my meal. Now I try my best to not waste food. Being in solidarity with those less fortunate has truly helped me enjoy the things in my life that I took for granted.

We learned to work as a team, fail as a team, and succeed as a team. One of our challenges included painting the girls dorm in two days. My group included Wiig, Roche, Reilly, Foley, and Mr. Sacerdote. There were many factors which impeded our task. The dorm was relatively small and it was very hard to maneuver in between the beds and furniture. We also learned we did not know how to paint!

Thomas Wiig and I were throwing paint on the walls and the end result was not pretty. A Blessed Assurance staff member named Norman passed by and was not impressed. He demonstrated how to paint correctly. Thomas and I ended up finishing our half of the room in one day. The next day we received help from Ryan Foley who painted the high points in the dorm. The job was completed within the deadline.

One individual moment in Jamaica has immensely affected my understanding and relationship with God. This experience took place at the hermitage in the Jacob's Ladder Community. Brother Anthony was looking forward to building an altar. He needed us to move a huge boulder to the middle of his property. Five of my Prep brothers struggled to move it for several minutes but it would not budge an inch.

As we fought to lift the rock, Brother Anthony exclaimed his sorrow to God. He looked up to the sky and said we did not ask for God's enriching strength. He led us in prayer to ask God for forgiveness and to help us achieve our task at hand. Immediately after the prayer, we confronted the rock with a new strategy. We were able to move the huge boulder by using smaller rocks as levers. Within two minutes the rock was in place.

This amazed me. God validated to me that if we ask for help in accordance with His will, we shall receive. I learned that working in God's name not only completes the task, but does it quickly and effortlessly. At times during the school year, I experience hardships and I get frustrated. In the future I plan to approach difficult tasks with the same Godly determination through prayer. When I fail to comprehend, I plan to seek God's wisdom and understanding.

Working with the children at the Blessed Assurance Community gave me opportunities to grow in solidarity with others. At first, communicating with the children was difficult. All of them are mentally disabled and most are wheelchair bound. It was difficult to cross this barrier. I was uncomfortable but after a few a hours I felt at home.

One of the daily tasks was feeding the children. I had the privilege of feeding an eight-year-old girl named Mary who was a very slow eater. It took about 20 minutes for Mary to consume just half of her lunch. I became a little aggravated. I asked myself, "Why would God create someone who could not walk or feed herself?" I came to the realization that Mary was teaching me patience, acceptance and compassion. This experience was inspiring me to want to help the poor, sick and less fortunate.

I enjoyed every moment in Jamaica, whether it was painting, serving, or simply being with my Prep brothers. The trip helped me root my faith in unity, brotherhood, solidarity, thoughtfulness, and understanding.

I have learned that I have a gift for communicating with mentally disabled children. I look forward to going back to Jamaica as a Leader and to deepening my relationship with God.

make mission matter

Fr. Larry Ryan, S.J., reflects on his year-long sabbatical leave

The trip of a lifetime

Travel has been a fascination of mine since childhood. I often dreamed of traveling to far-away places and seeking new horizons. In many ways I was drawn to join the Jesuits because of Saint Ignatius, our founder, who saw the world as filled with opportunity to both help bring God's word to all people and so find God in all places, people and things. This past year, with the freedom a sabbatical leave gave me, I was able to travel afar and both see many of the wonders, joys, beauty, diversity, triumphs of this world as well as its many tragedies, injustices, poverty, prejudices and horrors that continue to abound everywhere.

My sabbatical year began in late August when I flew from NYC to Dublin, Ireland where I was hosted by an American Jesuit Father Joseph Palmisano, S.J. '93 who was at the time pursuing post-doctoral studies at Dublin. Joseph was my student in the theology class at Prep and then my friend through his college years and ultimately a fellow Jesuit companion. Joe was a grand host showing me the old and the new Dublin and Ireland.

So much had changed in my years away after tertian studies in County Offaly in the 1980s. What was most impressive was the extraordinary decrease in the rival clashes between Protestants and Catholics. Joe and I were in Belfast during the "marching season" when sectarian clashes were at their peak – and what a wonderment to be safe in what has so long been a most bloody and fractious place. Barricades were gone – children walked the streets.

