President's message: Tiffany Corvi

Schoola- Successful collection. 29 bags of items that have been shipped out. You can watch the progress on the Schoola website. Repeat in spring if this time around is financially successful.

Labels for Education- Charity Kay new Chairperson. There were already 2,400 points in the account.

E-Scrip- Find someone to chair this position along with hospitality.

Treasurer's Report: Danielle Shaw

Book Fair- Most successful book fair since Lynn Fong has been the lead. Another fair scheduled for the spring.

Read In- $890 was made at this event, pretty successful.

Fall Festival- Just under $2,500 was made, over 300 slices of pizza was sold. Next year, start early and find jump houses to be donated.

Charleston Wrap- Orders will be delivered on 12/3 and 12/4. Distribution on Friday 12/4 from 2-5pm.

Adopt a Family- Still working on getting families, should have them by next Thursday. 10 families selected by staff. Week of Christmas staff will deliver the donated trees, dinners and gifts. Have ornaments with items needed up at the pancake breakfast, hopefully. Due by 12/14 Gifts not just for the kids, but the whole family.

Upcoming Events:

-Breakfast with Santa: Santa has been booked. Volunteers, need help getting people to sign up, only 2 volunteers up to now. Get in touch with high schools and ELAC. Friday 12/5 set up after school if possible. Saturday 12/6 7am-12pm for set up and cleaning.

As for pre-sale tickets, less than a dozen so far have been sold. Need camera and a printer. Need help with decorations. Ask Ms. Skye for help with set up of movie. Santa hats for volunteers, a conductor hat for ticket booth.

ELAC wants to do their own separate tamale event on December, 18th.

-A contest for best decorated door for teachers. Winner would receive tickets to Gilroy Gardens.

-Candy cane grams: Sell them M, W, F (12/7-9-11) during lunch hours. Ask Manuel for table. Distribute last week of school.

-Staff appreciation meeting on December 3rd. Set up of hot chocolate bar by us. Breakfast on Thursday December 17th by Nhung.

January Events:

-January 15th Star Gazing. Considering a family night to go along with this event.

-Spaghetti Dinner: Thinking of having it later in January, possibly Friday the 29th. We need to start contacting local businesses about donations to our raffle/silent auction and for donations of food.

February Events:

-Father/Daughter Dance: Late February, possibly the 26th

-There is a mom (Danielle Berry) who is willing to take on grant writing for us. What she needs from the teachers is a list with their specific needs.

Meeting Adjourned.
