

April 28, 1991 Wyandotte Distinguished Graduate Inductee

Stephen O. Stieler Class of 1958

A local businessman and civic leader, Stephen O. Stieler joined the Wyandotte Savings Bank as a Management Trainee after graduation from the University of Michigan.

In his distinguished career with Wyandotte Savings Bank, he has served as the Director of Personnel, Assistant Vice President, Vice President, Senior Vice President, Director of Bank, Executive Vice President, and President/CEO. Presently he is First Vice President and Downriver Regional Director, National Bank of Detroit.

Civic activist, Mr. Stieler is Chairman and Director of the Downriver Metroplex Alliance and a member of the Merchants Association of Wyandotte, the Southern Wayne County Chamber of Commerce, the Wyandotte Downtown Development Authority, the Board of Management of the YMCA and the Wyandotte Lions Club. Additionally, he co-chaired the Downriver Business Expo.

A strong supporter of the arts and of education, Mr. Stieler is Director of the Downriver Council for the Arts and a member of its Corporate Fund Drive Committee. He is also Vice President of the Wyandotte Public Schools Foundation.