September 1st my Irish reunion ended and I took flight to what would be my first semester home in Israel. For the next four months I and 17 other middle-aged students from various countries would be studying and living primarily in Jerusalem at the Tantar Ecumenical Institute. Our group bonded and connected early – and what a great experience it was. Much time was spent reading, listening to lectures, onsite visits to excavations, churches, synagogues, the Galilee, the Red Sea, the Sinai, and parts of Jordan.

We were there at a parlous time – but then when is the Middle-East not parlous? We witnessed Hamas rockets falling on Jerusalem, tear-gassing at the Old City gates, riots and police brutality.

Perhaps that world is not much different from the one on which Jesus walked – where military and force of arms are everywhere.

But despite it all, Kathy and Bob Russo '65, P'92, '03 (such wonderful friends to all of Prep) made a pilgrimage to the Holy Land and were welcome and generous guests. How good it felt to be with wonderful friends from home.

The crowning jewel of my time in the Middle East was the celebration of Christmas at the Church of the Nativity. It was profound, magnificent, inspiring, otherworldly, unified by the use of many languages and so glorious to be sitting with my Jesuit brothers. It was bittersweet to leave that land that is called HOLY.

Next I traveled to Rome – a city I love and that has captured my heart from that first day I entered Latin class as a thirteen year old.

I lived at our Jesuit house conveniently located next to the Vatican. While there I was able to spend time with Jesuit colleagues from around the world and even to personally meet with Fr. Nicholas our Superior General.

Another special treat was meeting and dining with the Altieri family of Fairfield who were there visiting with my former student Chris Altieri '95. When one is far from home for a long time, it is a gift to be side by side in the company of old friends.

To welcome in the New Year I was in St. Peter's square to receive the final New Year Papal Blessing of Benedict XVI – a joyous way to open the new year. By mid-month I headed north to Innsbruck Austria where I met a former Prep teacher and Jesuit friend Fr. Ron Perry, S.J. The train ride was magnificent and the world was bathed in fresh white snow. We even managed to take some exercise in those magnificent mountains.

With winter break over, Fr. Perry returned to Boston and I took flight to begin second semester at the Jesuit Theology College in Melbourne Australia.

I left the snow of the Alps and arrived in a land of

brilliant sun, long days and short nights in the southern hemisphere. The natural beauty of Australia whether in the tropic north, its great sea coasts, its wild hinterland, its vast deserts or its great cities marks it as place of great diversity. Australia is a warm and welcoming place and our Jesuit home there even more so. Jesuit students who study there come from Australia, New Zealand, the Philippines, Korea, Vietnam, East Timor, Indonesia, etc. The Jesuit community there was extraordinary and inspiring in its spirit, its hospitality, its zeal, its brotherhood and its life of prayer.

My time at JTC gave me the opportunity to study aspects of Canon Law under the tutelage of Father Geoff King who had a significant and instrumental role in writing the new code.

The highlight of the year was my two weeks in New Zealand. It is other-worldly in so many ways: its natural beauty, the generosity of its people, the diversity of landscape – it is a place that is without description – it must be seen to be believed.

And so I am thankful, for so many reasons. I know that this past year will always remain as a remembrance of the goodness, beauty, generosity, grace and love that God has given to his world, to me and to all who open themselves to his love and grace.

Fr. Larry Ryan, S.J., student chaplain, is in his 30th year of service at Prep

Thanksgiving

“I’ll gladly pay you Tuesday for a burger today.” — J. WELLINGTON WIMPY

Taken from a speech by Tyrone Fleurizard '14 given at the Thanksgiving Assembly on November 26, 2013

One of my favorite childhood cartoons has to be Popeye the Sailor Man. It was also my mother’s because it was the only way I was ever going to eat my spinach. There was a character that came to my mind when thinking about this Thanksgiving season — J. Wellington Wimpy. He was a cumbersome man who was always in search for food. His famous line was, “I’ll gladly pay you Tuesday for a burger today.” But for Wimpy, Tuesday never came. He was very conscious of the fact that he was in debt and had the audacity to go back and ask for more. And the interesting thing about all this is that no matter what, Wimpy always got his burger.

