Farmington Junior High also promotes good sportsmanship. We are excited to have your athlete on our school team. In order to make this a positive experience for everyone, we are asking for your cooperation in being good examples of sportsmanship to not only your athlete, but to everyone who is participating in one form or another (examples but not limited to: players, referees, scorekeepers, coaches, parents, cheerleaders, and administration). We appreciate your willingness to make this a positive experience for everyone. If you are removed from any school event based on your sportsmanship, you will not be able to attend any future events for the rest of the school year.
