

2018-19 New Faculty/Staff Bios

Jonathan Boils will be teaching High School Science. He has a degree in Mechanical Engineering, is a Six Sigma Black Belt and married to Dr. Christie Boils. They have three children and are members of Fellowship Bible Church.

Taylor Brandon is the new Junior High Band Director. He graduated from the University of Central Arkansas and enjoys composing and arranging music. He is a member of Robinson and Center Church of Christ.

Jennifer Byrd will be teaching AP Language in the High School. She holds an Education degree from Ouachita Baptist University and has 11 years teaching experience. She is married to Lannie Byrd. They attend The Church at Rock Creek.

Lance Clark comes to LRCA from Alabama to teach High School History and serve as Defensive Coordinator. He enjoys reading, writing and traveling and attends Church of the Highlands.

Tiffany Cranford will be serving as an assistant teacher in the K-3/K-4 classrooms. She is also a registered nurse and is married to Shawn Cranford. They are members of Fellowship Bible Church.

Erin Diaz will be teaching Bible Worldview and English in the High School. She holds a Master of Divinity from Cincinnati Christian University. She and her husband, Alex, moved here from Florida and worship at Mosaic Church.

Kim Dunn will be working in the Business Office. She comes to LRCA from Nextar Broadcasting in Little Rock. She and her husband, Michael Dunn, have two children. They are members of the Baptist church.

Tyler Eatherton will be serving as the Junior High Assistant Principal. He has six years experience and comes to LRCA from Pulaski Academy. He graduated from Harding University and is currently working on his Masters in Educational Leadership. He is a newlywed and worships at Fellowship Bible Church.

Brandon Eller is the new Head Baseball Coach and holds a MSE in Education Theory and Practice from Arkansas State University. He has over eight years of experience. He and his wife, Lauren, are currently members of Central Baptist in Jonesboro.

Ruby Fields will be joining the Aftercare team this fall. She brings experience as a caregiver for a variety of ages, substitute teaching and as a Sunday school teacher. She is a member of Park Place Baptist Church.

Emily Gentry will be joining the 2nd grade team of teachers in the Elementary. She holds a Master of Education from Harding University. She and her husband, Weston, have moved to Little Rock from Nashville for him to complete his residency at UAMS.

Angelo Goff is the new High School Instrumental Director. She holds a Master of Music from the American Band College program of study from Southern Oregon University. She has 20 years experience. She and her husband, Kenneth, attend Grace Church.

Bubby Harrell will be teaching High School Biblical Worldview and coaching 7th grade football. He is an outdoorsman and is married to LRCA alumna, Mary Harrell. Before coming to LRCA, he worked with Klife Ministries. He and Mary worship at Fellowship Bible Church in Conway.

Kim Lackey will be the Assistant Teacher in the 3-Year-Old classroom. She holds a Bachelor of Business from Middle Tennessee State University. She and her husband, Daniel, worship at Christ Community Church.

Jenny Phillips will be teaching High School Spanish. She holds a Master in Art of Teaching from the University of Arkansas Monticello. She double majored in Spanish and Speech Communication at Ouachita Baptist University. She brings 10 years of teaching experience with her and is currently a member at First Baptist in Rogers.

Megan Rochell will be serving as an Assistant Varsity Volleyball Coach. She and her husband, Lamar, are new parents and attend Summit Church. She graduated from the University of Central Arkansas where she was a member of the volleyball team and has her certification in Elementary Education/Special Education.

Cheryl Rowen will be teaching High School Math. She has several years of experience as a volunteer at LRCA. Recently, she served as the Parent Teacher Fellowship President. She holds a Master of Science in Statistics. She and her husband, Thom, have three children at LRCA and worship at Christ Community Church.

Chelsea Saegert will be teaching 3rd grade in the elementary. She has three and a half years teaching experience and graduated from Harding University. She is married to Tony Saegert, new LRCA High School French teacher. They are currently members of Bentonville Church of Christ.

Tony Saegert will be teaching High School French. He is currently completing his Masters in French from Harding University. He comes from Siloam Spring High School and has five years teaching experience. He and his wife, Chelsea, are currently members of Bentonville Church of Christ.

Whitney Smith will be teaching K-4 in the elementary. She holds a degree in Early Childhood Education from the University of Central Arkansas and has gone through the Kanakuk Institute Ministry Training Program. She is currently working on a Masters in Theology from John Brown University. She and her husband, Tanner, have been attending Christ Community Church.

Felicia VanGoor will be working in the Aftercare Program. She and her husband, Jason, have four children at LRCA. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Criminal Justice from Calvin College. They attend Covenant Presbyterian Church.

Carrie Vick will be teaching three year olds in the elementary. She has a Bachelor of Science in Early Childhood Education from UALR and Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from Samford University. She has four years teaching experience. She and her husband, Doug, are members of Indian Springs Baptist Church in Bryant.

Lisa Renea Walker will be working with the Food Service team. She worked as a Medical Staff Coordinator at Arkansas Children's Hospital prior to the birth of her children. She has been a full-time mom the past seven years. She and her husband Will have two children who attend LRCA. They are members of Calvary Baptist Church.