We all innately possess the same characteristics as Wimpy: We beg and plead for God’s love and gifts, but when it comes time to repay Him we have nothing to say for ourselves, except excuses. Yet, despite how shameful we may feel, we return to God and ask for more and because He is the almighty Father who wants nothing more than for us to love Him. As his beloved creations, we always get his love and gifts. We devour them, digest them and crave for more. We’ve grown so accustomed to these ungrateful ways that it has become habitual to receive and not to return, essentially staining the definition of a true Christian. So this Thanksgiving season I challenge you to not ask for anything but instead to give. Give because being grateful helps one to see more blessings. If for you that means giving a little extra when tithing, spending time in a soup kitchen or with the elderly, taking the clothes off of your back to give to the homeless—do so because not only is God with us if we are with the less fortunate, but because living with a spirit of thanksgiving will ensure happiness and satisfaction.

So in honor of Wimpy and this Thanksgiving season we pray:

Dear Heavenly Father,

We come to you today in the realization that we only call to you in search of respite from turmoil. That we sometimes almost never, give thanks for what you have done and the sacrifices you have made. So here we are today, oh Lord, arms wide open to say thank you. Thank you for giving us your unconditional love—thank you for all of the gifts you give through your grace—thank you for your guidance and instruction as well as your righteousness and holiness. For without them, we are left weaponless on the battlefield with nowhere to turn. Teach us, oh Lord, to be patient for if we listen hard enough there is sweet melody in what seems to be echoes of silence while we pray. And I ask you Father, if you do nothing else please allow us to see the importance of giving thanks not only because when we reach to help someone else we are building strength and courage, but most importantly because you are more than worthy of it. In your mighty name we pray. — Amen.

Honoring decades of service

Fairfield Prep’s annual Thanksgiving Assembly and Prayer Service took place on Tuesday, November 26, in Alumni Hall. This year’s theme was “In Thanksgiving for God’s Love and Gifts.” The school community was treated to thoughtful reflections, inspiring prayer, and beautiful music by our liturgical choir thanks to Mrs. Evans, Mr. Cashman, and the faculty and students who sang and played during the service. Fr. Hanwell, S.J., honored faculty and staff for their dedicated service to Fairfield Prep. These included Fr. Bill Eagan, S.J., and John Hanrahan for 30 years of service; Bob Ford, Jr. for 35 years of service; and Billie Brooks and Maureen Bohan for 40 years of service.

Pictured with Fr. John Hanwell, S.J., President and Dr. Robert Perrotta, Principal, educators were honored for many years of service to Fairfield Prep, from left: Bob Ford Jr. (35 yrs); John Hanrahan (30 yrs); Fr. ...and thank you Lord for football!

On a holiday to celebrate giving thanks, the Fairfield Prep Jesuits had a reason to be grateful - Colton Smith was on their side. The junior quarterback sliced up the West Haven defense for 297 yards on 32 carries, leading Prep back from an 18-point deficit and on to the postseason for the first time since 2006 with a 29-20 victory over rival West Haven at Alumni Field. The Prep fans filled the stands and showed their Prep Pride!

A sports-ending injury leads to transformation

Taken from a speech by Austin Barrett '14 given at the Thanksgiving Assembly on November 26, 2013

I found out I needed major knee surgery that would eliminate junior year sports for good. I was obviously stunned and didn't know where to turn; football was my passion and my main activity in high school. What was I going to do with myself now?

Looking back, I can now say that my knee surgery was the greatest blessing in disguise. Removing sports from my life forced me to explore other activities that I would have never considered. I began attending a high school youth group named Fusion, where I began to grow in my faith as a Christian. I became a leader in the 900 Project, which is a group of students raising funds to build latrines for 900 families in Haiti. I was then able to serve on a ten-day mission trip to the Dominican Republic. And most importantly, the knee injury led me to Camp Spofford, New Hampshire, on a leader's retreat, where I encountered the Holy Spirit for the first time and was saved in Jesus Christ.

