Southgate Food Services complies with the federal Healthy Hunger Free Kids Act of 2010 implemented by the USDA, which places strict limits on calories, saturated fat and portion size by grade level. The new standards align school meals with the latest nutrition science and the 2010 Dietary Guidelines for Americans, making sure that students are offered both fruits and vegetables each day, more whole grains, with portion sizes and calorie counts designed to maintain a healthy weight. Food is divided into five groups: Meat/Meat Alternate, Vegetable, Fruit, Grains/ Grain Alternate & Milk. Under Offer vs. Serve, all food groups are offered to students. They must choose at least three, to include either a fruit or vegetable, to be considered a meal. Some combination foods count as more than one component (hamburger on bun, pizza, etc).

A la carte selections are not included in the free/reduced program and may be purchased separately.
