

How to play:

Print on sturdy paper and cut apart. If you can see through the back, mount each card onto construction paper or cardstock.

Place cards face down in random order. Youngest child goes first – chooses a card. If the child can read the sight word, they keep the card. If not it is the next player's turn. A turn ends when a player gets a Pop! card.

