

EXCLUSION OF STUDENTS FROM CLASS ATTENDANCE

PURPOSE: To define when students may be excluded from class attendance at the request of the teacher.

At the request of the teacher to the designated authority, a student may be removed from a class and not allowed to return until a conference is held between the teacher, the parents/guardians, and a representative of the Administration. The decision to exclude the student from class, pending the parental conference, should be based on the student's prior record of misbehavior, documented remedies already having been tried, and the probable length of time the student will be out of class before the parents/guardians can be available. If the exclusion is likely to be prolonged (more than three days), consideration will be given to suspension, until the parental conference, at which time a written agreement must be developed defining contingencies for the student to remain in class.
