PTSA and TAB.

Academic TeamMeetings: Monday, Thursday after school

Purpose: Quiz bowl is a game in which two teams compete head-to-head to answer questions from all areas of knowledge including history, literature, science, fine arts, current events, sports, and popular culture. The defining feature of the game is the "buzzer" which adds a dimension of confidence, anticipation, and rapid recall to the trivia and fact based game. If you enjoy learning new information and showcasing your knowledge, be sure to try out.

AFJROTCMeetings: Set classes during the school day, teams after school

Purpose: Maintaining a good GPA average while being involved in the school and community is something that Booker T. Washington High School expects of its students. However, many students tend to lack confidence, and they feel overwhelmed by the pressure. The Booker T. AFJROTC program aims to help cadets realize their full potential through fun, family, and leadership. This cadet-led and cadet-run corps strives to continue to exceed standards through academics, community service, and molding the leaders of tomorrow. Comprised of people from all walks of life, AFJROTC is for the best of the best, whether they know they are or not.

Class of 2018Meetings: 1st Tues of each month

Purpose: The Class of 2018 has a lot planned to make junior year a blast for everyone! We are excited to make prom a night to remember. We are also responsible for keeping the grade up to date about all the wonderful opportunities around the hive, and, with funds from t-shirt sales, we hope that there will be many! We have committed to keeping up our school spirit with fun pep rallies in order to promote an environment where our students feel comfortable, motivated, and can demonstrate the unity of the Class of 2018! Overall, as representatives, we demonstrate leadership to our peers and are here for anything they may need, and are ready for an awesome school year!

Class of 2019Meetings: TBD

Purpose: The class of 2019 is super excited to start our second year at the hive! We hope to show even more spirit this year than last by having well planned pep rallies and awesome new t shirts! Also, with the help of t shirt sales and more class dues coming in, we are excited to start preparing for our prom! With more group meetings, more decisions will be made by more than just the board, and with a more united class as a whole, we can't wait for sophomore year and know it will be a blast!

Jazz ComboMeetings: Class during the school day, activities and practice outside of classPurpose: The Booker T Washington Jazz Ensemble is a great place for rising musicians and for people of all levels who wish to further explore their interests in all types of music (Jazz, Latin, etc.). This club is also a great place to learn about America's first original art form, whether you are a musician or not! The BTW Jazz Ensemble would also provide the ability for musicians to be able to practice individually and/or with others, as well as just to listen to music. This club is open for musicians and future musicians alike!Sponsor(s): Mr. Ryan-Johnson; ryanjer@tulsaschools.orgStudent Contact(s): Bishop MarshClub Handle(s): Instagram: @btworchjazz

Key ClubMeetings: A,B,and C lunch the 1st Fri of every monthPurpose: We don't make keys! We make change. We are a community service club. The largest club at the DUB, in fact. With over 150 active members, we are a great way to get connected to the Booker T. community while doing good for the community. Booker T. Washington's Key Club is a local chapter Kiwanis International. Kiwanis is a globally recognized organization that provides service and leadership opportunities to youth. By joining Key Club, you are joining one of the largest clubs in the nation and the world. Tell that to your top choice for college. Every month, members are expected to attend service projects and donate drive items in the spirit of improving the Booker T. community. Booker T. Washington once said, "If you want to lift yourself up, lift up someone else." That truly is the spirit of our club.Sponsor(s): Ms. Remington; reminer@tulsaschools.orgStudent Contact(s): Layla MortadhaClub Handle(s): Instagram: @btwkeyclub; Twitter: @btwkeyclub

National Art Honor Society (NAHS)Meetings: TBDPurpose: The National Art Honor Society strives to create a place where young artists can use their love and talent in arts to benefit their community. Every year we have an art show in which our members make art pieces pertaining to the idea and feeling of homelessness and those pieces are sold and the proceeds go to helping the homeless in Tulsa. We involve the members of NAHS and their art even to help our own community at Booker T. by using their designs on t-shirts that we sell as a fundraiser. Our club is about using the thing that we love most to serve and better our society.Sponsor(s): Mr. Roberts; roberru2@tulsaschools.orgStudent Contact(s): Bella Dickens, Jackie Hanning

National Honor Society (NHS)Meetings: 2nd Tu OR Wed am

Purpose: If helping your peers and being a leader in your community sounds like you, then consider National Honor Society. NHS is an organization that encourages students to develop their leadership, scholarship, character, and service abilities. We meet monthly before school and spearhead a multitude of fundraisers, drives, and volunteer opportunities. Remember, membership to NHS is an invitation so make sure to maintain good grades and involvement in service and leadership activities so that you can join your sophomore year! In NHS, we are making a difference right in our own school and we would love for you to be a part of that change. Remember us!

