

Meet Your New Director of Dining Services!

SHAN SPEILBERG

Shan has a diverse background from small “Mom and Pop” catering kitchens to corporate giants, including Panera & Starbucks. He graduated from Johnson and Wales University in Charlotte. An internship at Providence Day School evolved into a full-time position, leading to the title of Catering Manager. He was with Providence Day for six years. From there he went on to open and run Charlotte Preparatory School for a year before moving to Macon. On a personal note, Shan enjoys playing soccer, watching horror/thriller movies, and taking weekend trips to the mountains or beach. He has two dogs, Maggie and Noel.

Once the school year begins, menus can be found on your school's dining website:
www.myschooldining.com/stratford

Meet Your New Chef!

AMELIA DEANGIO

Amelia attended Johnson and Wales University in Charlotte, NC. Amelia's experience varies from Fine Dining Restaurants to High Volume Catering operations. She has lived and worked all over the country including in places like Hawaii, Denver, and the Pacific Northwest. Most recently Amelia was the Banquet Chef for the Denver Zoo. Here she executed high end catering events for up to 4000 guests. Amelia brings a wealth of knowledge to our Flik Team. In Amelia's spare time she enjoys training for marathons, and spending time with her dog Gouda.