Over the past two years of my life, God has taken the plans I had made for my life and completely flipped them on their head, and I couldn't be any happier. God had to remove the aspect of my life that I thought was my greatest strength to show me that it was actually my biggest hindrance.

Two years ago, I lived a life of little significance, in pursuit of meaningless goals, and it's because I wasn't living for Him. I'm so thankful that God rescued me from the kid I was and has used me in ways that I never thought possible. But most of all this Thanksgiving, I'm thankful for how God will work in each of our lives if we decide to trust Him.

Over 100 members of the Prep Community (students, alumni, faculty, and parents) ran in the annual Pequot Runners Thanksgiving Day 5 Mile Race. The top two alumni finishers were Michael Whelan '12 (right) and Brendan Terry '12. For more information on this annual Prep event, contact the Alumni and Development office.

CHRISTMAS CLOSE-UPS

Tree Lighting and Quad Dedication

On Sunday, December 8, Fairfield Prep celebrated its annual Advent Mass and Tree Lighting. Over 200 people attended this great family event. Fr. Hanwell, S.J., re-dedicated the Fairfield Prep Quad for Fr. Walter Pelletier, S.J. '47, who was a long time faculty and staff member (pictured above). Fr. "Pell" then did the honor of blessing and lighting the Christmas Tree. The placard read: "Fairfield Prep is pleased to dedicate a prominent campus landmark in honor of Rev. Walter R. Pelletier, S.J. Father Pelletier, who graduated from Prep in 1947, worked diligently for many years in service to our school as a teacher and an administrator." At the reception in the cafeteria, the Fairfield Prep Encords performed under the direction of Mrs. Christine Evans.

Bringing Christmas to Children in Need!

Prep wins Holiday Classic Tournament

Led by an aggressive and stifling defensive effort from the start, Prep jumped out to a 25-8 lead and cruised to the 83-52 victory over the Notre Dame Fairfield Lancers to win the Fairfield Holiday Tournament for the second year in a row at Alumni Hall. The Jesuits went on to beat Hillhouse 72-62 on January 4, and are currently undefeated, with high hopes for the state playoffs. Go Prep!

Festival of the Floors is festive fun

Sims and Johnson to play college lacrosse

Austin Sims has earned the distinction of playing both soccer and lacrosse at varsity level for all of his four years at Prep and has chosen to continue his lacrosse career at Princeton University beginning in the fall of 2014. Austin was a standout varsity soccer athlete as a freshman, yet he took to the sport of lacrosse at Prep, and rose quickly to play at the varsity level beginning in freshman year. He has been a part of Prep's highly successful lacrosse program and stood out in his junior year while playing with a talented group of seniors who went on to win their second state championship in a row. Austin was recognized for his contribution to the team's success by being named First Team All-State and First Team All-SCC.

Austin has matched his outstanding athletic career at Prep with an equally strong academic career, achieving consistently at the honors level and qualifying for National Honor Society distinction. Austin has risen well to the challenges of honors and Advanced Placement classes while offering his academic and athletic gifts for the betterment of the Prep community as a Peer Tutor, and for the local community through the Wakeman Boys and Girls Club tutoring program. Austin's development into an outstanding student and standout lacrosse athlete has earned him the opportunity to continue his growth at Princeton.

Anthony Johnson signed his National Letter of Intent on November 18 at Fairfield Prep. He will be playing lacrosse for the Bryant University Bulldogs in Rhode Island. Anthony will be joining a Bryant Lacrosse program that finished last season ranked #20 in Division I after earning its first NCAA Tournament bid.

