

2018 Ignatian Family Teach-In for Justice Application

The Ignatian Family Teach-In for Justice is an annual gathering for members of the Ignatian family (Jesuit institutions and larger church) to come together in the context of social justice and solidarity to learn, reflect, pray, network, and advocate together. It is a place where people are empowered, re-energized, inspired, challenged, and supported by a community that sees faith and justice integrally linked. The messages we will hear in November will strengthen our work for justice on Capitol Hill and in our communities across the country. If you would like to be a part of this weekend please complete and return this application to Ms. Stanley by Tuesday, September 18, 2018.

Ms. Stanley will contact applicants on Monday, Sept. 24th letting them know if they are part of this year's delegation, when meetings will be and when payments are due. Please contact her with any questions (sstanley@fairfieldprep.org).

When: Saturday, November 3 – Monday, November 5, 2018 – group will discuss leaving Friday evening based on availability.

Where: Crystal Gateway Marriott, Arlington, VA

Transportation: Our group will be taking an Amtrak train

Cost: $500.00; this cost does not include meals.
