

Calhoun City Schools values the input given by all stakeholders during the calendar planning process each year and would like to use the broad based flexibility that the system charter allows to consider flexible scheduling each year based on school improvement initiatives. We feel that the adoption of a multiple year calendar may impose restrictions if a change is needed to be made due to curriculum and/or budgetary needs. However, we also recognize the importance of long range planning by families and staff; therefore, CCS is committed to the following for the next three school years.
