

April 28, 1991 Wyandotte Distinguished Graduate Inductee

Elizabeth A. Murray Class of 1935

Elizabeth Murray has been involved in the field of education for many years. As a teacher for 41 years and a Board of Education member for 25 years, she was in the forefront of policy changes and modernization of facilities.

As a member of the Wyandotte Education Association, she helped lead the challenges which resulted in equal pay for women and the right of married women to teach.

As a member of the Board of Education, she was actively involved in the modernization plans for Roosevelt to meet student needs in the twenty-first century.

Additionally, Ms. Murray has contributed to the community of Wyandotte through participation in civic committees. She was on the planning committees for both the Wyandotte Centennial and the review and revision of the City Charter.

Ms. Murray was instrumental in the formation of the Wyandotte Historical Study Committee, the Wyandotte Human Relations Committee and the Downriver Guidance Clinic.

Because of her experience and expertise, Ms. Murray is frequently asked to serve on panels at the state and local levels to discuss various educational issues.