Native American Youth CouncilMeetings: Wed @ 8 am

Purpose: We offer opportunities to get involved with Native American culture. Every morning we have a cultural activity, which can range from having a guest speaker (we've had speakers from many tribes who speak about different aspects of their cultures), native crafts (like making stickballs, cornhusk dolls, traditional baskets), learning native languages, and others. We also inform about Native events outside of school like Powwows, Youth Councils of different tribes, and local drum groups. Sometime during the year we will hold a stickball game for the whole school (which is very fun). Our sponsor is Palace, but we also have a advisor from TPS Indian Education named Shari Williams. We also have donuts every meeting, and members can wear their club shirts on meeting days. Our club is open to anyone with or without Indian heritage, and we have members who represent several tribes. If you want to learn about and participate in Native Culture, this is the club for you.

RoboticsMeetings: Mon and Wed after school

Purpose: Do you like knowing how things work? How the world around us is driven by technology and science? If so, you should join the Booker T Washington FIRST Robotics team, the RoboHornets! In the Robotics team, you can learn how to program, wire, and build robots designed to complete exciting challenges. Anyone is welcome to join! We not only build robots in the spring, but we also commit ourselves to the community and our fellow Hornets. Whether it be volunteering at the Food Bank, Little Lighthouse, or doing exhibitions of our robots to other schools, in Robotics you will learn more life skills than just engineering. We offer general meetings after school on Wednesdays of fall and programming classes after school on Mondays of the fall. After that, we launch into build season to create the robots we love so much! Join the RoboHornets today, and be a part of the team.

Purpose: Russian Club is for any student wanting to learn more about Russian culture and language. We provide opportunities to interact with the local Russian community and improve our understanding of Russia and its peoples

Sponsor(s): Ms. Palace; Palacgw@Tulsaschools.org

Safe TeamMeetings: TBD

Purpose: Safe Team is an early warning school-based communication system that helps students cope with hardship, reach out to others in need, and look out for one another. SafeTeam teachers/staff are trained on issues affecting students and how to handle such situations. A student auxiliary group may be possible.

Sponsor(s): Ms. Remington and Mr. Cervini; reminer@tulsaschools.org, cervian@tulsaschools.org

SOFAMeetings: Wed after school, during activity period

Purpose: SOFA (Sexual Orientation Friendship Acceptance) is a Gender and Sexuality Alliance dedicated to educating, advocating equality and providing a safe space for students of all genders, sexualities and backgrounds. While SOFA's main focus is the LGBTQ+ community, that is not the extent of what is discussed. SOFA is a community that celebrates diversity and love, and recognizes the importance of representation of all communities. Meetings may consist of educational presentations, group discussions or time to break away from the stresses of school life and focus on self care. It is important that students are in a space where they can feel genuinely comfortable and accepted.

Purpose: Spanish club members work together to promote cultural understanding of Hispanic culture and promote community in school, and also practice Spanish.

Sponsor(s): Mrs. Zerbe; Zerbec@tulsaschools.org

Speech & DebateMeetings: During speech class and after school

Purpose: It ain't noise pollution! It is a voice. Coached by Meredith Deaton and Kelly McCracken, Speech & Debate is an extracurricular based on performance, practice, teamwork, and personal growth through public speaking. Speech is centered around acting / presence in oration, while Debate revolves around the interpretation and analysis of current foreign and domestic events. Speech & Debate offers students an outlet for expression and excellence in global perspective. With 3 national champions and 3 state champions under our belt and more to come, we are proud to represent the Dub as we attend local and national tournaments all over the country and speak our minds.