Anthony is a determined and intense competitor on the lacrosse field. He was a varsity starter on defense last season as the Jesuits claimed their second consecutive Class L State Championship. His outstanding performance last year earned him First Team All-SCC and Second Team All-State honors. In school, Anthony has been a strong student who has managed Prep's college preparatory course of studies well, and who is a leader within the school. He has played football for four years, and was named Varsity Football Captain on the highly ranked Prep Football team this fall. Anthony serves the community by volunteering weekly with the Kennedy Center bowling program for developmentally delayed adults. Anthony is looking forward to studying business and continuing his lacrosse career at the Division I level.

Blake and Lockery to play college baseball

Shawn Blake signed a National Athletic Letter of Intent on November 18 at the school. Shawn signed to play Division I baseball at the University of Albany. Shawn was the starting first baseman for the Fairfield Prep Varsity Baseball team last season. He was a top power hitter helping lead the team to the Class LL State semi-finals for the first time in 20 years. The 2013 team was the winningest Prep baseball team since 1985, and the team played to the Class LL semifinals for the first time since 1993. He received numerous accolades including All-SCC Quinnipiac Division and New Haven Register All-Area Team honors. He was also selected to play in the C.H.S.C.A. (Connecticut High School Coaches Association) Junior All-Star Game.

In addition to baseball, Shawn played Freshman and JV Basketball. As a disciplined athlete, Shawn has exhibited the same dedication as a successful student who has managed Prep's rigorous college preparatory course of studies. He has contributed service in the local community by volunteering weekly at the Jewish Home for the Elderly in Fairfield. Shawn is a respected, active student in the Prep community, and a talented athlete who is looking forward to playing Division I baseball next year at the University of Albany.

Dean Lockery, a standout athlete in two sports at Fairfield Prep, has chosen to pursue a baseball career in college and has committed to play Division I baseball at Central Connecticut State University. In his athletic life at Prep, Dean has been a member of the Varsity Hockey Team which won the SCC Championship and State Championship in 2013. Dean earned Player of the Game honors in the SCC Championship game. In the spring of 2013, Dean was a key player on the Varsity Baseball Team where he started as middle infielder since sophomore year. The 2013 team was the winningest Prep baseball team since 1985, and the team played to the Class LL semifinals for the first time in 20 years.

Dean has shown dedication in his academic life as a successful student who has managed Prep's challenging college preparatory course of studies. He has contributed service to the community in assisting at a shelter. Dean volunteered at Prep's freshman orientation, and also chose to take on the challenge of Prep's Urban Plunge immersion program. His sense of responsibility, citizenship and respect for others is evident in all that he does as a student-athlete, and he looks forward to playing Division I collegiate baseball at CCSU.

Congratulations to these top performing scholars

He was the MVP of the Fairfield Prep 2012 Holiday Tournament, and was named to the MSG Varsity All-CT First Team, New Haven Register All-Area Team, and SCC All-Quinnipiac Team. The Connecticut Post selected him as their MVP, and he was placed on the CHSCA Class LL All-State Team. Despite the time demands and the attention he has received with basketball, Paschal has remained an active and engaged member of the Fairfield Prep community. He was a reserve attacker for the varsity soccer team when the Jesuits' reached the Class LL state finals in the fall of 2012. Paschal has also been volunteering with the Kennedy Center bowling program for developmentally delayed adults. Paschal has earned the respect of his fellow students with his authenticity, enthusiasm and leadership.

Reunion Classes

GOLDEN MEMORIES Half a century after they received their Prep diplomas, the Class of 1963 returned to campus on the weekend of May 31 – June 2, 2013 to celebrate their 50th Anniversary Reunion and receive commemorative “golden diplomas” at Prep’s annual commencement exercises. In addition to this wonderful tribute, the attendees also enjoyed a weekend full of great fun, great memories and great friends. The Class of ‘63 also presented Prep with a five year gift commitment of $53,325! The funds raised by the class will be used in two ways: to support Prep’s Jesuit Educator’s Academy and for support of the Annual Fund. Fairfield Prep is most appreciative of the efforts of the 50th Reunion Committee (see box p. 31) and all those in the class who came back to Prep to celebrate their legacy!

