BOARD GOALS

Board members submitted suggestions for board goals to the board president. Dr. Pomponio compiled this information and presented it to board members. Each member spoke about the goals they suggested. Members discussed the need for accountability, transparency, more communication and creating a family friendly atmosphere in the district.

TREASURER

JASON R. KUPSER

It was suggested surveying parents at the beginning of the year to track trends.

Discussion: board members role in the community and who they represent; kids, parents, community. Putting children first. Setting the yearly calendar for receiving reports from departments, buildings etc... and how often they want to receive these.
