3:10	Technology Referendum (Relaying referendum information and addition discussion)	Vote Yes Committee can tell people to Vote Yes since the Board and District employees cannot. 250,000 Levy for Technology Focus of the ROCORI Technology Referendum <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Keep Technology Current2. Ensure Career and College Readiness for students3. Enhance Communications Tools Keep Technology Current The Orange Lab does not support Windows 10 (6-year-old devices). These devices are not even on the deck to be updated. The high school labs are next. The levy will help keep technology current and updated. Are we still in the mindset we are not going to be going 1:1? Yes. Is that a point we want to make clear (When you say competitive with neighbors some people go straight to 1:1)? Bring this back to yes committee to make sure the is clear on the hand outs.

		Is there a hierarchy to getting classrooms technology? All regular classrooms should have projectors and speakers. If a teacher does not have a projector, they should request one with Brian. Other technology can be applied for through the technology grant. This is available in the spring. We would like technology in every room. Ensure Career and College Readiness Working with Brian Heying to get the Technology Classes the tools to enhance there classes(Makerspace, 3D printer, STEM, Software etc) Programming classes Enhance Communication Tools Improve website function and interaction Expand and support social media Support community and engagement processes Net Impact on Taxes minimum. We do not have any voter approved operating capital. Technology is not exciting to everyone. How are we going to get to those voters? Half Sheet flying and Ad in the paper. Employees cannot tell people to vote yes that is why there is a yes committee. People can as parents and members of the committee. 51% have to vote yes for the levy to go through.