SILVER SALUTE! Twenty-five years ago, the Class of 1988 graduated 215 young men ready to take on life's many challenges. Over the next quarter century they built families, careers and a special bond as classmates that was evident as they returned to campus to celebrate their Silver Anniversary Reunion on the weekend of June 14-15, 2012. In addition to the over 40 members of the class in attendance, the class of '88 also raised $92,890 in gift commitments over the next five years to support Prep's Jesuit Educator's Academy and the Annual Fund. Fairfield Prep is most grateful for the efforts of the 25th Reunion Committee (see box p. 31) and for all those who participated strengthening the already tight bond of this class!

Why Prep?

Taken from a speech by Andrew Ostrosky '14 given at the President's Dinner which is held annually to honor Prep benefactors who contribute $2,500 or more annually.

So, why Prep? I find myself asking this question a lot, particularly weekdays at 6AM as I get out of a comfortable bed to embark on my one-hour commute to school. But there really isn't one concrete answer to this question—why Prep?—because it is different for each individual.

For some, it is sports. For others it is for the stellar academics. For me, the answer is simple—relationships. Prep has provided me with a plethora of opportunities to establish new relationships and to further solidify preexisting ones.

At Prep, I have had the amazing experience of creating some of the best bonds with my teachers. These teachers are more like mentors in my life: people who thoroughly enjoy spending time with me as they expose me to new philosophies, formulas, and theories.

At Prep, I have made some of the best friends in my life: people I can get breakfast with at the Cow, fool around with during free periods, study with before a big test, and be competitive with on a team. The Prep student body is more like a family than anything else, and it is such because we all go through the same things: commutes, teachers, Canuel tests, and much more.

I have met some of the most incredible and influential people at Prep that encourage growth and maturation in my life. At Prep, I have made relationships with administrators that I will always cherish. These unique individuals are ones that have mastered the skill of running a functional school while still creating a remarkably enjoyable environment.

These examples all demonstrate why relationships is my answer to the question "Why Prep?"

What has Prep taught me?

I can honestly say that Prep has taught me much more than just academic information. Yes, I have learned a lot from my classes, but I could have achieved that at any school. Prep has taught me much more than that.

At Prep, I have learned the true meaning to life. No, I am no Plato or Aristotle, but for me, I truly feel that I know why I walk on this earth each day. Prep has taught me that life is composed of two fundamental philosophies: helping others, and enjoyment.

Through my service, Urban Plunge retreat, and other service-orientated experiences, I have realized the fundamental need to help others. In doing so, you change the world positively and you find an inner joy greater than any other.

That directly leads to the second philosophy, enjoyment. I may only be seventeen, but I have heard it enough from my parents that life flies by, and you turn fifty before you know it. Thanks, mom and dad. But really, life is way too short. Therefore, what purpose is it to not enjoy each day you live? And at Prep, I learned that no matter how poorly you do on a chemistry test or how annoying it is to drive an hour each day, you must find some source of joy in each day. At Prep, this task is simple because I'm surrounded with opportunities to help others while still enjoying the company of friends.

My Prep experience is pretty typical: on the surface. I put on my tie each early morning, drive to the senior lot, walk into school, go to class, play a sport after school, and then go home. But all the fillers in between are what make my experience so amazing beneath the surface. The times and conversations shared with friends or teachers during this two-minute walk into school are priceless. The teachers in class redefine what it means to be lectured: transforming a classical lecture into a full out man-to-man conversation. The countless days I've been in the weight room with my football buddies are times that truly define the Prep experience.

All of this is possible because my parents believed in Prep, an all boy's school offering more than just a superior education. I am so fortunate and blessed to have gone through these past four years at a place that I truly am proud to associate myself with. I have been able to spend the past four years in a diverse environment that fosters academic, social, and religious excellence.

I thank you all, benefactors and friends of Prep, for all that you do for our school. Your generosity makes it possible for the entire Prep community, including myself, to go through four of the best years of our lives. Your kindness and generosity makes it achievable for boys of all kinds of unique backgrounds to graduate from our beloved Fairfield Prep. You all make my experiences and those of all Prep students possible, and for that I am forever in debt.

