

March 29, 1999 Wyandotte Distinguished Graduate Inductee

David Russell Miller (Milinski) Class of 1959

David R. Miller has distinguished himself as a nationally renowned educator, psychologist, counselor, and author.

David Miller (Milinski) began his college training at Wayne State University. In 1968, he earned his B.S. in Secondary Education and in 1972, his M.S. in Educational Guidance and Counseling. His Doctorate was earned in 1981 at the University of South Carolina, with majors in Counselor Education and Developmental Psychology.

David began his career in education in 1968 in the Detroit Public Schools where he served as a Social Studies Teacher, a Guidance Counselor, and an Assistant Principal. His outstanding efforts earned him "Teacher of the Year" recognition.

In 1975, Dr. David Miller began his work at Bob Jones University as an Associate Professor of Psychology. His instructional responsibilities included the areas of Abnormal, Clinical, General and Personnel Psychology. It was at Liberty University (1981-1995) that Dr. David Miller served with distinction as Professor of Psychology and Professor of Counseling. His work focused primarily on child, adolescent, family, and sexual abuse victims and offenders.

Dr. David Miller has published seven books, written extensively in the areas of Psychology and Counseling, and travels across the nation conducting parenting workshops and seminars. Dr. Miller has appeared on numerous television and radio programs where he is recognized as a leader in his field.

In 1995, Professor David Miller established a Counseling Center at University Baptist Church. He served as Founding Director of the Counseling Center. Presently, Dr. Miller is a Therapist with Psychological Associates, a division of a large hospital system in Florida.

David and his wife, Linda, reside in Jacksonville, Florida where they enjoy their three married children and their grandchildren.