Equal employment opportunity is key to fostering a culture of equity, excellence, character, and respect throughout the District and is one aspect of the District's overall commitment to nondiscrimination. The Board and the District are committed to a policy of nondiscrimination/equal opportunity in employment in all job classifications of the District. The District will also make reasonable accommodations for qualified job applicants and employees with disabilities in accordance with the requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. All District personnel involved with recruitment, hiring, training, assignments, promotion, transfer, compensation, dismissal, and all other employment practices are expressly directed to make decisions and carry out their duties in accordance with the intent of the District's nondiscrimination policies, as well as federal and state anti-discrimination laws. The policies and principles of this policy also apply to the selection and treatment of contractors, personnel working on the District's premises who are employed by temporary agencies, and any other persons or firms doing business for or with the District.

The District's commitment to nondiscrimination extends to students as well. In keeping with the District's policies and requirements of state and federal law, the District will strive to prevent any discrimination in educational opportunities and services offered to students in the District's programs and activities. The District will also provide reasonable accommodations to students with disabilities in accordance with the requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. All District personnel involved with students are expressly directed to make decisions and carry out their duties in accordance with the intent of the district's nondiscrimination policies, as well as federal and state anti-discrimination laws.

The District will continually review its personnel practices and procedures to ensure employees, supervisors, and managers are adhering to the District's commitment to equal employment opportunity.

District students, parents, guardians, employees, contractors and members of the public are encouraged to report violations or suspected violations of the District's nondiscrimination policies. The District's policies and procedures for identifying and reporting discrimination, harassment and retaliation, including to whom such reports should be made, are contained in Regulation 4901-R.