By Andrew Ostrosky '14, VP Student Government, Governor's Scholar, Recipient of the Harvard Club Book Award, and Sikorsky Science Award

Concert wows crowd

The Fairfield Prep Music Department presented its annual Winter Concert at the Quick Center's Kelley Theater on January 15 to a packed house. This well-attended concert featured an eclectic mix of music from Bruno Mars to Tchaikovsky and was definitely an entertaining night! The buzz from the audience for days following the concert made it clear that the students' hard work and efforts throughout the first semester paid off. The concert included performances by Jazzuits & Encords, Symphonic Orchestra, Wind Ensemble and Select Choir, and was directed by Mrs. Christine Evans. Watch video highlights at youtube.com/fairfieldprep1.

The Prep Players present "Clockwork. Well, Satire, Too!"

The Prep Players presented 30 Neo-Futurist Plays in 60 minutes in the Wien Experimental Theater at the Quick Center for the Arts, Fairfield University. The 18 member ensemble presented two-minute features that used creativity, satire and improvisation to create a unique nightly show November 13 through 15. Players drew in members of the audience to participate, including teachers Mr. Jay Mis and Mr. Tony Canuel. Special thanks to the Jamie A. Hulley Arts Foundation who helped underwrite the show. The show was directed by Mrs. Megan Hoover, Fine Arts Chair.

Junior Traditions

The Class of 2015 gathered in Fairfield University's Egan Chapel for the annual Junior Ring Mass on December 4. Juniors purchase class rings each year as a tangible remembrance that they are, and always will be, members of the Fairfield Prep community. The rings were blessed at the Mass by Fr. Hanwell, S.J., and presented to each young man personally. On December 6, the Class of 2015 celebrated at their Junior Ring Dance held in Fairfield University's Oak Room.

“Trunk or Treat”

As a new event this year, seniors decorated their trunks with Halloween themes and donned costumes for a BBQ lunch in the parking lot. Students from grades 3 to 6 from Hall School in Bridgeport arrived in costume to meet their Prep senior “buddies.” Together, the groups of buddies played harvest-themed games on the field, including pumpkin rolling contests, pumpkin bowling, and more. The elementary students were then escorted up to the parking lot to go “Trunk or Treating” with the Prep seniors as hosts at their decorated cars.

Senior Lounge!

The Senior Lounge is gaining in momentum and popularity; the first event in September was well attended and the seniors had a blast at Dinner and Dodgeball. The next gathering in February will have a Winter Olympics theme, and the committee has been working hard to plan some fun events. We hope to end the year with an open mike event and Talent Show. The Guidance Department is helping provide a social, stress-free environment for members of the senior class to enjoy each other's company, laugh, make memories, and have fun.

Michael Maggiore '00 shares a miraculous story of survival

Taken from a speech given to the Prep student body at the Thanksgiving Assembly on November 26, 2013

It is nothing short of a miracle that I stand before you today. I would like to take you on my journey—before, during and after—my life-changing accident.

Exactly 13 years ago, I was a Prep senior sitting as you are now on gym bleachers listening to a homily by the late, great Father Barry. He impressed me with a slogan I will always remember — “Breathe in and out.” Take in the good and expel the bad. It is a simplified proverb to get the best out of every situation in life. I promise there is no other advice more reliable than that.

After graduating from Prep, I entered Virginia Tech with a foundation of strong family values, respect for God, and a tremendous education from this institution. I left Virginia Tech with a degree in my chosen field of waste management.

Weightlifting, track and field, and football taught me that success does not come without hard work, sacrifice and God-given talent. I competed in the World’s Strongest Man amateur national circuit from 2002 to 2005. I was the youngest-ever finalist.

By 2005 I had become a waste management environmental scientist. I traveled throughout the south and midwest working in landfills, factories, construction sites, and contaminated property. In 2008 I returned home to help my family’s business. In turn, my family helped me save my life. I was 200 lbs overweight and unhealthy. The solution was to work from the inside out, get back to basics with good nutrition for my body, soul, and mind. I needed to reconnect with God. With the right attitude and mindset I saw clearer and brighter. I started to love myself and the world.

