“Big Red Player”

H.E.R.D.

The HERD is the TEAM! The pride of being a Mustang is fully committing to the TEAM while understanding the tradition he represents. Having a selfless mentality and doing what is best for the team. The strength of the Mustang is in the individual, the strength of the Mustang is in the HERD!

Here & Now: play pitch by pitch in the present moment controlling what you can control. Focus on most important pitch, the next one

Excellence: seek excellence every day on the field and in your life.

Responsibility: takes responsibility for his actions and makes no excuses.

Discipline: take control of your actions and do what you should do regardless of how you feel or who is watching. Work the Process & act differently than how you feel.

A big red player respects the game, the team, and himself.

Seeks excellence on the field, in the classroom, and his life.

Takes a selfless mentality fully committing to the team earning the trust of his teammates.

Plays the game in the here and now, pitch by pitch. Focusing on the most important play, the next one, working the process controlling what he can control.

Accepts the responsibility of being a part of something bigger than himself and makes no excuses. Investing all 86,400 seconds of each day to becoming the best he can.

Commands respect through his actions and work ethic, leading by example, while bringing energy and enthusiasm to everything he does.

Will not accept anything but all out effort from himself and his teammates.

Has the discipline to do what he should do regardless of how he feels or who is watching.

Has a hard nose attitude, positive mind set, championship swagger, and big league confidence.

The strength of the Mustang is in the individual, the strength of the Mustang is in the HERD!
