

Centerville Junior High Anti-Plagiarism Checklist

Research

1. When working on my paper, did I keep a list of all the books, articles, websites, and other sources I used? Yes No
2. In my notes, did I keep track of which information came from which sources? Yes No

Drafting

3. When I used sentences just as they were in the source, did I always put quotation marks around them? Yes No
4. When I summarized ideas in my own words, did I remember to give credit to the original source? Yes No
5. Did I ask my teacher if I was unsure of how to list a source or whether to list it? Yes No
 Not Applicable
6. Did I use parenthetical citations (in-text citations) to document my sources? Yes No

Final Paper

7. Do I know what format (MLA/APA) I should use for this assignment? Yes No
8. Did I include a "Works Cited" page containing all books, articles, websites, and other sources that I used? Yes No
9. Is my "Works Cited" or "Bibliography" page in proper MLA or APA format as this assignment requires? Yes No

This checklist is based on one found on KidsHealth.org at <http://kidshealth.org/kid/feeling/school/plagiarism.html> and adapted from a checklist created by Brian Ferguson for South Davis Junior High