In 2011 I set out for Asia to see a foreign land, but more importantly, to look within myself. Three months in Thailand and one month in silence and fasting in a Buddhist monastery in Chiang Mia was not a small undertaking. I found my spiritual awakening there. I learned God has a plan for me just as he does for each one of us. That is a very important realization. Our personal dreams are important but real happiness can only be found when you are living God’s purpose for you.

I returned home and took a job with Sims Metal Management. On August 17, 2012 my life changed. I was going through my duties assisting the railcar loading operation. I leaned up to the train cars releasing the airbrake so each car would be movable. The supervisor spotter and the operator both lost sight of me. The cars moved and I was crushed between the car connectors.

My screams got everyone’s attention. The train cars separated and I collapsed to the ground. I felt more pain than I had ever experienced. I assumed my back, legs, trunk, and groin were crushed and that I was facing death. I found myself engaged with a supernatural energy and saw a bright white light. It was my end and I was ready. I asked the ER staff prepping me for surgery to tell everyone that I loved them very much and that I had said goodbye.

Miraculously, the crush had missed my spine by inches, I had no head trauma, and not even a single broken bone. My large size, health, strength, and God’s grace prevented a tragic event from becoming total devastation.

Next I fought the fight for my life in a chemical-induced coma. I had eight surgeries (each over 10 hours long), kidney failure, excessive swelling, infections and fits. I had a trachea breathing machine, feeding tube, colostomy, catheter, and tissue extractions.

I am very thankful for those who prayed for me. My mom and dad never left my side, sacrificing their lives and careers to tend to my care, surgery after surgery. My girlfriend Lindsey relocated to the New York area to be by my side. I was pulled out of the coma slowly. Dreams, sounds, and thoughts were a slurred combination of an artificial reality. As my condition stabilized, debridement and anti-infection surgery had to be done consistently every four days. I asked a surgeon, “What made you keep trying?” He said, “Your heart just never stopped. You did not quit on us so we were not going to quit on you.”

I am thankful for the fellowship and prayers of my parish, St. Matthew, and my alma mater, Fairfield Prep. The prayers, cards, calls, and love poured in and boosted my will to survive.

My moves were moderate and strained. The wound vacs pumped the fluids away from my body. Daily showers were torture and drove me to tears. My entire mid section did not have skin. Over time I developed a tolerance to all pain medication. Once it was time to move the grafted skin the pain was too much to bear. I went through a series of 36 surgeries, received 102 pints of blood (God bless Prep for sponsoring a blood drive), and had four femoral artery transplants to save my left leg. Each transplant nearly resulted in death, cardiac complications, or the loss of my leg.

My therapists were a special group of people who were able to see the forest through the trees and my potential to improve. I made it through one day at a time. It was an evolution of improvement. Whenever I felt sorry for myself I would cry, “Why me, why do I need to do this?” Finally I had the answer, “Why not me?” I was shifting from victim to victor. Things happen in life and no matter what you must do and be the best you can.

I pledged to my doctors and therapists that I would walk out of rehab. It was my goal, realistic, possible, and very finite, but at times we all had our doubts. I faced a possible leg amputation in March. There were complications, three hours every day in a hyperbaric chamber plus sleeping on my side so no pressure would contact the bottom of my leg. Finally I walked out the front door on July 18, 2013, nearly 11 months to the day of the accident. Ready or not it was time for me to face the world.

You are never really prepared for a tragedy. I am very thankful for the strong foundation, built over a lifetime, that got me through such a brutal and horrifying experience. Once I was grateful for the day and for the love in my life, I was able to focus on getting better.

So gentlemen of Fairfield Prep, I part you with this slogan, “The greatest distance traveled is the distance from your mind to your heart and back.” When my mind and my heart worked together I found inner peace and was able to receive the Holy Spirit in my life. God bless you all, and have a happy and healthy Thanksgiving.
