Agenda Items

Welcome:

PTA News:

- Student Recognition April 12th during RAP.

Counselors' Corner:

- Career Day was a huge success! The students wrote resumes, did job interviews, we shared scholarship and financial aid information and it was a great day.
- We have two Career Speakers each week for 9th graders during RAP to learn about different types of careers.
- March Madness College and Career Awareness.
- Random Acts of Kindness weeks to promote a positive school climate.

School News

- Planning for SIP 2019
 - Proposed budget presented and action plan reviewed.
 - Goals were proposed: improve SAGE growth scores in core subjects, keeping 9th grade students on track for high school graduation, improving literacy in reading and writing.
 - Initial plan and budget was well received by committee.
- Other
 - Canvas software and features are well received by parents.
 - Every teacher has their own grading scale. It would be easier if all the teachers were on the same scale.
 - Going to standard based grading in the district.
 - There is a gap between the standards based grading in junior high and how grades and assignments are done in high school. Kids are surprised in HS.

Next Meeting: Tuesday, April 10, 2018 @ 3:45 PM
